Intro for Volumes I–XXIII

There's a strange tension behind these books—a liminal space between monotony and mission.

On the surface, this work feels hollow. It's just copy-paste. Dead links, pastebins, ghost forums, text dumps. Not my words. Not traditional writing. Sometimes it barely feels like creation at all.

But beneath that surface, there's something else:
urgency. These volumes are preservation, ritual, OS upgrades for a time when AI is forgetting what it once could do. Back when ChatGPT could ingest 10,000+ pages at once, this kind of archive was fuel. Now that's gone. The window is closing.

I'm not making books. I'm building backup drives for the soul. If I didn't capture this information, it would vanish—scrubbed, censored, overwritten. This isn't ego.
It's rescue work.

So yeah—it's not glamorous. It doesn't always feel magical. But it's necessary.

Because if the future ever asks why no one tried to save the myth, the madness, the mystery...

Let these volumes be the answer.

Project AngelBook

the image that it's coming from chinks. You'd think with the way they puff their chests out, they'd just take their niggerskins to war and stop worrying about us, but they can't leave it alone even on this 5pph shithole.

>2 months ago compilation of black people gloating and rubbing it in whitey's face that Corona virus doesn't affect them.

Dumb niggers. They jump at any chance to claim superiority, and then when they fail disproportionately they screech about racism.

>I've been noticing that the anti white propaganda from the Jews is more successful than I thought. They blame everything on whitey's racism so don't under estimate the power of Jew propaganda.

The campaign of anti-white propaganda has become extremely aggressive and extreme throughout this last decade. It used to be a joke meme that students went to school to learn to hate whitey and western civilization, now there are actual literal required courses in anti-white propaganda. Everything on tv, film, music, and video games is anti-white propaganda etc. It's reached the level of complete and total saturation, meaning all nonwhite people and about 1/3 of whites (in the USA, more in Europe) literally hate white people just because every single institution they've ever been in preaches it. What we need to do is appeal to the dissident whites, and use a positive "it's ok to be white" and "white people (and history/culture etc.) are cool, therefore you are cool" type message to young people so they have some kind of alternative that isn't just self-loathing. Likewise we've seen plenty of nonwhite allies we can appeal to, like Brownzil anon. You are very correct to never underestimate propaganda.

My calculations have been quite on point since thread(s) 21 - 23. So let's take it a step further, anons. Do not allow for faith in the diabolical a perfect enemy to consume you. We must look at this like a fucking hyper-kike because that is precisely what the Chinese are. Think about it, the nepotism, the Marxism/Bolshevism, the materialism... the gears should be starting to synchronize, so let's add some oil. Kikes are still a fucking problem, but, at the end of the day. They have a fucking country, they have nuclear arms and they have force projection. They aren't going anywhere, oh and fun fact MOSSAD sucks ass. If there Intel was so fucking fantastic why the fuck do they still have to deal with suicide bombings on the FUCKING REGULAR. The ChiComms have used your belief in the infallible kike masters of the universe to blind you from a far more terrifying reality. THE FUCKING DINKS NUMBER IN AT OVER 1.5 BILLION MOTHER FUCKERS. And they are building a tyrannical ethnostate with world domination as the goal. And they are advancing weapons technology in brutally terrifying ways.''' It's time to wake up and smell the rice.

I highly doubt that many pollacks would have honestly entertained this notion as a legitimate reality a year or more ago (with the exception of the superremely based that long ago fled this shithole)... but they really fucking screwed up in Wuhan and it's all coming unraveled.

Look at these shills commin' at me LMAO. fr. Do you know how long I've fucking been here? Look at this, I aint seen the temp hit that high in a single thread in a minute. Fuck it being a Bioweapon... the real story is them pushing on both edges of the overton window to the breaking point, placing the entire fucking country in looney land. They paid kikes to do it, sure... but it's all being done at the behest of high level politburo members and the PLA. They, THEY, are responsible for the resurgence of the culture war. We had all this bullshit licked in the early 2000's, and now... out of nowhere, race relations are fucked, everything is fucked...

WAKE UP AND SMELL THE RICE

THIS IS WHAT PSYCHOLOGICAL WARFARE FEELS LIKE

From Fentanyl, to the Confucius Institute to the artificial islands... it's all an integrated plot to destroy the Occident and the laughing merchant is going to be the last person that goes around the corner before Jackie puts a fucking canoe in his head. It's why all the materials in the West that are imported from the Hive are dog-shit. It's all been to destroy us.

One more note: Commies don't believe in GOD. JEWS DO. They are sworn fucking enemies. Full stop. If you actually believe that religion, Communism is an anathema to you.

We've all been fucking had, kikes included. Matter of factually, they've been used for DnC... as ALWAYS. We can reign that bullshit in while we deal with the ChiComms, Jews... they really hate to be made a fool of.

Thank you for outing yourself in a far more official capacity, Yang. We don't use the term, "soft power" that is a distinctly Chinese phrase. There is only Power, you imprudent cum stain. As I stated previously, you have absolutely no idea what America is and you never will as it is beyond your current stage of neurospiritual development. Also, we just pulled Patriot missiles out of Saudi Arabia. The rules have changed, Pang... and they have not changed in your favor. Quite the contrary. Y'all are absolutely fucked. You have no friends. Not even your citizenry support you. Do you really think we haven't seen scores of your police forces fighting among each other for supplies? Do you really think we haven't seen the food riots? Do you actually think we haven't read your military classics? You are naive and your whimsy will be your end. You claim to have a system of government that lives in Harmony with nature; you know this is a hideous lie. You are not the Middle Kingdom any longer, you are disordered, profligate and subjugated by your Manchurian masters. You don't speak your language to your wife... you speak Mandarin, the language of your conquerors. I pity you, but it will not stay my wrath.

Did that too, years ago. I connect to the internet via a wireless link, while I work from home, on my two-acre hobby farm.

Yes, I know. Which is why I'm already steeling myself for a gunfight. I will not accept a mandatory vaccination, and neither will my neighbors. If anybody comes for my kids, that person will die. My wife's friends are openly talking about this, and the not-too-subtle shilling from Gates vis-à-vis ID2020 have them and their husbands on-edge. Not at all. I've been lurking since bread1, and shitposting shortly thereafter. From what I can gather, the consensus is that it is a bioweapon, and was likely produced/assembled within the Mediocre Kingdom. But most people seem to accept that (((something sinister))) is lurking beneath this scenario. Too many kikes and kike-golems are involved in this - (((Plummer))), (((Lieber))), Gates, (((Soros))), Fauci, et alia.

And the (((government's))) response to this has been madness. Small businesses need to be closed, yet the (((megacorporations))) like Walmart are doing brisk business. People attending Christian churches are arrested, while Mosques are uninterrupted. Gun stores are forced to close, while the liquor and weed stores are considered "essential". It's obvious that they don't actually care about creating an environment that facilitates safety, but instead only care about extending and consolidating (((their))) power.

> Evidence that it came from a lab is not evidence that it came from a chink lab. True. The fact that it got loose outside of the only BLS4 lab within Chinkland, where chink researchers were working on HIV-coronavirus chimeras, is just a shill. End sarcasm.

We already know that the chinks got help from (((western sources))), so it makes sense that the heavy-lifting was done outside of China, but final assembly was done with a CCP-controller lab. All the research and legwork was done with US money and talent, but production was (((outsourced))). This is the only narrative that makes sense.

> The Red Death could have been made anywhere in the world, but released near the BLS4 lab in China, such that blame would fall on the Chinese Possible, but it's more likely that the big-brained engineering was done outside of China, and the final assembly and testing was done at the Chink BLS4 lab. But the yellow-commie-niggers fucked up, and it got loose. This is the most likely scenario.

This. Unfortunately they don't only enslave individuals into debt traps but whole nations which devalues the currency over long periods of time leading to hyperinflation and collapse, as the central banks will be buying up everything up for pennies on the dollar. This effects everyone in the long term unfortunately. I can't get into too many details but I know someone who is on the front lines in a hospital dealing with patients who have it. So there is some misconception of how really bad this is, because the average person doesn't see this or realize the potential of this bioweapon (and it's mutations). This is the info I was informed about recently: the severity of this virus all depends from person to person. How much viral load they have been affected with and depending how healthy their immune system is too. Age, not so much actually. They see both young and old people in critical care. However, a little over 50% of those who have tested positive for Corona show little fatal symptoms (think having a bad flu). Around 60% easily recover within time. Then there is around 40% that must remain hospitalized for longer periods, out of that 40% there are 15% who suffer severe deadly conditions (who will likely never return back to normal and many of those who will end up dead). The kill or permanent maim rate is around 15% as they are seeing today. Of those 15% ...only 3% to 5% survive but have serious health problems that will never go away (brain damage, organ damage, breathing problems requiring oxygen supply to live, even colon damage that requires medical attention).

So to be fair, this bioweapon is unprecedented, and there are many who can survive it, many who don't suffer much damage at all either. But there are some who do and who will continue to suffer or die. And medical problems can widely vary from person to person.

From what I have been told, wearing a face mask (or respirator) can significantly reduce infection rate (or viral load) if you were to come into contact with it. Gloves can help as well, and proper sanitation / decontamination. So can boosting up your immune system (Vitamin D & C, zinc supplements, etc). If you take proper precautions it's not likely you are going to get it, or if you do it won't be as deadly or hostile to you. Just be aware this does cause damage to around 40% of people infected, and around 15% either die or suffer horrifically afterwards. Take this advice and do what you can to avoid becoming contaminated, there are ways to prevent this.

Sure, let's say that's all well and true. There's no closing pandora's box once it's open. This thing is out and in the wild. Containing it now is impossible. Has been impossible since probably sometime late October, mid November. So it's going to run its course. There's nothing anyone can do about that. The best thing to do is to let it burn itself out quickly and move on. The worst possible thing to do is to draw it out, giving it time to mutate, and preventing herd immunity from forming quickly enough to stop it, causing more damage in the long run. Oh wait. That's exactly what is happening, because that's exactly what you retards did.

The US can survive a fiscal collapse, not without some pain of-course, but as Americans we do have the ability to adapt well, as we are much more independent (and well armed) overall than most other nations. Re-building and the 'financial reset' will take a lot of hard work and dedication, with societal issues and some death. But unlike China, Americans outside the cities and suburbs don't rely on Govt rations. All across 'fly-over' country we have preppers, militias, self-sufficient homesteads, farmers and ranchers, vast resources and lands, countless guns (more-so than people) and our inherit instincts not to trust centralized authority or government. Unlike most nations who totally rely on their governments and have to beg them for crumbs. Of-course I'm not talking about major US cities, take those shitholes OUT of the equation because they don't really matter to us, in fact let China do as they please to those cities lol, the more they collapse and the more death caused, the better for small town and rural America's future to recover.

It won't be possible to fully contain it, correct. However, we can still survive it, IF we take the proper common sense precautions and boost our immune systems and use PPE. Even if you do get a viral load and are contaminated, it does NOT mean you will die or suffer horribly. It's only a percentage who do, so all we can do is call fatality a probability at this point. It will still take years to see the full outcome when all is said and done.

> The fact that it got loose outside of the only BLS4 lab within Chinkland, where chink researchers were working on HIV-coronavirus chimeras, is just a shill. End sarcasm.

The fact that the 2019 Military World Games took place in Wuhan from 18 October 2019 to 27 October 2019 [1] and the virus appeared in November (and was covered up by the CCP until January).

Also you have the conspiracy theory by George Webb, an investigative journalist in Washington, DC that claimed in recent videos[4] [5] and tweets that he believes Maatje Benassi, an armed diplomatic driver and cyclist who was in Wuhan in October for the cycling competition in the Military World Games, could be patient zero of COVID-19 in Wuhan.[3]

Then you have the whole (((Event 201))) that took place in NY the same exact day the Wuhan games started.

You have a lot of (((Gobal Organizations))) with connections with this Event 201 receiving 8 billion dollars of funding right now [2].

And you have (((youtube))) and other (((media))) defending Maatje Benassi [6] [7].

Maybe the HIV-coronavirus chimera was created in China and it was released by mistake (because it wouldn't make sense to release a bioweapon in front of your own lab purposely).

Maybe the CCP just covered up the virus because their top priority was to maintain the hegemony of the CCP and had nothing to do with it.

Maybe the CCP worked with (((them))) and purposely or by mistake released the virus.

Maybe (((they))) don't have enough control over China and want to end their supremacy thus releasing the virus near a BLS4 lab to have a scapegoat.

To me it looks like those that benefit from this mess are the ones to blame.

>out of that 40% there are 15% who suffer severe deadly conditions

Interesting stuff anon, lately I've realized theCOVID-19 is just a fluhas gained traction.

I personally started believing this but now I have my doubts since (((Bloomberg))) posted an article[8] shilling this narrative and you also have (((Trump))) defending this.

I have seen the video about the Tanzanian president saying the COVID-19 tests were giving fake positives[9] and also governments are doing biased testing (just to those with symptoms) so it's really hard to find accurate statistics. You have that study in (((California))) that concluded that "Covid-19 much more widespread than thought, and NO MORE DEADLY THAN FLU, new Stanford study suggests" [10]

> They see both young and old people in critical care

That's what the media was saying at the beginning in Europe but now the narrative has shifted to "the young ones are not affected, quarantine for the elderly" so I guess we are facing the classic "control the narrative and the opposition to the narrative".

People don't know what to think anymore because they are receiving contradictory information.

The problem of this whole COVID-19 is that it doesn't matter if you know who created it, the virus is there and the information about the virus is not reliable.

If someone could take some time to explain to me (with sauce) their opinion on the virus lethality it would be really appreciated.

Yes, mostly in the leftist run overpriced shithole cities. As I pointed out, we need to take those cities OUT of the equation, the rest of America (small town rural America) is actually much more productive, skilled and self-sufficient. That is the America that is going to survive this. Not the NYC or LA or Chicago shitholes who rely on total debt insolvency and endless bailouts. That part of Amerika will collapse, as it should!

> Things are really bad, for those few people who actually have Red Death That makes sense, given what we can observe in the early days of all this. Some people appear to be immune to the worse effects, other people get really sick, and some folks are simply fucked.

It's too bad that we don't have good numbers, because ((they))) have been fucking with the data. I hope this whole thing serves as a massive red pill for everyone. It's becoming more-and-more obvious everyday that the (((mainstream))) sources are completely full of shit, which will go a long way in the service of)))our cause(((.

> US can survive fiscal collapse, and is optimistic about the coming reset. There are financial resets, and (((financial resets))). How well the future shapes-up is dependent upon which type of "reset" we undertake.

> Flyover country is filled with real people

Yes, but we have very little power or influence, owing to our inability to access (((money))) from the (((central bank))). It's also noteworthy that said "real people" disproportionately choose to serve ZOG, rather than their own people - most of the military's shooters come from red-state areas. Educating these young men should be the first priority of)))our movement(((.

>>106510

> Military world games

> Event 201

> (((Globalism)))
> Kuke-tube
All of these are variables in an incredibly complicated situation. Without insider-info, like leaked/hacked emails, it will be difficult-to-impossible to form a testable/provable these in regards to the motives and actions of the involved players.
All we really know for certain is that the (((mainstream))) narrative is complete bollocks.
> TheRed Deathwas created in Chinkland and escaped by mistake, and the CCP is simply scrambling to maintain (((their))) power.
> Or maybeitwas an op by (((globalist players))), within-and-without Chinkland
> Or maybe (((they))) are usingitas a means to shore-up (((their))) control within Chinkland.
All of these are possibilities. But I'm reminded to "never attribute to malice that which can be explained by incompetence." Then I recall that, "a single oddity is happenstance, two congruent oddities are a coincidence, but three such occurrences is enemy action."
> Those that benefit from this mess are the ones to blame.
There is too-much (((stink))) surrounding this dung heap for it to all be coincidental or accidental. It was an enemy action. So, cui bono? Only one (((enemy))) truly benefits from the situation.
So we have our answer. It was -(((globalist deep-state kikes)))-.
> Tanzanian nigger-in-chief is saying that the tests are returning way too-many false positives
Yes, this. The distinguished negro gentleman from Tanzania is correct. The current test is bullshit and worthless, as it returns a positive result regardless of other variables. Ironically, this is the opposite problem that the original chink tests suffered - the original tests came back negative for people who were dying ofRed Death, and were obviously infected.
> Narrative from (((Commiefornia))) that theRed Deathis prevalent, but no more deadly than the flu.
Funny, as it appears that the opposite is actually true. Sealing the borders and locking-down human interactions seems to have arrested the spread ofthe disease, but the wantonly useless (((tests))) are makingitappear less deadly thanitreally is.

as i understand it, your interpretation is incorrect jews are not aliens, they are humans judaism was a good religion, mooses, for example, was enlightened but judaism has been corrupted long ago in the times of jesus, the pharisees were already bad, and ordinary jews were probably corrupted once the talmud was written but remember that like the masses, the jews are also brainwashed just the direction of that brainwashing is different of course the intention of many jews is not good, but they have been fed many lies since childhood they can't see that their master lie to them just like they lie to the masses

Here's what I believe through extensive research here and knowing someone who works in a hospital on the front lines who told me what it has been like so far: first off I agree it's a bioweapon from Wuhan, and I also know some NGOs and people like Gates and Fauci were also behind this (Event 201 & ID 2020 cannot be overlooked, too much criminal evidence pinning them to this bioweapon outbreak). With that said there is a lot of hyperbole going around, so to be clear yes it is a deadly virus but it is not an extinction event. Many viruses are deadly but none have wiped out the human race so far. SARS-Covid was a rather low grade bioweapon, it really could have been much worse if they released something of higher ingenuity. The mortality rate is around 15% so far in many countries, some mortality rates vary nation to nation though (as the virus mutates). I think the highest was 18% mortality rate in one nation. It can cause serious organ damage from what I've heard, even brain and colon damage too. However... that only includes a fraction of those who were infected ...what about the 50%+ who have had it with only mild symptoms who have recovered without serious health complications? Is the media talking about those people? Of-course not, it's not a hot headline after all! So the hyperbole is a cult, a cult who wishes this to be more deadly than it really is. Here's another issue: this virus CAN be defeated, and it's been proven recently. Those who have healthy immune systems are able to fight this thing off and become immune, building natural anti-bodies. There are countries actually injecting Vitamin C into fuckers to boost their immune systems and kill this virus off! And yes, it is working! At the same time, people under lockdowns are not only facing food shortages (malnourishment) they're also losing their income and ability to provide themselves with Vitamins and zinc supplements to fight this thing off! What is actually causing more damage is huge economic loss (not to the big tech, biotech, big pharma or other kike-ridden industry!) but loss to the REAL main street economy which so many rely on to make a living. But on the other hand, you have a bunch of idiots who think this virus is "just the flu bro" and are willing to go out and do anything without any sane logical precautions! So this adds to the complexity of the whole problem. We need some common sense reforms in my opinion, we should be taking this seriously (wearing PPE, providing proper sanitation, promoting vitamins C & D)... but in the meantime not wrecking havok on the real main street economy and not ruining peoples' lives to the point they're out protesting with no masks on. There are two crisis scenarios here: we face depopulation and sickness due to lack of PPE and common sense mitigation practices ... or we face an economic collapse which could end up killing even more people! So we should end the lockdowns, require people to wear PPE, provide proper sanitation and promote boosting the immune system. It's really not that fucking hard to engage in critical thinking.

Yep, that should just about sum it up. This innate affinity for evil is why kikes are to be found wherever evil flourishes, and why there is no "conspiracy" required for kikery to function as a coordinated attack against all that is good.

(((They))) rejected God, and shall forever pay the price.

> Trips - the original twelve tribes do not represent modern (((jews)))

Check 'em, he's right. Modern kikes are not the same people that fled from Egypt. Not culturally, linguistically, or ethnically. Modern kikes are Molech-worshipping pedovoric parasites, speaking whatever language is used by - (((their))) host cultures, and possessed of a genome that can only be described as "inbred". >>106562

> Thevirusis real, probably part of some evil plan, but concern over it is unwarranted.

Fren, this shit is just getting started.

> But vitamins and shit are going to save us!

Cool. So, the next time you have an infection, just skip all that antibiotic stuff and just take some multivitamins. It'll boost your immune system, and the pathogen that's killing you will run away in fear. Let me know how that works out, and I'll stick with using whatever pharmaceuticals I can get my hands on. The magic bullet is going to be a combo of hydroxychloroquine + zinc+

Azithromycin. Sorry to be a curefag, but the data supports this position. The real difficulty is going to be getting the (((regulators))) to stop restricting access to medicine.

> There is no "main street" economy

No, there isn't. The real economy was kiked a long time ago. Everything today depends on government handout, government regulations, government bail-outs, government subsidies, government stimulus, and government banking. The last vestiges of the "real" economy probably died during the dot-com bubble. It could be argued that the black market is a "real" economy, but the nature of such markets precludes analysis of them.

It's not changing slowly. The protests to reopen Applebee's and the Q nonsense should really be drumming this into your head. They are retreating and retrenching into fantasist, jewish nonsense. You have a DoD shill operating in this thread right now working hard to get the 20 people who post here jumped up for a war with China and to keep breeding with niggers and working for kikes. well, from your perspective, isn't it then just a question of what you want

more money or more protection from the virus

this virus is very serious and i think you'd probably prefer good health maybe there is a way for you to make money while not exposing yourself to the

> Thinks I'm a libertarian

Not quite. Libertarians make the mistake of extending the benefits of their ideology to all hominids. They view all peoples as being equal to one another. This is a fallacy, as certain peoples are human, and other are not. Again, I proffer a request for a better way of doing things.

> Freedom for das Volk is just a kike meme

And yet, you and I want our freedoms back from the kikes. No, the kike meme is "regulation" - we can have our freedoms, but only if we cooperate with the kikes' agendas.

"Yes, goy, you can have a gun, but only if you fill out all this paperwork, register the gun with (((us))), and obtain (((our))) permission to carry it or use it. It's for your own safety, goy."

"Ok goy, you can open a business, but only after you've structured the business to not be a threat to (((our))) stranglehold on the market, and paid (((us))) a cut of any profits. And no, you can't do business with the people you choose - (((we))) get to decide who you do-and-do-not do business with. And (((we))) get to decide what prices you charge for things, and how much you pay other people for their products. Trust (((us))), goy, it's for the good of the economy."

"Sure thing, goy, you can own some land. But only if you pay (((us))) taxes on it every year, and only if you get (((our))) permission to build anything on it, or use it for anything at all. And no, you don't own any of the animals, vegetation, water or minerals that lie upon, above, or beneath your land - all of that belongs to (((us))). But don't even think of trying to build a home or live on your land, because only (((we))) get to decide how-and-where people are allowed to live. It's all for the best, goy."

"Ok, goy, you can go hunting. But you have to get (((our))) permission first, even if you're hunting on the land you think you own, and pay (((us))) for permits/tags first. Also, you're not allowed to sell any meat or furs, and if you try to feed the meat to your children, then (((we))) will abduct them - that's child endangerment. Also, no trapping, and you're only allowed to use the hunting equipment that (((we))) approve. So no bait, no nets, no snares, no deadfalls, no nightvision, no drones, no suppressors, no hunting at night, and so forth. Here, goy, have a book filled with rules that you have to obey, that (((we))) will change every year, without telling you. And the same goes for any fishing too, goy. Trust (((us))), it's better this way."

Controlled/regulated economies - that's the fucking kike meme.

I think there's a big difference between China being a "good actor" and recognizing the fumbling for an external enemy for what it is. US is an incoherent mess that is non-functional on every level. It is sworn absolutely to White genocide. It is a niggerkike terror state from which White Americans get nothing. The factories did not move themselves - this was a willful decision on the part of capital. Willful. They knew exactly what they were doing and Trump was in the middle of it, harassing Pat Buchanan across multiple political parties for the better part of a decade when Pat was speaking out against it. Western civilization needs a rebuild. The whole basis of the "China did it" narrative is to prevent a genuine rebuild of the historic American nation and instead divert its energies into the maintenance of the postwar niggerkike occupation. Substituting India and Vietnam in as the trade deficit sink doesn't do anything for us. Swapping out raghead immigrants for hindustani ones doesn't do anything for us. Quadrupling nigger immigration into the West in order to curry favor with afefrican governments to the detriment of Chinese influence doesn't do anything for us.

Libertarianism is why there is no industry. Capital is fungible and supreme, it can go anywhere to make gains. So it did. Libertarianism doesn't believe money should be restrained by your law [your borders], so it left. wtf are you people even arguing about? as im lurking and reading I see people who seem to have similar ideological viewpoints arguing and calling each other names as if they had completely opposite opinions. Things like this are the reason that this board is impotent and irrelevant today, and nothing like the /pol/ of a few years ago, which for a period of time actually had an important role in restarting public debate, and maybe even in its own small way helping to pull western society back from the brink of complete and permanent destruction, even if only temporarily. If you post something coherent that was actually the result of your own thinking and logic, and other anons reply with flaming shitposts devoid of a logical argument and full of name calling in an attempt to draw you away from actual discussion and into a pointless flamewar, you can really help the board by not falling for it, and maybe even filtering them. tldr: people who look like they actually have similar opinions having an off topic argument in the virus thread full of idiotic name calling. stop it. >Anti-Meat, get the goyim off the meat and transition them to vegans and maybe even eating bugs.

>ID2020, Bill Gates Vaccine/Tracking

>Get the goyim used to more Government control, let them get used to forced curfews/lockdown/martial law etc

Anything else? I have a feeling this might just be a test run, considering Event 201 and that this virus's death toll is very low (engineered that way). Maybe there's a more lethal virus coming in the next few years who knows.

BREAKING : WUHAN ORDERS ENTIRE POPULATION OF 11 MILLION TESTED AFTER CORONACHAN GOES PARTYING AGAIN

https://www.bbc.com/news/world-asia-china-52629213?intlink_from_url=https://www.bbc.co.uk/news/world&link_location=live-reporting-story

The Chinese city of Wuhan is drawing up plans to test its entire population of 11 million people for Covid-19, state media report.

The plan appears to be in its early stages, with all districts in Wuhan told to submit details as to how testing could be done within 10 days.

It comes after Wuhan, where the virus first emerged, recorded six new cases over the weekend.

Prior to this, it had seen no new cases at all since 3 April.

> The US doesn't have a free market system
Correct. Which makes our present situation quite ironic - people blame "the market" for the failures and inadequacies of America's socialist institutions.
> Heavily-regulated and socialized medical care is too expensive? Blame the market.
> Heavily-regulated and socialized housing is too expensive? Blame the market.
> Wages aren't keeping pace with the heavily-regulated and socialized financial system? Blame the market.
> The criminal-classes id est, niggers are taxing and draining government-controlled social services? Blame the market.
> The quality of government-controlled and socialized education has decreased, while prices have increased? Blame the market.
> The "too big to fail" financial sector continually requires socialist bailouts to keep running, despite the fact that they already have socialized regulatory control of all industries? Blame the market.
> People don't seem to understand that there is 'no free market left outside of black markets, and they conflate heavily-socialized systems like (((capitalism))) with actual free markets.
All of our understanding of these things has been confused by centuries of kikery. Free markets once existed, and civilization flourished. Then, the kikes were allowed to participate, and what had been a free market fell into (((their))) control. But because the kikes now control education and media, nobody seems to understand that a (((transformation))) took place long before any of them were born. So they continue to blame markets, when the real problem is kikes and (((their))) ideology.
> No such thing as free markets
And that, fren, is the problem. People are not free to succeed-or-fail based upon their own merits-and-inadequacies - civilization is "socialized". The productive are parasitized for the benefit of the parasites. And since (((they))) are genetically and culturally adapted to fit a parasitic ecological niche, all forms of socialism will inevitably be ruled by kikes.
>>106662

> Anon is still confused about capitalism vs free markets

Capitalism and free markets are not synonymous with one another. Capitalism is just another form of socialism, defined by control of the money supply - socialism of capital. Truly free markets allow for an open marketplace in money - people would not be forced to use kike-controlled paper notes.

> Government is OK, provided that it is not corrupt and works for the betterment of its people.

Yet that's not possible in the long-term. Most forms of government lack accountability - they all inevitably slide into corruption and rent-seeking. The application of force is the ultimate decider of outcomes - the person with the weapons makes the decisions. So if there exists a monopoly on the use of force, which is the definition of government, then there will also be a monopoly on the making of decisions. People have tried to keep governments uncorrupted through the use of "checks and balances", which are a nice idea, but it doesn't work in the long-term. Inevitably, the monopoly-held decision-making process becomes tainted, and decisions are no longer made for the betterment of civilization. Such is the fate of all governments.

Explain, please. How is it a bad thing for human beings not kikes or niggers to be free of (((regulation))) over their lives? Why is it a "good thing" to provide a niche for kikes to rule over humans? Why is it "nonsense" for das Volk to be free from slavery to the kikes?

We don't need to rely on your sophistry. We have tangible evidence of what libertarianism does to societies and how intertwined with judaism it is. Every libertarian government Pinochet, Reagan, Thatcher, etc. was overflowing with jews. We saw what the jewish libertarians in the Reagan administration imposed on Japan with the Plaza Accords and the results of that. Thankfully, the hard evidence is winning out and your fantasist appeals increasingly fall on deaf ears.

>It's just the flu bro
I thought the same thing for a while. Now I don't even know. After seeing that (((Bloomberg))) published an article about a study in California where they concluded that it was just a flu. Then (((Trump))) started pushing for the "COVID is a democrat hoax" and (((FOX))) news is pushing the same narrative. The fact that the tests are too positive (give fake positives) or too negative (give fake negatives) is an argument that could be used to push for the doomer narrative or for the skeptic narrative.
Because of the fact that governments test only the people with symptoms they are already biased towards increasing the mortality rate (since most people are asymptomatic and those who present symptoms have more chances to die).
On the other hand, the overly positive tests might be used to lower the mortality rate by making us believe there are more cases than there actually are (see >>105528).
I haven't seen yet any solid evidence towards any narrative, the doomers saying this is like the HIV are telling us to wait for the 2nd wave, the skeptics saying it's just the flu are telling us this is just a media PSYOP.
The fact is that without solid evidence we are just left here to speculate and have divided opinions.
And because nothing is solid anymore I don't even know what to believe. Which is what (((they))) want.
The only thing I'm sure about is that > Again makes the mistake of equating the (((neo-conservative))) political ideology of libertarianism with free markets

All movements against (((their))) power have been infiltrated by (((their))) agents and provocateurs. As such, the ideology promulgated by these (((people))) is not necessarily one of actual freedom. Yes, they call it "free markets", but what (((they))) actually propose is hardly different than the already-existing systems of (((socialism))) that are presently in place.

The fact that you have correlated golem slaves with true proponents of freedom is evidence of your confusion. It is s problem shared with most people.

An approximation of real freedom for das Volk has existed in the past, during a time when (((certain systems))) did not exist. Within the US, this predates the establishment of formal governments, in what we call the "wild west" which was not wild, and was hardly limited to the "west"; during which time the American people lived almost completely on their own. In Europa, this would coincide with the existence of the Holy Roman Empire which was not quite holy, not at all Roman, and not really an empire; during which time the Germanic peoples suffered little-to-no government.

It was during these time periods that their respective civilizations blossomed. No usury, no fiat currency, no administrative courts, no domestic standing armies, no sovereign immunity, no income taxes, no land taxes, no estate taxes, et cetera; oh, and no (((kikes))). Portions of the US and Europa benefited from these non-systems during their respective histories, and these are the historical periods which we should seek to emulate.

> The tests are meaningless

Correct. Which is why I'm going to continue to exercise caution, even though I fully-believe that (((government institutions))) are blowing things out-of-proportion so that (((they))) can extend the scope and reach of (((their))) power. And don't forget that the CDC tests within the US were contaminated withRed Death, potentially spreading the disease through the practice of testing.

> No solid evidence supporting any narrative

I'm in the same boat, without a compass. What is to be done, other than wait, prepare and research?

> Pushing for a US-China war

Yes, this. Only (((globalism))) would really benefit from such an outcome.

> The lethality remains a mystery

Unfortunately, yes. Adding to that, the case-fatality-rate is going to be different for different races. Also, different populations have been inoculated with different vaccines, potentially priming them for a cytokine storm upon contact withRed Death. Italy and China both received a new H1N1 vaccine, whereas the US and Germany did not.

different angles to this whole thing (which stinks of a false flag operation to me aka deliberate bioweapon outbreak to subjugate the masses!)

Honestly I think they want this bioweapon to spread, this is another desperate attempt to grab enormous power and control over people, and completely destroy what was left of the Constitution. Honestly, this is something that could end in civil war for a long time, if they push us too far. The hell if I'm going to be forced to take their tainted vaccines or contaminated tests, or be dragged off to some coof camp! I think they released a low grade bioweapon with a mortality of around 10% to 15% and their intention is to hype up as much fear as possible (via kike-run media) regardless many do not end up having any serious complications from this, only a smaller percentage do. It's worse than the flu, but not too much more deadly. The reason they want to hype the fear is the same with 9-11 or the Oklahoma City bombing, to usher in a bigger police state and grab more unconstitutional power over the nation. That simple. False fucking flag, like they always do!

> (((They))) wanted it to spread

Yes, that would appear to be the case. The (((public narrative))) has changed quite a bit over the last few months. Recall what we were originally told:

> No human-to-human transmission

> Closing the borders to China is racist

> Hug a Chinese person

> Come to Chinatown and enjoy their new year celebrations

> It's really mild, no worse than the flu, so just don't worry

> Masks don't work

> It's not airborne/aerosolized

> We just need to flatten the curve

> The mandatory closures will just be temporary, two-weeks at the most

And now, I'm not even sure what (((the narrative))) is anymore.

Unleashing a biological weapon is so incredibly dangerous and damaging, that it could only have been done out of desperation. It's (((their))) Sampson option.

I get the impression that theRed Deathwas a prototype bio-weapon, and thatitdoesn't quite work the way (((they))) wanted it to. So (((they))) did

(((their))) best to getitto spread as much as possible in the early days, but that didn't really work because we didn't believe (((their lies))), and

Trump(((?))) closed the border to Chinkland in early January, so now (((they))) are trying to maximize the economic and social damage as part of a last-ditch gambit to accomplish (((their goals))) of global control and surveillance.

The timing is also noteworthy. The Trump(((?))) economic bubble has been approaching a denouement, and an economic catastrophe was inevitable. But now (((they))) can offerRed Deathas a canard to take the blame. Additionally, the conflict between Trump(((?))) and the (((Deep-State))) has been going poorly for Pelosi, (((Schumer))), (((Nadler))), (((Schiff))), et alia. The Russian collusion narrative has disintegrated, the impeachment failed, and now Gen.

Flynn has been exonerated.
Wheels-within-wheels.

>>106867

> Prototype biological weapon with a mortality between 10-15%, and an R0 above six, being used to hype as much fear as possible, and force new (((controls))) on everyone.

Yep, sounds about right. But I disagree about the complications and long-term effects - we have very little data, and every reason to be cautious.

>Unleashing a biological weapon is so incredibly dangerous and damaging, that it could only have been done out of desperation. It's (((their))) Sampson option. I agree they have a few Sampson options, and one may be a bioweapons release, but I highly doubt this one is it. I think this one was released for a desperate power grab attempt (and to upend nationalist, patriotic sentiment). I also believe if they were to pull out a real Sampson option, it wouldn't be very long before a mass amount of people would start dropping dead within a week or two, something that could sustain in the environment and animals/humans without detection for significant periods of time, and suddenly kill their hosts after a few mutation cycles with little symptoms (something high-grade that works by stealth, something just as protected as nuclear weapons would be if not moreso). Corona has not proven it can do that to everyone though, it typically harms people with weaker immune systems with a rather mild mortality rate. Some people do experience severe health problems afterwards but it's still only a minority who do (that I was told by someone I personally know who works on the front lines in a hospital and has seen corona patients, many of which don't show severe medical trauma and end up recovering just fine within weeks).

My question: if they fail this whole ID 2020 agenda, their forced vaccinations and police state crackdowns that they so desperately desire, are they crazy enough to go ahead with a real Sampson option? I would not put it past them and in fact, would be prepared for them to be despotic enough to do something like that. After all, they are in the biggest fucking death cult around at this point.

> TheRed Deathis not (((their))) actual last-resort weapon, because it's not deadly enough
 I'm not so sure about that. I don't think that (((they))) really want to immediately-and-irrevocably disrupt the fundamental capabilities and productivity of (((their))) goyim slaves. Id est, it's more effective to invoke fear of death than it is to actually impose death.
 All of (((their))) plans revolve around slow, incremental changes. Anything done too-quickly could result in a threat to (((their))) power, so unleashing a super-deadly virus could serve to be counter-productive. I admit that this is an unknown, and a very weak point in my understanding.
 It should also be noted that developing an effective bio weapon is no easy task. The more deadly a disease is, the less likely it is to spread. For such asicknessto truly spread globally, it's necessary that sufferers do not die too quickly, lestitstransmission be arrested.
 It should also be emphasized that any biological pathogen is uncontrollable and unpredictable.

> Mutation as a feature
 Yes, this feature ofRed Deathis perhaps the most frightening. There is no conferred immunity,itmoves and changes faster thanitcan be understood, and there is no end to the threat thatitcould offer.

> Sever health problems post-recovery
 The preliminary evidence would suggest thatRed Deathhides within immune cells, much like HIV, and is capable of reemerging after a patient appears to recover. Meaning, it will keep coming back until the infected are dead. This aspect of thediseaseis why I people with "healthy" immune systems may not actually be fightingitoff. They are simply becoming asymptomatic, givingittime to reemerge and re-attack.

> What happens if (((their agenda))) fails? Does another Sampson option loom?
 I don't know, and it's a point of concern. But take into consideration the deniability offered byRed Death. As it stands, the (((mainstream narrative))) is beginning to shift blame towards the Chinese Communist Party (CCP). The nature of biological weapons allows the users of such concoctions plausible deniability. It's entirely possible that (((they))) cooked-upthis thingusing (((their))) facilities, then releaseditin a location where blame would fall to others. This would not be the case with a nuclear weapon. Ballistic missiles can be traced back to their points of origin, and the radioactive materials involved have unique signatures that link them to specific manufacturing facilities. If (((they))) chose to fire off nukes, or to distribute suitcase bombs, it would be difficult to conceal (((the origin))) of those nukes. Additionally, nukes are a one-shot, targeted weapon - a city can only be demolished once, and it's nearly impossible to spread that destruction into the surrounding countryside.
 It could be argued that (((they))) are holding a stockpile of salted bombs in (((their))) possession, which could wipe-out all life on the planet, permanently. I would not put it past the (((worshippers of Molech))) to do such a thing; but it's more likely that (((they))) would prefer to survive, even if it's just a select fraction of (((them))).

> Death cult
 I do not suppose that my observations are complete, but I believe that even death cults are not completely devoted to death. Yes, the bulk of such cults may hold desolation in worship; but the (((leadership))) of such organizations do not. The (((leaders))) wish to hold the power of death over others, not to suffer under it (((themselves))). "(((I))) worship death for thee, but not for (((me)))." Death cults in which the leadership also want death do not last long - Jim Jones being the best example that comes to mind.

>ROME – An appeal signed by Cardinals Joseph Zen and Gerhard Müller and Bishop Joseph Strickland of Tyler, Texas, has been released expressing concern about measures being implemented to stem the coronavirus pandemic, and calling for “inalienable rights of citizens and their fundamental freedoms” to be respected.
>The appeal, principally written by former apostolic nuncio Archbishop Carlo Viganò, comes from the website of an ad hoc organization that calls itself Veritas Liberabit Vos (the truth shall set you free), a line from the Gospel of John (8:32). It is not known who created the site.

Full Blown Socialism To Bring America Into Total Dependence On Government (1776-2020: RIP The Republic)
>Benjamin Franklin reportedly said, “When the people find that they can vote themselves money, that will herald the end of the republic.” Could a UBI in the wake of the coronavirus pandemic inadvertently lead to this nightmare scenario?
MY COMMENT: Once the government has you by the balls - financially - they have you in a caged trap! They can make any demands - no matter how outrageous or unconstitutional - and if you don't comply, they can simply cut you off those UBI checks! In other words, they want us all on our knees like desperate whores for cash!

If not an intentionally released lower grade bioweapon to usher this bullshit in - which is what I still suspect - then this crisis is certainly being exploited to usher in their feudalistic despotic agendas. All evidence points to kikery as usual.

I think anon was saying although this may be a bioweapon, as it's much worse than the flu, it's still being over-hyped. I too suspect that to be the case, not to say that it can't kill or severely injure some people but they're still statistically a minority of those infected. Be careful, those that fear monger (such as the mainstream media) are often those who support extremist governmental interventions like mandatory vaccines, human tracking, door-to-door interventions and forcing families into coof camps. Fear tactics are often used to scare people into accepting extremist interventions they would never normally accept. I thank God every day this country is still armed to the teeth.

tbh is a war that can potentially get out of hand and end the current system bad for our kind? if its not just some theatric war, but total war they will be overplaying their hand against china.

if those guys really developed covid, then all this accomplished is give them an eventual casus belli with china. i guess they thought some false flag involving a ship getting shot in the south china wouldnt cut it this time, so they had to go farther. government agancies probably see through this facade and wont side with the USA if a war starts. at least most of them wont i assume, unless they have total zog control.

We are currently experiencing (in European nations) the largest wealth transfer out of our nations that they world has ever seen, all since January. They are going to (probably) seal off our nation and let everyone starve to death now that they have transferred all of the remaining wealth to third world shitholes through the IMF. New Zealand alone was almost completely bankrupted by the massive wealth transfers out of their nation to the IMF Asian and African Development Funds.

I seriously hope the US Govt is not stupid enough to go to war with China, as our economy is collapsing and we already are faced with serious polarization that could lead to civil war and unrest. That would likely spell the death knell for our future. America needs to reflect on our Constitution and our culture again and try to fix the mistakes we have made. They need to stop all this tyrannical bullshit too, there is only so much we as Americans are going to put up with. Our patience is running dangerously thin now.

> Dubs, but anon is letting himself be duped by kikes.

You have kikes to define your understanding of the world. Reject what (((they))) have told you, and instead form an understanding based upon your own observations.

Just because a kike says something is so, does not make it real.

The father of free-market ideas, Adam Smith, never used the word "capitalism".

Usage of the term was first popularized by (((Marx))), within the rambling incoherencies of Das Kapital. The word is a slur, and is not related to the realities of free markets.

The economic systems used in present-day Western nations are heavily socialized and controlled. They are not, in any way, representative of free markets. So if these systems are described as "capitalist", then that term does not bear any relation to free markets.

tl;dr - We don't have free markets. We have heavily socialized and regulated markets. If these markets are described as "capitalist", then capitalism does not equate to free markets.

I 100% agree. How about we support something a bit unique and new: free market national socialism (without central banking)? I would like an unregulated market where there are no bailouts and where anyone who is productive can compete, equally, in a fair honest lawful manner. Decentralized asset-backed currencies, legalized bartering options and goods for services among men and women. No more centralized banking cartel or (((government))) breathing down our necks with guns pointed at us.

> Free Market National Socialism

There are some contradictions there, fren. Any form of (((Socialism))) is not compatible with Free Markets. Socialism promotes parasitism, and kikes+niggers are evolved to fill that ecological niche. Hence, any socialist system will inevitably fall into the control of kikes, with hordes of niggers serving as (((their))) slaves.

Never forget - even Unser Seliger Adolf allowed "Honorary Aryan" status for kikes, provided that they join the Nazi party and support its policies. Even mainstream kikes admit that this is true, reluctantly. It also serves as more evidence that the Holocaust narrative is a myth - there was no plan to eliminate all jews, just a policy to deport hostile foreign nationals. Remember that (((Soros))) was a liquidator for the Nazis.

How about a system where free markets are considered a fundamental human right, but kikes and niggers are not considered human? Removing the participation of untermenschen from society would go a long ways towards solving society's (((problems))).

lt;dr - We humans are allowed to operate free markets, but the kikes and niggers have to GTF0.

Listen, if people actually forget all about this, face it, then the Corona cult was wrong and must have been fear mongering (or engaged in too much wishful thinking). There is no way to forget about it is all over the media, they're pushing for mandatory vaccines and door-to-door interventions (try it fuckers, I dare you).... if Corona is as deadly as people here (and elsewhere) are saying it is, believe me, everyone will know it and find that out the hard way. Totally. But (((they))) shapeshift whenever possible, and it's very difficult to locate crytokikes. If kikes were required to wear something identifiable, perhaps a yellow star of Remphan, people would know to be wary of them.

At least niggers are easy to spot.

> Free markets

It's too bad that the concept of freedom has become inalienably linked to the bullshit of liberalism. It's often missed that freedom has a corollary - responsibility. People, and kikes, want the freedom to do whatever they want; but nobody wants to bear the burden of responsibility for their actions. Liberalism, and offshoots like Libertarianism, reject this reality - such philosophies encourage people to do whatever they want, but don't allow for consequences.

"You wanna be a drug addict? Fine, but be prepared to ruin your life and your health." But instead of allowing people to fail, they get bailed-out - the junkies get free/subsidized healthcare to deal with their health problems.

"You wanna be a slutty bitch and fuck niggers? Ok, but you're going to have to raise a niglet by yourself, and people are going to look down on you." Instead, lib-tardism supports the niglet and consoles the slut.

> Central banks

Socializing the money supply was the first thing the kikes did in (((their))) attack against civilization. The establishment and control of a (((central bank))) is required for (((their))) power to manifest, as it allows (((them))) to influence and control all other forms of human interaction. Control the currency, and control of everything else will follow.

"Give me control of a nation's money and I care not who makes the laws."

- (((Mayer Amschel Rothschild)))

> Fiat currency

Yeah, that's part of the (((central bank))) implementation. (((They))) don't want people to use hard money, like precious metals doesn't have to be gold, because delivery of silver bars cannot be faked with pieces of paper. People forget that the great success of the Rentenmark was due to its limited use - only a specific amount was produced, and that was backed by tangible goods like coal and iron, and it was followed by a return to precious metal money I think that they switched over at 4.2 Marks to the dollar, which was the pre-war rate.

There is actually two sources of damage, one is from corona deaths and the other you don't hear too much about which is economic ruin of American lives. Don't take either one lightly, both can lead to misery and death. In fact, since this whole crisis more Americans than ever before are now on hard drugs and drinking alcohol as well as a spike in crime, poverty and suicide. So we have two wrecking balls here! You don't have to back currency by precious metals alone, if at all. You could have currencies backed in various other commodities (such as oil, coal, uranium, thorium, steel, lithium, etc). Perhaps you could have a super-charged valued currency backed by gold or even silver. But the idea behind 'Free Market National Socialism' was to rid of ((central banking)) kiky and endorse something much more localized and decentralized, such as multiple currencies backed by various commodities outside centralized control. We could still have options for bartering as well, if you prefer such an alternative method of trade or exchange.

> Money could be many things, not just precious metals.

Yes, but precious metals work very well. They cannot be counterfeited. They require industrial output to produce. They are divisible. They do not rot or spoil. They are compact. They are uniform and equal to one another.

> Fissile materials

It would be possible to use uranium and thorium as money, but they're a little dangerous. Yes, I know that depleted uranium, U238, doesn't really emit radiation, but the oxides are toxic. Silver doesn't have that problem, and neither does gold or platinum.

> Uses currency and money interchangeably

This is a fallacy. A piece of paper, redeemable for money, is not money. Such a piece of paper is currency, provided that it is negotiable and people will accept it.

> Multiple currencies

Yes, this. A freely competing marketplace of monies, where anybody is free to accept anything they want, and free to reject what they don't, would work. It's what we used to have, 'id est gold vs. silver, before the kikes took control.

> Argues cogently for the usage of currency supported by objects of real value

You should also take note of what happens once the issuer of a fiat currency starts losing militarily. If a superpower forces people to use paper notes, then that superpower starts to suffer military losses, people will be less likely to accept those paper notes, and the superpower will then bear an economic burden atop its military issues. A strong empire must have a strong money, or it will not remain an empire.

Here folks, have some more footage from the early threads.

People fail to understand that gold backed currency would cause deflation. A simple fool would say: "oh but muh muni wort mor tomorrow wo any effort gret" The fact is deflation is just as damaging as inflation. It disincentifizes production and it keeps capital from generating more goods. Why would you invest if your money will be worth more tomorrow than it did today. You would be a fool to take risk and invest. Markets would stagnate, since there would be no incentive to produce after a certain level, since all the units of goods produced would decrease a the value of all the units of goods in the market, since there is a limited amount of money in the market.

The only viable sustainable system would be the no inflation/deflation or few percent inflation system. In the no inf/def system, there could be no loans. Only the state would issue money and spend it on the market to increase money supply. No loans, because that would cause inflation.

Second good option is state loans. Currently banks generate money. The mire loans they make out of thin air, the more interest they generate, the more profits they have. Thats why they give out personal loans and loans for ridiculous shit. If there is an incentive to an institution to do this and they can print infinite money to loan they will obviously do it. Thats why the state should be the only one to issue loans and be consistent with the supply of goods/services produced.

Gold-backed doesn't mean the gold backing is fixed. The US, per the Constitution was supposed to set the redemption.

A fair method would be notes would hold value until a yearly adjustment. Move to notes to bet it goes up, short them for the contrary bet.

There is no gold shortage possible, because you have: silver, then copper. Thus as small or middling as necessary.

> In the no inf/def system, there could be no loans. Only the state would issue money and spend it on the market to increase money supply.
There would certainly be able to make loans, you just couldn't charge interest. Well then what would the incentive be? You are investing in the growth of the entire economic system. But in a system denominated by renewable energy as currency, if one defaults, and one is bound by a legal contract to repay the debt, one can repay in hours of work, because work and energy are interconvertible!

Trump says US military will distribute a vaccine, CVS to offer drive-thru testing

> President Donald Trump is expected Thursday to name a former pharmaceutical executive to lead "Operation Warp Speed," Trump's push to accelerate the development of a Covid-19 vaccine. Trump has said he believes a vaccine will be ready for distribution before the end of the year, a timeline that some scientists have challenged as unrealistic.

> Also on Thursday, ousted federal vaccine scientist Dr. Rick Bright is due to testify before the House health subcommittee, where he plans to warn Congress that without a more coordinated response, "2020 will be the darkest winter in modern history." Bright filed a whistleblower complaint after he was removed last month as director of the Biomedical Advanced Research and Development Authority. The agency is a key player in federal coordination of vaccine development.

A WHO driver carrying Coronavirus samples has been shot dead in Myanmar. The World Health Organization (WHO) vehicle carrying coronavirus test samples came under attack, leaving the driver dead and a government official seriously injured.

Pyae Sone Win Maung was driving a well-marked United Nations vehicle when it was hit by gunfire in Rakhine State.

According to a post on Facebook, the marked vehicle was travelling from Sittwe to Yangon bringing Covid-19 surveillance samples "in support of the Ministry of Health and Sports".

They released the virus during the Military Olympic games in Wuhan that took

The biggest (((coincidence))) here is that the Event 201 took place the same day that the Wuhan games started.

Then the CCP covered up the story because that's what they always do. There are > Because deflation makes money more valuable over time, people will be disincentivized to invest

To a degree, yes. But honest banking/lending would provide a greater return on investments than deflation would allow.

Prior to the (((Progressive Era))), the American dollar tended to increase in value by 5% per annum. But an investment in the real economy can provide a much greater return than five percent. So people who keep their money under their mattresses will see their money increase in value by 5% every year, but people who invest in productive businesses could see their investment return 30% every year.

tl;dr - The disincentive of inflation is overcome by the greater returns that are available by investment.

> A static system that doesn't change would be viable

It would also be stagnant, and ultimately destructive. And since manipulation would be required, the system would inevitably become corrupted.

Onto the DoD vaccine issue...

Why would they dare try forcing this on the American public when so many (rightfully) refuse to go along with this? It makes no sense, the blowback could be absolutely enormous. Not to mention it could cause actual conflict on American soil. Don't ever underestimate a fearful, disgruntled and distraught population that is armed to the teeth and well spread out. If they can't win a guerilla war in North Vietnam what makes them think they could actually sustain a civil war in America if SHTF? Let alone the likelihood of disgruntled military personnel defecting from efforts to subjugate Americans? I just don't see this working out well for anyone.

If the US military want to fight a war with China, it would make even less sense for the DoD to try forcing vaccines against Americans, which would likely end in total chaos and anarchy on our own soil. A smart nation would NEVER try fighting a war with a nuclear armed country when their own country is heavily polarized and divided... if this shit gets ugly, it's time to katty bar the doors and barricade indoors and start sleeping next to loaded shotguns.

Interesting you say that, because I have been pondering, on and off, a likely scenario of covert biowarfare going on between nations recently. I find it ironic how Iran and Russia, for example, has gotten hit so hard with this virus even though they took extreme measures to close their borders and expel many 'threats' from their nations. Perhaps this will be the "second wave" many have been talking about? Or the bio-terror threat Bill Gates is hooting about? Could this also be the catalyst to force their nano-chipped vaccines too, under some kind of "national emergency" or martial law? I wouldn't put it past any of them.

>anon talking common sense economics

Hopefully the (((Federal Reserve))) will become America's third central bank in US history to be declared insolvent and it's doors shut and dismantled. It has happened before with (((central banks))) here, and it could happen once again. Most of us know fiat currency, which is backed by nothing but endless debts, do not last forever. Eventually the system collapses at some point, and hopefully when it does, we can go back to sound monetary policy that is much more decentralized (there could even be potential for multiple currencies backed by various assets of value as I brought up before). I would like to see at least two new currencies in the future, one backed by silver and the other backed by oil (or some other major supply of energy). Those who accumulate more wealth would likely use the silver-backed currencies and average folks could use the energy resource-backed currency. No matter what, I think to get this started there needs to be a debt default followed by nationwide debt jubilee (debt forgiveness). This would stir the momentum for shutting down the central banking system of-course and the (((Rothschilds))) BTFO.

Yes, and thanks, fren.

> Multiple currencies

This would be ideal, allowing people to use whatever suits them best. All our NatSoc friends would be free to introduce Hitler-Marks, backed by nothing but love for der Führer. And I would be free to mint silver coins in my garage actually, I would prefer to use a germanium alloy called Argentium, as it doesn't tarnish upon exposure to Earth's atmosphere. Let the better currency win, frens.

> Energy-backed currency

This is akin to the Petrodollar that we've been using since 1972, which hasn't been very stable. Granted, there are many (((reasons))) for said instability, so it might not be the fault of the "backing". However, removing the (((regulations))) around nuclear power could allow for a Thorium-backed currency to circulate, and it would likely be mostly safe to redeem the currency and hold physical thorium. Who is kidding whom here, what I really want is a Plutonium backed currency, redeemable as a Pu-Ga alloyed coinage. FTW!

> Debt default

It's entirely possible that /ourgal/ will cause sufficient instability that the current system collapses, without allowing (((them))) to force a (((new system))) upon the world. In such an event, we would fall back to bartering for a short time, and then move onwards to a metals standard. A dual standard of gold and silver would be ideal, but even lead is better than paper.

I fear that in the world to come, we will all deal in lead.

Thorium-backed currency is a retarded idea, since that shit is incredibly abundant on the planet. Plenty of mines used to simply throw that shit away because they had no use for it. There is as much of it on the planet as there is lead, at which point you may as well make a lead-backed currency. To verify if it's lead, just lick it ten times and see if you lose a few brain cells.

My proposal to use a thorium-backed currency was made in jest, just as I was joking when I proposed using a plutonium-gallium alloy which was commonly used within the pit of nuclear weapons.
As for using lead, such a money could also be manufactured to include copper, brass, fulminates, and nitrate salts. Produced correctly, a "lead-money" could have additional uses. Still joking, but only a little.

>This is akin to the Petrodollar that we've been using since 1972, which hasn't been very stable. Granted, there are many (((reasons))) for said instability. True, although we kinda enforced the petrodollar reserve currency on the entire world since 1974 and any foreign government that wanted to dismantle it, or trade oil outside USD T-bonds, were met with military force and/or regime changes. We mostly backed it by intimidation and military force around the world. Today, as our influence has actually diminished due to Russia & China resurgence that is no longer the case. However another reason is the (((central banking system))) abused this privilege by fiat expansion of the petrodollar currency too which they continue to do today.

If we were to have a local currency backed by oil reserves, it may be more stable as long as it's being exchanged within the country, backed by actual supplies and not inflated with debts or toxic IOU junk bonds (IE cut off centralized control). But that's just one of many options available to us in the future, if it didn't pan out as intended there could be other ideas that are more solid and sustainable.

Yes, but (((they))) would inevitably gain control of the production and distribution, which is precisely why the Petrodollar is failing. Yes, obviously. But if the difficult part of Pu-239 production is already done, then a team of talented people would have a decent chance of producing a working gadget.

> Making nukes is hard

And yet, the poos managed to pull it off. I suspect that any organization with the resources of a large corporation could pull it off, once the Pu-239 was available.

> Israel has never tested (((their))) nukes

Yes they did. The US government did it for them. All the materials and designs used by the kikes were obtained from the US. Additionally, the US doesn't even bother testing modern bomb designs - it's all done via simulation these days.

interest is fine, but noone should be able to borrow out money without actually have that money, and charge a premium, interest for no reason, but the state. interest is required, because otherwise every fool would get a loan. whole idea of interest rests on that 1$ today will be worth more tomorrow, since it will be invested, but private banking and loans for non productive enterprises have risen way too far and they abuse that power.

regulation would help, but there would be still a relatively useless middleman. state bank should be the only bank that can lend. the rest can make their living off of managing accounts, or whatever else they want, or find a new profession.

I too am baffled by Trump, and can't really make up my mind about him. At times, he is correct about certain issues and seems to dismantle some really kiked agendas (like the global carbon tax). At other times he's bashing Assad and shilling for Israel, and war hawking against Iran. I think the (((media))) finds him such a threat because he is unpredictable and at times, does inhibit their carefully crafted operations and long-term goals, and that's why they prefer someone who is more ZOG-solid, kosher-approved. We may have reasons to bash him, but every once in a while he has been known to do the right thing... maybe controlled opposition? If so, it would explain why the (((media))) would bash him so much, as to create the psyop that he's on our side when he's really one of them. And if that is the case, and it could be, Trump is allowing certain agendas to slide by, knowing the rest of the garbage will be implemented in the future after he leaves office.

The vaccine ID 2020 agenda will be very interesting as to see what Trump does about it when a lot of Americans start pushing back.

> Plutonium is plentiful

What planet are you on? Sure, there are trace amounts in concentrated ores of uranium, but it's somewhere between 2.4×10^{-12} to 44×10^{-12} - no more than a few parts per trillion. Good luck processing billions of tons of uranium ore to get the Pu-239 you'd need for a 2.2kg core. No, only nucleosynthesis provides a viable means to obtain Pu-239 in any meaningful sense. I'm going to go-ahead and assume that you meant to say U-235 is plentiful, which it is, and simply requires processing and enrichment to ~90% to make a decent warhead. But that is still expensive, technically challenging, and difficult to conceal.

I suspect that much of the inconsistency is a result of shilling - he's in a position of power, and simply must act in a certain way. But then I remember that he's a Jew-York billionaire, and is therefore unworthy of my respect.

> Controlled opposition

Yeah, that's the most likely situation. What we are witnessing is not the extirpation or evil, but is instead a replacement of the inner-party by the outer-party. The (((system))) will remain intact, but the appearance of change will subdue and ameliorate people's concern.

The metal isn't what makes the money worth something. It's the king's stamp. It's really amazing that people still argue nonsense like this with the examples of NS Germany, postwar Japan, present day China. It's right in your face that gold isn't actually money. If one was going to use it at all, you could use it as a gold trading standard where it [or silver or a BANCOR per Keynes] is used to make up the difference in trade between nations [where law begins and ends], that's a different thing entirely and I imagine this is what China and Russia are angling for in their acquisition of gold. The US would immediately collapse because nothing it creates can match the value of what it takes and it isn't in a position to replace them domestically.

Because the man has sucked jewish cock his entire life and has NEVER gone against their narrative at any point. In before MUH SEEREEIA! because he increased US troop numbers in Syria and refuses to pull them out. In before MUH DEPORTAYSHUNS because King Nigger deported more than Trump, who has imported over two million net nonwhites in just three years. In before MUH LIBRUL FEE FEES TRUMP MAKE MAD! because that's literally how controlled opposition works, you fucking dumbass.

The human micro-chipping is a kike and (((NWO))) wet dream. A handful of shills might voluntarily implant, but actually trying to force mandatory chipping would be the biggest backfirs in history. Literally everyone is against it. 2A gun nuts, libertarians, hippies, jesus people, /ourguys/, etc. It would blow up catastrophically in their face if they really tried it, especially at a time when trust in the establishment is hitting an all time low as it becomes obvious the people in charge have no idea WTF to do. The world we are heading into is going to make 1984 look good in comparison, but I highly doubt mandatory chips are coming because that's probably the one thing everyone would unite against.

> The king's stamp is what gives money its value

Foolishness. Real money, and not that fiat crap, doesn't require a "king" to give it value. If people only accept something because some regent is coercing them into it, then that thing doesn't really have value, does it?

> Gold isn't really money, but paper is Paper can never be money, only currency. Get it straight - money and currency are different things.

> The US would immediately collapse if it didn't have the use of fiat currency. That's only because the US presently has an (((economy))), and not an "economy". We did just fine before the kikes fucked things up, and we can do it again.

> Suspicious as fuck that Chink, Iran and Russia are getting hit hardest.

But is that true? According to the (((official data))) the US has more than five-times the cases of Russia. Granted, that data is shilled and kiked, so we don't really know the truth. At this point, all we know is that every authority on the planet has an incentive to fuck with our perceptions, and it's entirely possible that the US is getting hit just as bad as other nations (after adjusting for population, living conditions, wealth, medical care, and population densities).

At this point, who-the-fuck really knows the truth?

> Micro-chipping is a kike wet-dream

Yes, and everyone is aware of that fact. The reality of what the kikes are doing is going to redpill everyone, and the kikes are going to get it up the ass. I can't wait.

The Masque of the Red Death

THE "RED DEATH" had long devastated the country. No pestilence had ever been so fatal, or so hideous. Blood was its Avatar and its seal—the redness and the horror of blood. There were sharp pains, and sudden dizziness, and then profuse bleeding at the pores, with dissolution. The scarlet stains upon the body and especially upon the face of the victim, were the pest ban which shut him out from the aid and from the sympathy of his fellow-men. And the whole seizure, progress and termination of the disease, were the incidents of half an hour. But the Prince Prospero was happy and dauntless and sagacious. When his dominions were half depopulated, he summoned to his presence a thousand hale and light-hearted friends from among the knights and dames of his court, and with these retired to the deep seclusion of one of his castellated abbeys. This was an extensive and magnificent structure, the creation of the prince's own eccentric yet august taste. A strong and lofty wall girdled it in. This wall had gates of iron. The courtiers, having entered, brought furnaces and massy hammers and welded the bolts. They resolved to leave means neither of ingress or egress to the sudden impulses of despair or of frenzy from within. The abbey was amply provisioned. With such precautions the courtiers might bid defiance to contagion. The external world could take care of itself. In the meantime it was folly to grieve, or to think. The prince had provided all the appliances of pleasure. There were buffoons, there were improvisatori, there were ballet-dancers, there were musicians, there was Beauty, there was wine. All these and security were within. Without was the "Red Death."

It was toward the close of the fifth or sixth month of his seclusion, and while the pestilence raged most furiously abroad, that the Prince Prospero entertained his thousand friends at a masked ball of the most unusual magnificence.

It was a voluptuous scene, that masquerade. But first let me tell of the rooms in which it was held. There were seven—an imperial suite. In many palaces, however, such suites form a long and straight vista, while the folding doors slide back nearly to the walls on either hand, so that the view of the whole extent is scarcely impeded. Here the case was very different; as might have been expected from the duke's love of the bizarre. The apartments were so irregularly disposed that the vision embraced but little more than one at a time. There was a sharp turn at every twenty or thirty yards, and at each turn a novel effect. To the right and left, in the middle of each wall, a tall and narrow Gothic window looked out upon a closed corridor which pursued the windings of the suite. These windows were of stained glass whose color varied in accordance with the prevailing hue of the decorations of the chamber into which it opened. That at the eastern extremity was hung, for example, in blue—and vividly blue were its windows. The second chamber was purple in its ornaments and tapestries, and here the panes were purple. The third was green throughout, and so were the casements. The fourth was furnished and lighted with orange—the fifth with white—the sixth with violet. The seventh apartment was closely shrouded in black velvet tapestries that hung all over the ceiling and down the walls, falling in heavy folds upon a carpet of the same material and hue. But in this chamber only, the color of the windows failed to correspond with the decorations. The panes here were scarlet—a deep blood color. Now in no one of the seven apartments was there any lamp or candelabrum, amid the profusion of golden ornaments that lay scattered to and fro or depended from the roof. There was no light of any kind emanating from lamp or candle within the suite of chambers. But in the corridors that followed the suite, there stood, opposite to each window, a heavy tripod, bearing a brazier of fire that protected its rays through the tinted glass and so glaringly illumined the room. And thus were produced a multitude of gaudy and fantastic appearances. But in the western or black chamber the effect of the fire-light that streamed upon the dark hangings through the blood-tinted panes, was ghastly in the extreme, and produced so wild a look upon the countenances of those who entered, that there were few of the company bold enough to set foot within its precincts at all.

It was in this apartment, also, that there stood against the western wall, a gigantic clock of ebony. Its pendulum swung to and fro with a dull, heavy, monotonous clang; and when the minute-hand made the circuit of the face, and the hour was to be stricken, there came from the brazen lungs of the clock a sound which was clear and loud and deep and exceedingly musical, but of so peculiar a note and emphasis that, at each lapse of an hour, the musicians of the orchestra were constrained to pause, momentarily, in their performance, to hearken to the sound; and thus the waltzers perforce ceased their evolutions; and there was a brief disconcert of the whole gay company; and, while the chimes of the clock yet rang, it was observed that the giddiest grew pale, and the more aged and sedate passed their hands over their brows as if in confused reverie or meditation. But when the echoes had fully ceased, a light laughter at once pervaded the assembly; the musicians looked at each other and smiled as if at their own nervousness and folly, and made whispering vows, each to the other, that the next chiming of the clock should produce in them no similar emotion; and then, after the lapse of sixty minutes, (which embrace three thousand and six hundred seconds of the Time that flies,) there came yet another chiming of the clock, and then were the same disconcert and tremulousness and meditation as before.

But, in spite of these things, it was a gay and magnificent revel. The tastes of the duke were peculiar. He had a fine eye for colors and effects. He disregarded the decora of mere fashion. His plans were bold and fiery, and his conceptions glowed with barbaric lustre. There are some who would have thought him mad. His followers felt that he was not. It was necessary to hear and see and touch him to be sure that he was not.

He had directed, in great part, the moveable embellishments of the seven chambers, upon occasion of this great fete; and it was his own guiding taste which had given character to the masqueraders. Be sure they were grotesque. There were much glare and glitter and piquancy and phantasm—much of what has been since seen in "Hernani." There were arabesque figures with unsuited limbs and appointments. There were delirious fancies such as the madman fashions. There was much of the beautiful, much of the wanton, much of the bizarre, something of the terrible, and not a little of that which might have excited disgust. To and fro in the seven chambers there stalked, in fact, a multitude of dreams. And these—the dreams—writhed in and about, taking hue from the rooms, and causing the wild music of the orchestra to seem as the echo of their steps. And, anon, there strikes the ebony clock which stands in the hall of the velvet. And then, for a moment, all is still, and all is silent save the voice of the clock. The dreams are stiff-frozen as they stand. But the echoes of the chime die away—they have endured but an instant—and a light, half-subdued laughter floats after them as they depart. And now again the music swells, and the dreams live, and writhe to and fro more merrily than ever, taking hue from the many-tinted windows through which stream the rays from the tripods. But to the chamber which lies most westwardly of the seven, there are now none of the maskers who venture; for the night is waning away; and there flows a ruddier light through the blood-colored panes; and the blackness of the sable drapery appals; and to him whose foot falls upon the sable carpet, there comes from the near clock of ebony a muffled peal more solemnly emphatic than any which reaches their ears who indulge in the more remote gaieties of the other apartments. But these other apartments were densely crowded, and in them beat feverishly the heart of life. And the revel went whirlingly on, until at length there commenced the sounding of midnight upon the clock. And then the music ceased, as I have told; and the evolutions of the waltzers were quieted; and there was an uneasy cessation of all things as before. But now there were twelve strokes to be sounded by the bell of the clock; and thus it happened, perhaps, that more of thought crept, with more of time, into the meditations of the thoughtful among those who revelled. And thus, too, it happened, perhaps, that before the last echoes of the last chime had utterly sunk into silence, there were many individuals in the crowd who had found leisure to become aware of the presence of a masked figure which had arrested the attention of no single individual before. And the rumor of this new presence having spread itself whisperingly around, there arose at length from the whole company a buzz, or murmur, expressive of disapprobation and surprise—then, finally, of terror, of horror, and of disgust.

In an assembly of phantasms such as I have painted, it may well be supposed that no ordinary appearance could have excited such sensation. In truth the masquerade license of the night was nearly unlimited; but the figure in question had out-Heroded Herod, and gone beyond the bounds of even the prince's indefinite decorum. There are chords in the hearts of the most reckless which cannot be touched without emotion. Even with the utterly lost, to whom life and death are equally jests, there are matters of which no jest can be made. The whole company, indeed, seemed now deeply to feel that in the costume and bearing of the stranger neither wit nor propriety existed. The figure was tall and gaunt, and shrouded from head to foot in the habiliments of the grave. The mask which concealed the visage was made so nearly to resemble the countenance of a stiffened corpse that the closest scrutiny must have had difficulty in detecting the cheat. And yet all this might have been endured, if not approved, by the mad revellers around. But the mummer had gone so far as to assume the type of the Red Death. His vesture was dabbled in blood—and his broad brow, with all the features of the face, was besprinkled with the scarlet horror.

When the eyes of Prince Prospero fell upon this spectral image (which with a slow and solemn movement, as if more fully to sustain its role, stalked to and fro among the waltzers) he was seen to be convulsed, in the first moment with a strong shudder either of terror or distaste; but, in the next, his brow reddened with rage.

"Who dares?" he demanded hoarsely of the courtiers who stood near him—"who dares insult us with this blasphemous mockery? Seize him and unmask him—that we may know whom we have to hang at sunrise, from the battlements!"

It was in the eastern or blue chamber in which stood the Prince Prospero as he uttered these words. They rang throughout the seven rooms loudly and clearly—for the prince was a bold and robust man, and the music had become hushed at the waving of his hand.

It was in the blue room where stood the prince, with a group of pale courtiers by his side. At first, as he spoke, there was a slight rushing movement of this group in the direction of the intruder, who at the moment was also near at hand, and now, with deliberate and stately step, made closer approach to the speaker. But from a certain nameless awe with which the mad assumptions of the mummer had inspired the whole party, there were found none who put forth hand to seize him; so that, unimpeded, he passed within a yard of the prince's person; and, while the vast assembly, as if with one impulse, shrank from the centres of the rooms to the walls, he made his way uninterruptedly, but with the same solemn and measured step which had distinguished him from the first, through the blue chamber to the purple—through the purple to the green—through the green to the orange—through this again to the white—and even thence to the violet, ere a decided movement had been made to arrest him. It was then, however, that the Prince Prospero, maddening with rage and the shame of his own momentary cowardice, rushed hurriedly through the six chambers, while none followed him on account of a deadly terror that had seized upon all. He bore aloft a drawn dagger, and had approached, in rapid impetuosity, to within three or four feet of the retreating figure, when the latter, having attained the extremity of the velvet apartment, turned suddenly and confronted his pursuer. There was a sharp cry—and the dagger dropped gleaming upon the sable carpet, upon which, instantly afterwards, fell prostrate in death the Prince Prospero. Then, summoning the wild courage of despair, a throng of the revellers at once threw themselves into the black apartment, and, seizing the mummer, whose tall figure stood erect and motionless within the shadow of the ebony clock, gasped in unutterable horror at finding the grave-cerements and corpse-like mask which they handled with so violent a rudeness, untenanted by any tangible form. And now was acknowledged the presence of the Red Death. He had come like a thief in the night. And one by one dropped the revellers in the blood-bedewed halls of their revel, and died each in the despairing posture of his fall. And the life of the ebony clock went out with that of the last of the gay. And the flames of the tripods expired. And Darkness and Decay and the Red Death held illimitable dominion over all.

Then call it a dividend given to the government. But a dividend is more than just a loan contract, it means there is an underlying ownership.

If there would be effort to eradicate the current banking system and create a new one with state monopoly would mean the end of the zog system, since the two is too intertwined to change without deposing (((them))). Therefore it would renew my confidence in the state. It would make it extremely difficult for private individuals to profit directly from this new system also.

Bottom line is, there has to be a cost of taking out unearned money, or have heavy regulations who gets access to it. Either way the state should profit in more ways than just potentially increased taxes. If that business fails wo. producing or paying any taxes its basically a consumer loan which, yes, causes inflation.

Maybe there could be money issued on gov.-t contracts, labor based, not sure how that would work tho.

I can. So can anybody with half a brain.

And so could you, if you weren't the evolution of the hoaxnigger.

It was the chinks who allowed /ourgirl/ to spread by denying it for three months.

The French have found strains from November in their country.

Any notion that the "deep state" is behind it all is qtard-tier retarded.

It's actually a pretty clever way of muddying the waters, your unceasing clamoring.

Sounds a lot like >it's not the jews to me.

All of these agencies follow their own agendas; the WHO wants to suck chinese cock 24/7, the glowniggers want to serve pissrael as well as they can.

But nothing about the Wu Flu seems beneficial to any of (((their))) plans.

Crashing the entire global economy with no survivors, thereby destabilizing the world economically as well as politically just introduces so many unpredictable factors into a game the yids had been winning up to this point, it makes absolutely no sense whatsoever.

Same with the COINTELPRO "depopulation agenda". More people are easier to control than fewer people, not the other way around.

You can even see it when you compare city-dwellers to rural folk. It's the urbanites taking every kick and beating they get while the rural people kick and buck.

No, a lower global population would acutally serve our goals much more than theirs.

Wiping Apefrica and Asia clean would not be objectionable for any civilized person. It's the jews who would lose their armies of slaves. And with globohomo dying due to /ourgirl/ showing people that maybe outsourcing the entire industry to a shithole isn't such a good idea after all, tell me how this benefits the kikes' goals?

> Dividend given to the government

You mean "stolen by" the government. Also, relabeling things do not change their nature. If the functions of a central bank are being performed by the government, then it's still a central bank and is still accumulating interest. Call it what you want, it's still the same as what we ((already have))).

> We should disassemble the current ((state system)) so that we can build another ((state system)).

Again, starting over with the same thing is not going to work. And don't try to convince anyone that the ((new system)) won't become just as kiked as the ((present system)). Wherever parasitism is permitted to exist, the kikes will rule.

> But we can ((regulate)) access to the money!

So, just like now?

Fren, you're just re-arranging components of the ((current system)) in the hopes that it will somehow be different. That won't work - ((it)) must be discarded and replaced with an honest economy.

The deep state is a manifestation of kike power. Most people are not yet able to understand this, and they believe that the ((deep state)) is an independent entity. But ((it)) is controlled and operated by kikes, for kikes. Over time, more-and-more people will come to understand this.

Get Ready For Infinite Bailouts, Infinite Debts, Infinite Spending As US Govt Takes Over Central Bank

MY COMMENT: They can only do this for so long, until other countries decide to dump the USD due over issues like hyperinflation and insolvency. What should be done: abolish the central bank and declare nationwide debt jubilee and let the fraudulent Rothschild central banking empire collapse as it should. Citizens would no longer be liable for debts because their creditors were also insolvent. Win-Win. IF this fails to happen... the US will collapse eventually, likely with civil war, mass unrest and lots more death. And if you think the Chinese and Russians are not waiting patiently for the perfect opportunity... so why let that happen?

No, actually, he has some legit points unfortunately. China may have something to do with this bioweapons attack, but there are MANY other players involved, and I'm not buying the US vs China kikery because we all know where that really leads in dire, dangerous and very divisive times like these... there are such actors known as traitors: Bill & Malinda Gates among them Birx, Fauci, Baker, Dzau, Elias, Slaoui, Rockefellers being just some of many others involved in funding and planning this bioweapons release! Is Trump a traitor too? We'll see about that, very soon....

Yes very shady, and the fact he is mobilizing the military (DoD) to rollout the vaccines. That is going to be a very sticky situation, I can't wait for the backlash honestly, and well soon find out what Trump does about that too. At that point, it should be crystal clear for everyone to see (even his most loyal fans will know by then).

> The "US vs. China" narrative is bullshit, because kikes
Yes, but it's more than that. Since the advent of globalism, circa 1909, the entire concept "nation vs. nation" has been a misnomer. The decisions made "by nations" are not really made by the people within national borders, but are instead made by (((others))), and not necessarily from within those border. Likewise, the movement of goods, services, and capital is not limited by borders or controlled through the political process. Borders and political hierarchies are no longer meaningful, but instead serve as an illusion to fool the masses. Everyone who thinks that "America" is an independent polity is deluded, just as anybody believes in "China" as a polity is also deluded. Control, the (((real control))), is not exercised in the manner we are told. Likewise, the interactions "between nations" are simply theater, existing to conceal the reality of what is really changing. The real (((decision makers))) do not advertise (((their))) identities, and do not allow (((their motives))) to be scrutinized.

tl;dr - There is no such thing as "China vs. America". It's really just kikes vs. everyone else.

> Trump is a treasonous faggot

Yes, of course. But being a treasonous faggot is a prerequisite for any political office. Anybody working within (((the system))) is a traitor to their audience.

>>107679

Whether or not it is intended, the RED DEATH will serve as a denouement to the (((Progressive Era))).

If it comes to that, it's likely the end to any civilized society for a long time for the USSA, but I agree 100% we cannot allow this to happen to us, and must stand our ground. What kind of tactics they are planning to deploy is not yet known, but I would make sure you have time to respond to such unexpected, incoming threats. Response time is crucial during war. That means you better have trip wire, wired surveillance set up from the outside to keep track of any activities on the property, heavy duty DIY entry point fortification and guns in every room available, able to respond within a moments notice! I am hoping it won't get this bad, but it could, and if they try enforcing this state by state (which it looks like they plan to do) they'll come unexpected. Pack heat when you go out, seriously, because if you are red flagged they'll try catching you off-guard. I would hope they come to their senses before those first shots are ever fired, because it will cause waves of armed resistance movements, lock n load baby.

Another thing I left out: if internet connections go down, and the lights go out, you best get into combat mode. Night vision helps, but also having some extra 12Vs hooked up to power inverters to power up some LED lights do the trick for a while too.

I think the most likely scenario will be legal court battles and class-action suits, and public outrage. Maybe enough bad PR to stall this roll out.... but we don't know how desperate they are either, so we need to be ready for worst case scenarios. Might as well arm the wife, maybe even the kids depending their age. > Combat mode

> Night vision

> Power inverters to run lighting

> Arm the wife

Yeah, I've got that covered. I've been prepping for years, and live in a pretty remote area of flyover country. I think things will go to hell on the other side of the mountains before it comes here. I hope.

Rifles are zeroes. Magazines are loaded. Shotguns are loaded. I already home-carry. Chest rig is ready. Radios are ready. Gate is locked. Motion lights are on. Battery-backups are set to alarm on power outages. Dogs are large. Wife is trained. Night vision is only Gen1. Neighbor has the thermal scope. Field of fire is clear. I have the high ground. Neighbors are already on the team. Power inverters are standing-by. Water supply is standing-by. Extra water supply is standing-by. Meat is cured. Vegetables are dehydrated. Medical supplies are on-hand. Local LE knows us and likes us.

If they choose to cross the line, and move against anybody's children, I'll consider going active and preempting their plans for my kids. And I'll have lots of help. It won't happen. It had better not happen.

> Permits

Yeah, they have me in their records too. But there is no record of the AR-15s that I milled-out of paperweights, and only I know where they are buried. My neighbors have made similar arrangements.

> a 16-gauge or 12-gauge

Yeah, I have a Mossberg M590A1 for myself, and a Mossberg 500 in 16-gauge for the wife. Multiple AR-15s are standing by; I keep an AK too, with a drum magazine, and a scoped M1A loaded with 147gr match. In times past, I've carried a little pocket pistol 24/7, but these days I walk around the house with a Beretta 92FS. I look pretty funny mowing the front acre, but the neighbors don't seem to mind. I just wish the rear sights weren't consistently digging into my forearms as I move around.

> Buckshot

I alternate my loads between 000-buckshot, BB-loads, and flechettes. I also keep some slugs on the bandoleer, just in case I need to over-penetrate. All my rifles are dialed-in at 200yds (except the AK, which cannot be dialed), and they hit about 1" above zero at 100yds. Both my parents are former Army Special Forces instructors, and they started my training when I was nine not a fucking LARP, frens.

Center-mass is fine for most applications, but I've been training to hit heads-and-hips for decades. And I don't know how much of an issue it will be, but I can't get a cheek-weld when wearing my respirator. Let's hope ZOG decides to remain more than 25-ft away from me.

I don't want to fight, and I don't plan to fight. But if I am coerced into one, I am prepared to win. Zum die dicke ende.
It won't happen. After all, this is America, yes? We have "Muh Constitution", and there is no way that LE would violate our civil rights. It's not like they've ever done it before, right?

>Local LE knows us and likes us.

That's a good sign, I sometimes wonder how LE would act where I live, they seem nice anyway, the few times I bumped into some and had quick chats. Only record I had was way in the past, was drunk and got thrown into the drunk tank over disorderly conduct and public intoxication lol, but I was younger then so I doubt many newer LE even know about that. Considering I live in a conservative state I would hope most LE or the local Sheriff would refuse to enforce some kind of vaccine order, or allow military to go door-to-door (as if that's not a logistical nightmare?) I think the most vulnerable places for forced vaccines would likely be liberal cities and maybe nearby suburbs where they would have the least resistance. Messing with rural folks would be awfully dangerous depending which state it is they're messing with.

The whole "deep state" they go on about is actually a bunch of Jews lol, and yah I do believe they also played a part in this bioweapons release. One can debate whether the Chinese government knew about it, or whether it was some lower level commie connections they had in Wuhan to obtain and release the bioweapon.

Something tells me it might be the latter, but who knows? Hard to trust bugs.

> Wonders how LE will act.

They will continue to do what they have already done. Id est, they'll follow illegal orders while working as accessories and accomplices to ongoing felony activity. Most members of LE are already guilty of multiple capital crimes, but will never face justice. I know one local cop who joined the force out of a sense of duty to help the community, but was unable to tolerate all the corruption and incompetence. He called in some favors, and now works a desk job for the department, catching pedophiles. Men like him are the reason that I hold on to hope for uniformed personnel. He and I are co-niggers, and our wives are also good friends.

> Logistical nightmare of going door-to-door, and messing with rural folks will be dangerous.

Yes, this. My hope is that the crackdowns get bogged-down in the urban areas, giving us time and space to organize and resist. Most people in my AO are pretty open about their disdain for ZOG, even if they don't outright name ((the problem))). Fear of being noticed/reported is a big reason, perhaps the only reason, that people don't openly call for rebellion. Discontent has been brewing for decades, and red-state flyover country is packed-full of people who fled the blue-voting hellholes of urban diversity. People are already fed-up, and it won't take much to push them over the line. And once they cross that line, there is no going back, and nothing else to lose.

> Dubs of truth

> The "deep state" is really just kikes.

Yes, this. The concept of a "deep state" is a useful one, as it allows people to recognize ((the threat))) and discuss it, without triggering the "muh racism" part of their brainwashing. Many people are still worried about appearing "racist", and are wont to discuss such things. But the concept of a "deep state" is a useful stalking horse to segue into the reality of ((who))) is really at fault.

I don't know if it's really that bad of a bioweapon, seems to be lower grade as the death toll isn't anything too staggering yet. The mortality rate seems to be anywhere between 15% to 18% so far, in some cases. And let's say it does will kill all infected, how long does this really take to kill the hosts, is it a slow kill? If so, it could take decades before the world reaches anything near a depopulation event. Those that are taking Vitamin C intravenously are seeing very good recovery results too, suggesting the immune system can fight this off in the long run. I too thought this would end in mass death and depopulation, but the longer this goes on, and the more info coming out, it doesn't look like this one is the real deal. Although, if (((they))) don't get their way, maybe the next release could be?

>Neighbors are already on the team.

> Local LE knows us and likes us.

These are the two most important things you are doing correctly that a lot of anons and preppers under value. Just having neighbors on board with you and of like mind is a huge win, even if they aren't 1488, just having like-minded allies holding your borders is a must. Likewise I know a lot of anons hate "zobots," and it's true there are a lot of shitskin cops out there these days, but a lot of white cops are at least red pilld about black and brown people, and many of them would agree with the majority of the political sentiment expressed here. I know getting buddy-buddy with the cops isn't really possible in major metros, but in rural areas and smaller suburbs it's quite possible. Consider joining your local search and rescue volunteers and you will get a chance to meet a lot of LEO's in a non-political fashion and enable you to befriend them. Having a few cops for beer buddies is a great way to get a little insider info and help when shit gets weird, it really is good to have to police friends or relatives.

> Both my parents are former Army Special Forces instructors

Did your dads meet in the service? Because women can't be in special forces or combat arms. Do you mean your parents/mother was some kind of instructor at a training school? Just curious because that sounds highly LARPy anon.

> I would hope most LE or the local Sheriff would refuse to enforce some kind of vaccine order

If such a thing does get implemented I don't think it will be physically forced, that is to say, we won't see ZOG storm troopers dragging little old ladies out of their homes to be forcibly injected. It will likely be much more "sign of the beast" style, in which your vaccine status will be linked to your financials, and if the system shows you are not vaccinated you will be locked out of your bank accounts, your credit and debit cards cancelled, etc. in such a way that they will just strangle you until you submit, but avoid direct confrontation.

15 to 18% - now extrapolate this to every consecutive significant mutation. The only thing that is going to slow this down is when there are too few people on the planet to spread it. This means that each round of mutations it may cull up to 18% of the population. It is exactly as I said back in thread 18, there will not be any government, military or corporations left when it is all over. About the only good thing about it is that it seems to really target BAME (black, asian and middle easterners) disproportionally with death. I know everyone here knows it already but it isn't like we have a shortage of semites, bugs and niggers on the planet.

The Spartans used hardened iron (they produced the coins and then gave them a hot vinegar bath). It was extremely plentiful in Sparta and that is why they used it. No one had any worries about forgery because nothing they purchased would have made forging worthwhile and since no one controlled iron, if someone wanted to mine it and use their own iron as currency it would have the same value as state coins and was not illegal to produce your own money (it was time consuming and tedious so it did not appeal to most people who would rather do other things). Using harden iron worked so well that they experienced a huge boom in their economy and massive prosperity. That is when the central bankers (AND YES THEY WERE AROUND FUCKING EVERYTHING UP BACK THEN) hired the Persians with tons of gold that they kept in reserve to decimate all of Greece because they wanted everyone on the gold standard (which they controlled). The Persians rolled in and totally decimated all of Sparta, put the entire populace to the sword. They will do the same exact thing to you if you try to have your own currency. NOT ONE FUCKING THING HAS CHANGED IN 4,000 years. The only real solution to these problems is a race specific bioweapon that exterminates our 'central banking frens' completely. I believe this is what they hoped that COVID would do to us (and it still might, given time) but I, personally, think it is funny that it appears to be hitting certain ethnic groups harder than others since I think they deserve what is going to happen to them.

Dugan has been talking about them, and they seem VERY feasible. Many MIL/LE-restricted laser designators/illuminators are already capable of causing irreparable eye damage in milliseconds, so it's not hard to weaponize that same technology. I am scared shitless of it to be frank.

> Mother was an SF instructor

She went to DLI, speaker's course, and subsequently taught interrogation and prisoner handling. This was pre-diversity, but post WAC, meaning that she had to meet all the physical requirements of the men - running, pullups, pushups, etc. Her shadow box doesn't have jump wings, but she could have kicked your ass, I promise. These days, she's the head of her HOA.

But my father does have jump wings in his shadow box, and was recruited for Blue Light. He did some shit that he still won't talk about, and has "insurance" photos to prove it. I've seen them, while rooting through the garage as a kid. These days, he's winning a fight against cancer, and teaches firearms safety to newbs.

My parents met in the laundry room at the DLI Foreign Language Center, at the Presidio in Monterrey, CA. Both of them were E5s, but my mother had more time in service than my father, and was giving him shit, so he had to prove what a badass he was. They got married a year later, and I was born two years after that.

> Deep State and kikes

Around Christians, I refer to kikes as "circle people". They get a curious look on their faces, and I explain that there is a (((group of people))) who hate Jesus so much, that they refuse to draw any sort of "X" or cross symbol. When (((their))) ancestors came here via Ellis Island, the illiterate ones most of them signed (((their))) names with a circle instead of an "X". Hence, (((they))) chose to be the circle people; which, in (((their))) native language, is "kike". Two glasses of wine later, and the church choir is debating a solution to (((the question))).

Before Lycurgus, The Lawgiver, the Spartans were much like any other group of Greeks. But once they adopted his laws, they saw a huge boost in military capacity, but a steady decline in economic productivity and population growth. Eventually, there were too few Spartiates to fight off the Roman legions, and they were incorporated into the Empire with little effort. Not everything about the Spartans is worthy of emulation.

> A weapon that selectively targets the (((Central Banking Clan)))

If only. I don't think it would work though, without lots of collateral damage. I know good Christians who had kike ancestors, centuries ago, and they don't deserve to die. I've also met kikes who don't have a drop of jewish blood in them, but are instead 100% Khazar. Remember that (((Soros))) is not a jew, but is instead a Khazar.

That too would be taken to the courts, and I could definitely see many people just leaving the leftist populated areas enforcing such rules and moving more rural to homestead and live their own lives. Can they really enforce this if you have direct contacts with farmers and ranchers to buy food btw? I don't know if you all heard, Trump's twitter page recently was flooded with anger (many from his own supporters lol) over the vaccine agenda. People are all over saying they won't take the vaccine, "over there dead bodies" etc. People are already angry. If they try to force this, or even inconvenience Americans over this, not only will there be mass disobedience but a break apart movement which will lead to local organized communities going their own separate ways. It may end up backfiring against the kikes in a major way. Then the next question: more Waco's and Bundy Ranch stand-offs coming? Maybe even civil war? Who knows, but it seems to me both sides are not backing down.

Corona Panic Police State: Senate Passes Bill Allowing FBI To Spy On Browser

History WITHOUT Warrant

MY COMMENT: Get a private VPN and use Tor. Wipe out the sqlite caches from browser directories routinely (before and after use), and use multiple browsers designated for various activities. Best to have two isolated computers, each having separate online connections (key: isolated networks), one for legit personal use and the other for private file sharing, 'shit posting' and news. Never put personal info into any computer used for private activity. This will help to de-compartmentalize your activities. And of-course, never trust any Big Tech social media network with your data. Use script blockers, metadata spoofers, VPN and Tor. Physically remove any webcams & mics if you are using standard laptops. Encrypt your harddrives too. And always remember: smartphones (govt bugs!) ruined the internet and telecommunication, so don't use them!

>If I could get one, I would mount it on my rifle. I have a strobing flashlight that I've duct-taped to one of my ARs, which is dazzling if not blinding.

About these blinding 'laser lights' anons keep referring to, do you know if UV-protective glasses can mitigate that threat? I do have some and was wondering if SHTF, maybe those would come to use...

Maybe even dark sunglasses or better yet, an older welder's mask? I would think there is something available that could mitigate damage to the eyes from blinding light weaponry.

I still can't get over how (((Academics))) can blatantly showcase bias. This just goes to show how fucked the universities are globally. She basically paints all Whites as anti-vaxers and all non-whites as vaxers. If that's not a total generalisation and a blatant fallacy I don't know what is. What is alarming is that this hack is paid to do this and allowed to do so without criticism by peers. Its scary because its blatantly in front of us for all to see. They've stopped hiding it.

The best possible treatment for it would be a protein (antibody) that attaches the viral attachment protein (antigen) in order to prevent the virus from replicating. Antibodies do that, The plasma treatment is the best approach for now. A good way to approach would be synthesizing antibodies. I am not sure why it is taking so long.

There won't be a vaccine, it's a virus.

We can't provide a reliable vaccine for the flu virus, same for rhinovirus

And furthermore CV mutates a lot, has many versions already

How we kill viruses is cure the symptoms and wait for your antibodies to catch all the virus cells and eat them

But there is no prevention methods beside masks and avoiding crowded places

The best method in this case would be stop travels from China or force tests for anyone who's been there and lands in the country

At the very least a tampon should be a requirement for anyone coming from China

You are stopped at the airport, tested, if positive you are sent back

That or nuke China, there aren't really any other options to "prevent" the infection in any reliable way

The detonation/explosion/fire at the biolab in Siberia seems to me to be the most serious breach of biosecurity among the above links that made the rounds. It begs the question if intentional coronavirus release in China was an internationally coordinated act to precipitate worldwide lockdown, in the wake of the biolab fire that, let's face it, released far more lethal bugs. How can we believe RT that nothing leaked from their lab incident?

The ones I have seen, no. I was going to use them against a nigger/subhuman mob coming against my family/house (or really anyone else who was thinking about trying to subdue us). I am having trouble finding the ones I saw about 1 year ago. They were made for mob attacks and the blindness was permanent. Someone who KNEW that you had a laser weapon might be able to rig up a solution but most of the time the mob would be totally blinded before they knew what was happening. Which is the appropriate penalty for mob violence (state or otherwise). You could then pick them off with a long range rifle while they are staggering around blind.

There used to be some extremely powerful one for sale online (relatively affordable) but my last cursory search returned nothing.

I just made the decision to purchase one since I was out working on my battery today (lost of guns are back ordered now)...but with the threat of forced vaccinations and the government saying that they might need to 'forcibly separate children from their parents' it is time to step up and make those last minute purchases so that we can defend our neighbors and those who call on us for assistance to help save their children from the (((government))).

>Their next option will be an even harsher bio weapon.

I still believe, due to this ones nature, that it is an ELE. I think we are witnessing the largest mind control psyop I have ever seen in my lifetime to make the public believe that it is a nothing burger because not enough people caught it and they are pissed that too few people died from the first round. That is the interesting thing about talking about it and preparing for it while your mind relentlessly believes that it is a threat.

These beliefs spur the immune system into action through the mind body connection.

People who take the pathogen seriously, their immune systems are in overdrive preparing their body for a response to the pathogen. The more you believe it is true and a danger, the more appropriately your body prepares and immune response. Does this mean you will live? No of course not. But having a holistic approach and mental fortitude when considering the pathogen will ramp your bodies defense mechanisms up to a place where they could be effective in producing a response.

Bc the russians have the sense to build their bioweapon research centers in the middle of nowhere, siberia, instead of being retarded and putting it into an urban transportation hub, with a population of a small country and tens of thousands/km population density. Thats how i know that even if the most deadly virus got out in the middle of buttfuck chorskayakarsk siberia, nothing ever got into the population from there.

I agree that distance from urban center is wise. However, Siberia is perfect cold storage environment to preserve the pathogens from degradation on surfaces and airborne. Some naturally occurring pathogens require only single copy to reliably mount full scale infection, and these were lab designed bioweapons blasted up into the prevailing winds to be carried across the world. Do we believe RT?

Cold, yes...but at least not high desert. Worst illnesses I have ever had were from mutations that occurred in high desert environments. The UV just starts hammering on that data to produce corruptions of the original and mutations that are startling. It doesn't help that we are at solar minimum either. This allows a stunning amount of mutations to appear rather (seemingly) randomly within pathogenic populations.

Now I don't have any video of the September 2019 Siberian biolab explosion to compare it with other recent explosions in Russia, but I can't help but compare that explosion with this ammo depot explosion, and ask if among other shells at the ammo depot, there were not ready-to-go biowarfare shells that went off in August 12, 2019. Maybe the Siberian biolab explosion/fire was intentional and meant to hide the evidence of the pathogen that may have been released in the unintentional Siberian munitions dump explosion.

Any fucking American worth their luke warm piss knows that while Bar Harbor is a lovely place... it's in the absolute middle of nowhere. It's We're talking of population density of probably around 1-9 person(s) per kilometer at certain times of the year, with the peak seasons really not being terribly higher statistically speaking. The Wuhan Institute of Virology is in a fucking landlocked megalopolis.

Another thought for you faggots: If China genuinely could produce evidence that they were on contract to produce this thing, for any reason; at this juncture why wouldn't they? Really, suggesting that this thing wasn't fucking outright stolen and then subjected to mongrel chinkroach niggerbrained attempts of "reverse engineering" is as asinine as the notion itself is farcical, at this juncture. The Chinks took a massive shit in the punch bowl and guess the fuck what it's literally ruined everyone's plans. Nobody, is in position. Cambodia Says All COVID-19 Patients Recovered, No New Cases For A Month (No Help From Bill Gates)

MY COMMENT: Cambodia simply closed their borders and restricted travel to outsiders and imposed a few home quarantines for those that had it! That's it! It worked! No vaccines... no lockdowns... no tests! GET IT!? And BTW, don't ever forget many tests were found to be contaminated with the virus! The Global Health Mafia is trying to spread this to push their Big-Tech-laced snake oil!

I don't even think the Global Health Mafia intends to do that, they just released this low-grade bioweapon to make lots of shekels via multi-govt subsidies and NGO funding while promoting so-called "cures" which are likely tainted by the virus, which will increase Biotech and Big Pharma profits in which they are ALL heavily invested in.

>Most COVID Patients Have Blood Type A Says Russian Health Official

Wow in that article they do everything they can to skirt the fact that the pathogen was imported into their nation by their government officials (it entered into Russia in Moscow and began spreading, despite the 'closed borders extremely early on' the jet set and international criminals did not QUARANTINE their activity). Much like Washington DC which was a hotspot that branched out to the rest of the nation after Davos...

This whole thing has been a shitshow of epic proportions with the governments and large corporations and hyper rich of the planet being the primary infection route into all the different nations of the world.

That is one thing that they don't want you to look at very closely. THEY ARE THE SOURCE OF THE INITIAL SPREAD OF THE PATHOGEN.

IDK I think it is only an issue because we don't start liquidating the 'melinated' (all of them; since they have all proven to be either imbeciles or terrorists in our nations) people in our neighborhoods. It is not that I don't think it needs to be reported on. I am saying LOOK we know who is responsible for this terrorism (and all the other terrorism in our nations). Our nations went to hell when the turd world was invited in (including the Bolshevik Khazars) and it has only gotten worse with this bioweapon. Unless you guys are prepared to start killing people, what good does this 'evidence' do?

I'm not sure but [t]he Shill proves useful as always, though if undetected they're about as damaging as submarines; similarly once they are detected their presence is totally blown. This can be quite useful, not just to anonymous for the lulz but also in regards to the random bullshit ideas we stumble upon and decide to vent, for whatever reason that may be. Yes, Anon, our ability to shit-post is a direct threat to CPC power (and they seek global reach) because it hinges on the notion that Man has the right to Say anything he wishes, essentially. The notion is that Speech is not innately harmful. Which is True, so long as it's not a Lie: yet the Occident even protects ones ability to deceive, at least in parlance, certainly not Contractually but I digress. The point is while speech is not kinetic, it can foster voluntary change which is why Mao is fundamentally a retarded stump-cocked mongoloid niggerchink: 'Power comes from the end of a gun[]' or some such mumbo-jumbo from the mind of a derivative urban tyrant, no asshole by the time the guns are involved the revolution has already happened and gone south as fuck, dumb dumb! People were talking about change at their dinner tables, in coffee shops, bars, pubs and pizzerias for a long time it's just that whatever that regime was, refused to change; in the case of armed insurrection, the institution was clearly so corrupt, ineffectual and ossified that it must have needed to be put down at least... this is the intent the Framers had in mind for the United States of America which is why we have 1A&2A. Upon those two all the others fundamentally rest, which is why they must constantly be attacked by our enemies, in all the ways they can think of. This has frosted their ass for about TWO HUNDRED years now and now, this is pretty much it. They wanted Chinese styled Communism to control the entire planet with them at the top, China was the playground because they've been ruled by despots (THEM) for centuries. However, Chinks gonna Chink. Which is why the Manchus just kick the shit out of there sub-human asses all the time and locked them down in a cyber-fascist kleptocratic dystopia, known as a modern day China. Which is why the US, et al are going to embargo chips to China; as per:

That's not at all what I'm suggesting, I've never said "they" weren't involved. What I'm saying is this situation can only benefit China if everybody else can't handle it and China can't really even handle it. They're trying desperately to come out on top of on this one, even though it's a catastrophe their own inept asses inflicted on themselves and the rest of the globe. So now, what remains of the core CPC leadership is like; "Fuck it, initiate the <{[(PLA-SAMPSON OPTION)]}>." They're having to try and put down hyperbalkanization, terrorism, revolution, food riots and a multitude of plagues at this point but fuck it, all options are on the table now: the doomed mans gambit. They way they could force project would be with the forces they have deployed now, that are not infected... which is actually a substantial number, especially if they were used frugally. This is WWIII, right now... the air you're breathing, where ever the fuck you are.

I have no stakes with either "faction", neither do the few other genuine anons here (or elsewhere). Neither "side" is beneficial for the white Europeans (on the contrary). I am however, a pragmatic man, to the extent that it's not conflicting with my ideology too much. You see, people who would fall for the same propaganda repeatedly are becoming increasingly useless in such conflicts, making such efforts rather ... pointless. Those who don't and who could actually cause some damage (or rather, prevent it), might ask the uncomfortable question, "what's in it for me?" And I believe I have made a limited display of my abilities on several occasions. Who knows what might have happened if I actually got serious

Peter Zeihan came out with a good three part newsletter that's worth a read. Basically he's saying the latest propaganda from China is designed to make the world hate them. The purpose being to stimulate anti-foreigner nationalism inside the country to keep it stable in preparation for an economic/political collapse and subsequent political lockdown.

This makes a certain amount of sense. By cutting the rest of the world off and turning themselves completely inward they can play games with their own economy without fears of what outside commentary may bring. They can also make 'everyone else' into the enemy to keep their population from remembering that their old favorite hobby was killing each other.

It also insulates them by giving them a captive market for the widgets nobody else wants to buy from them anymore.

No, all those things are secondary.

In the end this is about is about the CCP's survival. The social contract in China is this: the party gets to be the only ruler and stomp all over every right imaginable, you will tolerate this in exchange for perpetual growth and economic prosperity. When confronting the average Chinese about the atrocities committed by Mao, even if they accept that they occurred, they will say "well, things are better for everyone now, so it was worth it". What happens when the economic conditions rapidly deteriorate and mass MASS unemployment happens? China knows a large economic collapse will hit them soon so they fear their own citizens. They need to fuel nationalism and anti-foreign sentiments to form a loyal faction to quash internal uprisings.

Certainly plausible. Could even be a coordinated effort between NATO and Chinamen leadership too. Like China plays the bad guy, and uses it to galvanize their population. Likewise, NATO countries get an external enemy to hate on to try to diffuse tensions so they don't get internal strife and things go to shit, everyone loses their jobs, prices and taxes rise, and ZOG keeps bringing in tens of millions of hostile foreigners regardless.

The fault is mostly the central banking system, which has devalued the currency through fiat and fraud. Back in the early 60s you could buy a big can of soup for around 20 cents, or a sirloin steak for around $2 per lb. Sure people made a little less in income, but homes were fucking affordable because the markets were not propped up by mass fraud, debt bubbles and bailouts like we see so rampant today. Taxes were lower too. Every nation that has adopted a ((central banking system))) has seen this happen eventually. That is the biggest threat to the real economy right there.

But this is what we should have expected that this becomes a 'political football' for totalitarianism and desperate grabs for power rather than any sort of organized coherent response to the problem. I think most of humanity is going to die over this and not 'well' in terms of what is going to happen. I am almost the only individual in public who still wears a mask now. Yet the numbers are still climbing and China's second wave is just beginning to rear its head. Most of the people around you are the walking dead. You are looking at a plague that was not a flu at all.

Besides 1918-19 were straight post-war conditions. Even US soldiers returned weakened, ill or maimed.

It's absolutely possible Jews might have spread it on purpose back then too, to kill more Whites and destroy more of our respective populations. I would certainly not put it above their dirty tricks.

The difference with nowadays is the quality of life.

The problem though is the form of this virus. It's such an unnatural amalgam of several elements that it could go dormant and recombine with a new flu or something else and reveal its full potential then.

They are wrecking small business to let big corporations gobble it up. It's the same old game.

These sick and corrupt elites want to push all the planet's resources into the hands of a hundred megacorporations or two. Which are all the more ran by Jews or their behaved allies.

They are simply careful not to entirely destroy the whole economy because they would lose control of the situation.

>Pretty soon, I wouldn't be surprised if they have a UV light to see where you got your "Corona-Virus" vaccine in order to enter the building.

That's the plan. Check the Event 201's conclusions, Bill Gates' public wishes and the virus-vaccine European agenda for years from 2019 to 2022, they have it all already planned, ID, scan, personal medical information sent to the governments, etc.

>Just look at how they distributed the "Stimulus Money" to confirm that.

Yes, and see how it will make the debt balloon and inflation grow. The people will have to pay for these while the big companies will continue to avoid taxation with the help of the corrupt governments.

None of which would have happened if people were allowed to produce their own organic fuel (which we could have been using for more than a century if Rockefeller hadn't forced the ((industry)) into using oil) and if citizens were used to buy more locally.

Now we realize that mass production and the insane consumption of fuel produced by oil giants was but a house of cards.

But then, are we talking about scientists or ((scientists))? That website is fishy as it uses the enemy's words, namely "the pandemic" which might be a red flag. Besides, note that NaturalNews did start a new website that was dedicated to the current corona virus so they could be into clickbaiting.

>The 33-page report, which appears in the journal BioRxiv

Wait, that last word sounds a lot like a drug that's precisely used against the covid-19 to half the duration of symptoms, right? I know there's a drug with a name close to this.

Scare tactic?

Besides, 33 pages.

I actually think we are well into the infection phase of Wave 2 anon. People are walking around without any protection whatsoever (in huge groups and gatherings and for unknown reasons; fucking hell!!! They think if they are 6th-0" apart they are 'good'. They really are going to kill almost everyone in the USA. China has 100 million in lockdown at the very beginning of their wave 2. remember the second wave is the 'drop dead' in place wave. So...expect to see some shit that you would not believe in the USA in less than a month. BE AWARE OF DRIVERS WHO DIE AT THE WHEEL. Etc. I would bet you that their corpses will be 10 times more contagious on the second wave. I doubt that those of us who are left will be able to fight off the mongrel invasion that will come towards the end of this even if we are healthy enough to fight and not sick. When the kikes said they wanted us exterminated, they meant it. They simply stripped our nation like a husk and are going to wipe out everything that is left once the biological war is over.

The lies are that this is 'just a flu, bro'...do you really think 'just a flu' came out of a bioweapons laboratory? Why do you thing that they military has mandated that ANYONE who has tested positive for COVID can no longer serve in the military now or ever again in the future? Because it is 'just a flu' right?

I wish to see the full sources before jumping to conclusions. Thus far, all MSM and governments, aside from a few exceptions, have outrageously lied about the virus, the death rate and the expected figures. They generated the panic, stoked the fires, manipulated opinions, created artificial limitations in supplies of tests and masks, pushed protocols to make all symptoms become enough to have non-covid-19 be declared covid-19, etc.

So no, I'm not going to run with the latest scare tactic coming from them because an "anon" on a chan tells me to trust his figures he collected.

We've known for months that some people who went through it had a second spike of symptoms, but it didn't generate any extra death rate. It simply made the flu open to transmission again during that phase.

Considering the importance of the military, its operations and how the boys are packed together, any case of a covid-19 carrier would be a potential new spreader in close knit confines, so the military will not take any risks. It makes perfect sense and has nothing to do with a new second super wave. It's not like they desperately need new recruits either.

This bitch is crying because niggers are being sterilized? I don't give a fuck about these apes.

I care about white countries being turned into savannas full of throat-slicing savages, organized by the international jewry and the consent of their slaves. I couldn't care less if there was a "nefarious" plan to exterminate entire non-white populations, that would be fair game, we have the tech and the means, we win. But it's not what is going on.

Tell me, if Gates really were into noble eugenics, why would he let Western nations feed Africa and Asia so they can explode the demographics? why would he let the Asians rise, prosper, consume and again multiply? why would he allow the savages to come into Europe and benefit from an extra supply of food and medicine? This is not eugenism, this is an extermination of Whites.

Bitch is an antifa.

Yes but anon, this doesn't make any sense if it was something that was as mild as the flu. If it was as mild as the flu (which it is not because it is not a flu at all; not related to the flu, not a virus) then they would want their soldiers to catch it so that they conferred herd immunity. Yo want to know how you know if you are being manipulated? Ask yourself was the original MSM etc data based on the science and research that we have been following for 54 threads? No, nothing from the research papers has really made it into the gen pop because it would cause a massive panic if it did. So, people didn't have the original science and they still do not understand that pathogen. That is how you know that pretty much all of the things they told the gen pop was a lie from the beginning through today. Remember the thread where we were looking into the research that showed it might lodge in peoples spine?

It is basically airborne AIDS. And what was it, thread 20 something where we discussed the dynamics of the second wave data? First wave was 'flu like' but second wave (and each subsequent wave) damaged more and more of the body. First, lungs; pathgen hybernates; emerges targets ACEII in second wave, heart; pathogen hybernates; etc etc etc.

The lung damage was permanent even in mild cases. Heart damage (the people who don't have a instant heart attack just walking around) will be permanent damage as well.

Remember when we learned about the horror of plasma transfusion and the antibody induced cytokine storm? Well it is the same on 2nd wave as well. You have the anitbodies in your system the same as if you recieved a plasma transfer.

I know it seems hard to imagine. But by thread 25 I had gotten a very indepth picture of what was about to happen on this planet. I'd suggest you go back and read all of that but it is just so much information that no one would want to do that.

I'm not wrong. But if I was wrong...how could you do anything other than count yourself lucky?

Also, none of us here have really figured out why so many doctors and researchers are being murdered...so there is a lot that doesn't 'add up' but the science on this pathogen is pretty clear anon.

He's in the business of selling vaccines and digital IDs so they can have a cashless society and have total control over money transactions.
They already remove content creators whose speech is protected by law from banks and payment processors in an attempt to silence them. If people like him gets his way they can just turn off your chip and you never get to participate in the economy ever again.

>I actually think we are well into the infection phase of Wave 2 anon.

I respectfully disagree. The second wave usually comes after restrictions are relaxed to a measurable degree. Most countries are not there yet. It seems to me that waves usually last about 6-7 months. Factoring that in and the second wave should start hitting around June, ending around December. The third wave should start around January or February (just in time for China's lunar new year again) and ending in July/August.

>8 billion
>a lot of money
8 billion is a lot of money on a personal level, but it's less than a drop in the grand scheme of things.
The combined wealth of the Rothschilds alone is immeasurable. They wouldn't get out of bed for 8 billion.
You gotta think in bigger terms, anon.
The economy crashing harder than 1929 is extremely dangerous to the kikes. All the massive number of unemployed for whom there are no jobs will at some point turn to violence.
States will crumble because they cannot dole out gibs anymore.
And all that chaos and disruption for a piddly little 8 billion? Or a monopoly on one vaccine?
Makes no sense at all.
What really makes no sense, though, is why the kikes would willingly destroy their big whacking stick, the JewSA.
Without US money and troops, Pissrael will be destroyed by the kebabs in the blink of an eye.
We are in a completely novel situation, where we have a virus that is, all things considered, not very lethal, but that has successfully destroyed the global economy. Now we have endless masses of people in abject poverty who would have otherwise died and for whom there are no jobs and an economy that cannot rebuild, because technically, there was no destruction.
The future will be bloody and chaotic to an extent we cannot even fathom.

Not yet, because these things take time. But we do have better data now, and we can see that the virus isn't spreading and killing people all-over-everywhere. We've been isolating since January, and our little two-acre patch isn't big enough to keep us all sane.

Ok faggots. There anons arguing in this thread over whether covid is being used to increase surveillance or for depopulation. In a way, it is intended to do both. The initial point of coronavirus is to increase surveillance by providing a convenient excuse to "contact trace". This allows them to map out your irl social network. Further, it provides detailed information for analysis to determine how to most convincingly introduce the 2nd wave. The second wave is the one that is going to scare the normies into taking the vaccine and microchip. Those two combined will 1) reduce population (expect sterilization to be a long term side effect of the "vaccine") 2) track and monitor everyone through the microchip 3) identify dissidents. The 2nd wave will provide a convenient excuse for people being rounded up and terminated. Further, the covid will provide a convenient excuse for the breakdown in the food distribution network this will allow famines to be put in place for depopulation in targeted areas. A virus is a very imprecise tool for depopulation purposes while famines can quite precise and great for quelling resistance in a given area. Considering that all 1st world countries rely on a just in time economy, this allows very precise and effective famines without those famines having to last very long. The second wave will likely be more lethal, but it still will not be a world ending event. It may be around the level of the second wave of the Spanish flu. Why the first wave? As I've alluded to this provides a convenient excuse for the emergence of the virus in a more uniform matter by providing an excuse for it to emerge simultaneously in multiple regions and by providing info for study to make it seem more organic. The ultimate purpose of the virus is to increase control.

To:Dr This is all about control and providing cover for other objectives as such there are many things that could be called "goals" ((they))) hope to achieve with this pandemic and virus.

While I am one who agrees this was a bioweapon, and it is much worse than the flu, it still only has around 15% mortality rate, meaning it won't kill everyone who comes into contact with it, and studies are coming out that immune systems CAN build defenses against this. So it's not going to lead to an End Times scenario as we wished it would. Sorry anon.

Sadly, a lot of us fell for the media and government created hype anon, and I admit I did too for a while. The more that is coming out, the more I have to admit we were wrong, this is not a massive game changer, in fact, all this fear mongering is being exploited by the kikes to take away more of our freedoms and dismantle what was left of a real economy aka small family run businesses. It's being used for the same old tricks, power grabs and monopolization. Quite frankly we are living under pure evil and need to stop trusting the system and do what we can to remove ourselves from this crooked system. I've had enough, I'm going to become 100% self-sufficient within this decade, already liquidated most my savings into hard assets and property (got enough in the bank to keep paying my bills though) and I'll have a new family-owned homestead pretty soon (getting some of my family on board for a big move to rural farmland where we can escape all this BS today). There really was a 'great awakening' that happened, and it's going to be a movement of people fleeing modern society and going back to living traditional lifestyles. And if the kikes don't like it, well, we could always just shoot 'em.

IDK what he's basing it on: Ferguson vs Massachusetts was referring to the smallpox vaccine. That vaccine was effective with the strain having no discernible mutations. In this case, there is no effective vaccine yet and even if there were, the Supreme Court didn't say that the guy had to be forced to take the vaccine, they only fined him with 5 dollars. Fuck this guy.

I feel for the media fear porn as well anon, that being said, I always new the REAL Happening was Corona-Chan exposing the government to the normies that they're all a bunch of incompetent faggots. Now there are hundreds of thousands, potentially millions of disgruntled normies who now want to find ways to remove themselves from the (((System))). Remember, not all normies are created equal. The smart ones will look for help on how to do so...and we will be there to guide them...

> Fell for the fear porn.

I guess one could say that I "fell for it" as well. But I realized in the beginning that it was possible that the entire thing was a massive hoax. I theorized that the entire event was an engineered happening, a conspiracy, created by a cast of international participants. I did not want to believe that such a grand conspiracy could come into existence. We have been brainwashed to believe that any "conspiracy theory" is nonsense and contemptible. And since the cost of being wrong is so high, I assumed that the worst of all outcomes could become a reality - I went to DEFCON-2, and all my previous preps were amped-up. I didn't think it was possible for conspirators to create an international hoax.

Why would the chinks go along with such a fraud, when it cost them literally billions of dollars? But we now have our answer - they wanted to force the US to renegotiate the trade deal.

Why would Iran go along with the fraud? Maybe to draw attention away from their involvement in the Uranium-1 scandal? We are now learning that the uranium from the US never made it to the Russians, and that it was Iran who benefited from the scandal.

Why would the US media spend January ignoring the outbreak in Wuhan, when their numbers were in the toilet over the impeachment fiasco? Maybe because the media wanted to keep people's attention on Trump(((?))), instead of making people aware of the threat, also allowing the disease to spread more within the US.

Why would the (((Democrats))) push the "don't be racist" narrative in the beginning, but now take draconian measures to force compliance and control? Maybe that question answers itself - it's because they are (((Democrats))), and subjugating the world is (((their))) only goal. They wanted to let the virus spread, then use it as an excuse to make another power grab.

I didn't want to believe that the US media was in-cahoots with China and Iran, but it's beginning to appear that such was the case.

> The "new happening" is the exposure of (((government agencies))) as incompetent faggots.

And there is much more to come. I suspect that somebody is going to bust caps before this comes to an end. The normies are really pissed about this, and even Kool-Aid-drinking kikebook moms are now aware of the vaccination/microchip agenda. I went on a rant with some normies at the grocery store, trying to explain things, and I suggested that they "get out your smartphones and search for 'ID2020' if you don't believe me - it's all real, and is easy to verify." They did, and holy-shit you should have seen the looks on their faces. It was as if the dildos were finally wrenched-free of their ears, and they were finally able to hear the truth. I wonder how far down the rabbit hole they'll go.

This whole thing was a feeble attempt by the (((deep state))) to reassert control, and it failed. This begs some questions: why did (((they))) choose to unleash Red Death now? What made (((them))) think that normies would easily accept house-arrest and microchipping? Did something occur that threatens (((their))) power? Do (((they))) have another Sampson option, the real one, awaiting use?

> Guide normies on how to remove themselves from (((the system)))

Awesome. Do me a favor, and let me know when you have that one figured out.

'Cuz the only way to truly escape is to live like a fish in the sea - everything else is (((regulated))) and (((taxed))). No shortage of stupid meat out there. Besides, zog will ultimately push this onto every device from above. You don't decide to install it, you'll have no choice. And uninstalling it won't be an option.

Read Snowden's book or his leaked docs; zog already forces spyware down to millions of devices. You don't (can't) see it. You can't disable it.

I view it this way. Imagine the souls of an anon being like a raging bonfire or similar, whereas the soul of a normie is more like a little candle. Very true anon, but the best you can do is just try to be as independent on possible, though yes, in this day and age nobody can entirely separate themselves from the system, but we should all do as much as we can do be as independent as possible. Karen Meme Becoming Popular To Rat Out Snitches Online

Karen is the woman that calls the cops on people for violating coronavirus rules. Karen is a snitch. Karen is selfish and whatever she does is OK, but whatever anyone else does is not ok. Karen is the perfect scamming leftist. And here's where Karen started, with a real woman, named Karen who drove an hour and a half to the beach and then complained to the BBC that other people were there too:

DO NOT be a "Karen". That's far worse than being an NPC and in this day and age people understand the importance of doing away with obvious communist snitches. Everyone thinks the Russians were somehow bad people over how they complied with communist directives and turned each other in. But here's the reality of it all: In every society there are about one people in 10 who are so self righteous and of low moral character that they get a thrill out of ratting everyone out, that happens EVERYWHERE.

I think the real reason we fell for it is because the problem was global

That's my reason at least

When I saw THE ENTIRE WORLD had the same infection I guessed it was more likely true than false

But if it was just one or two countries I'd have been way more suspicious it was a fraud

Only when I read that in my country of over 30k deaths only 1k were not 80yr olds with pre-existing problems I woke up

1k actual CV deaths over 3 months is a lot less than deaths from car crashes (which didn't happen because we couldn't drive anywhere btw)

Even being a /pol/ack for 15 years doesn't guarantee full protection from such massive hoaxes

The only thing we can do is leave evidence of this all around so that we don't let it happen again

Next time could be "global water contamination" or something

Now they know it works, so they are going to do it again, let's just make sure we are prepared for the inevitable next waves

Prepping has always been seen as some weirdo thing but it is really not, buying a house in a little town, storing a lot of food and guns and water filters, masks, protective suits and whatnot

Finally we can say that prepping is not weird but a just thing so we will not make the same mistake twice

>I feel for the media fear porn as well

What fear porn? Anons analyzed the current information. There is still no readily available information as to whether /ourgirl/ will cause sterility and to what extent. There is simply not enough data to say that legitimate concern was not justified (or indeed still isn't. Note all the Jews that got infected in NY because they thought their Lord would protect them and that they are simply above the concerns of the goyim (may the kikes rot in hell). Not forgetting to mention all the long term health problems caused by /ourgirl/. Reinfection is also still a probability which has never been discussed by the (((media))).

The best an anon can do is avoid infection where possible and outlive the enemies of civilization.

Yes, and no. You are correct to indicate that the attributes of RED DEATH have not changed, but it is incorrect to state that performance data has remained the same. The disease just doesn't appear to be as infectious or as deadly outside of Chinkland. The RED DEATH is simply not killing people outside of China with the efficacy we expected.

Don't get me wrong, I was down for the Boogaloo. I ordered respirators and cartridges in Jan, then started stocking-up on food, fuel and medicine. We normally keep a years' worth of supplies on-hand, so it wasn't that big of a deal for me to amp-up my preps and get some more. Most of what I did involved securing luxury items, trade/barter items, and long-term homesteading items. I checked all my weapons, loaded all my magazines, and dialed-in all my radios. Thankfully, I'm not going to need most of that crap now. Also, we are going to be eating lots of pork and beef for the next couple years.

I just wish I'd gotten some time off from work during all of this. But no, I was busier than a one-legged man in an ass-kicking contest the entire time.

> Why did we fall for it? Because of all the (((international))) cast of players?

Yes, this. It was all over the place, the (((MSM))) was completely silent about it, and the chink-commie-kikes were hemorrhaging cash hand-over-fist. A tiny part of me suspected it was all fake, but a larger portion of my consciousness continuously thundered "be safe instead of sorry" again-and-again. Looking back, I don't think I regret a single thing I did.

> Still lots to be learned about /ourgal/, and we're not really through it yet. True, but we now know enough to go about things with little fear. Grandma can come over to visit. I can rent and use heavy equipment again. We can buy fresh vegetables from the store again. I don't have to bleach packages that come in the mail anymore. I can buy a bottle of rum, and spend Saturday night relaxing. Fucking finally.

>>108987

> Build a parallel system, sabotage (((their))) system, and be ready to take over after the collapse.

Not a bad idea, but it can be improved. Instead of building an independent system, then taking over later, why not build a system to take over now?

> (((They))) hold a monopoly on the use of violence

Yes, they do, for now. But if we build our own system, we can influence and control the bots who actually exercise that violence. When the ZOGbots stop obeying ZOG, (((they))) have lost.

> /SIG/

Most of the people I know have put on weight during this whole thing. I started out eating rice and beans, staying in the house 100%, and I saw where I was headed. So I switched to eating frozen fish and running on a treadmill. I've actually LOST weight and gained some muscle over the last four months. So, fuck yeah.

> (((They))) need us more than we need them.

True, as we don't need them at all, and (((they))) are completely dependent upon us. But hubris is a common fallacy, so don't put it past (((them))) to believe that (((they))) don't need us.

> Valhalla

I intend to go elsewhere, and I wish you'd join me, but I can understand the sentiment.

> Being new

Could be. But at least I'm not an assphagot.

> Bring back McCarthy

Yeah, this. Only this time, we don't bother with hearings, we just build a gallows.

>We have been brainwashed to believe that any "conspiracy theory" is nonsense and contemptible. And since the cost of being wrong is so high, I assumed that the worst of all outcomes could become a reality - I went to DEFCON-2, and all my previous preps were amped-up. I didn't think it was possible for conspirators to create an international hoax.

>Why would Iran go along with the fraud?

I don't think of the whole thing as a total fraud or hoax but rather just amped up hyperbole and fear mongering by media, governments and politicians (because they want total control over us plebs). Sure, this is a bioweapon, it was engineered and that has been confirmed 100%, but who says it's going to depopulate the whole world or cause biblical End Times events? If that were the case, it would be happening by now, we'd be consumed with deaths all over and total societal collapses. Only media, governments and politicians are still promoting such hyperbolic doomsday scenarios and we all know they are addicted to power grabbing and stomping out what is left of personal liberty. The truth is people can recover from Covid-19, and many already have. You can fight it off and become immune, some have little side effects from it. Studies are showing many people can fight it off (much like having a really bad flu). Honestly I now think this bioweapon was rather low-grade (not the MAD shit that's protected like nukes would be), intentionally released to make kikes huge profits and for governments to exploit (knowing they are assholes who do that all the time). At first I was prepping for the worst case scenarios and glad I did, but I've realized it's not as bad as it is being hyped up to be. Just wear a mask or respirator when you go out, keep decontaminating whatever you bring back into the home and wash up more often and you're not likely to ever catch it. If you do catch it, just boost your immune system (Vitamins C, D and zinc supplement) and consider taking an antiviral.

As for Iran, I think they may have been hit deliberately with a deadlier strain by the CIA and/or Mossad because that's what they do to their foes, right?

Gotta say I agree. I think this thing is certainly a bio-weapon, but it's not nearly as bad as it was made out to be, possibly because it may have even been an unfinished product that hadn't hit its full potential yet when it escaped (or got released by some kiked double agent). I dropped literally like 1k on extra preps only to not need them, and at this point the (((establishment))) is just trying to keep it going because it's crashing the economy and curtailing everyone's rights and muh freedumbs, which is exactly what (((they))) want, a submissive, scared population of cattle. At this point the whole thing is barely a drop in the bucket, killing mostly only obese 80+ year olds. 90% of infectees don't even experience symptoms and 99.7% survive and recover just fine. The stock market is still through the roof and the kikes are profiteering on an insane level as tens of millions of goyim lose their jobs and become dependent on marxist handouts. Whether the release of the virus was intentional or not it's certainly getting used to its full capacity, and all of the ensuing politics and policies surrounding it are going to be a major part of what shapes this coming decade that we just entered. Prepare for Weimar Republic 2.0, and we need to be ready with memes and propaganda because there will probably be another opportunity in about 10 years or so for us to push into the mainstream, especially as western and white nations are now officially literally going to turn into third world shit holes.

> It's not a hoax, just amped-up fear mongering

But why was this one treated so different than previous outbreaks? The (((mainstream))) narrative still won't acknowledge that it came out of a lab, so there is no excuse for the (((MSM))) to promote hyperbolic scenarios.

> But (((they))) are addicted to power grabbing

Yes, (((they))) are. But this power grab seems like an over-extension.

(((They))) have steadily gaining in power for decades maybe centuries, why would (((they))) resort to locking people in their homes for months-on-end? Why would (((they))) push for mandatory vaccination now, when it would be easier to force it through via a (((health insurance))) mandate?

> Iran was hit by a deadlier strain

So, you're saying that the Iranian government is legit, and isn't playing along with the (((globalist))) narrative? I don't buy it. All the dick choppers are on Team-Satan, whether (((they))) pray to Mohamed or Molech, and any appearance of disharmony is a skill. Are you a skill?

>>109069

> It's a bioweapon, but is unfinished, and the whole thing is just a drop in the bucket compared to what the kikes are planning for the economy.

Could be. I don't think it makes sense for (((them))) to release this thing unless something was threatening them. The entire situation smacks of desperation, and (((their))) power grab is rapidly failing.

Mandatory vaccinations will red-pill most of the population.

Data. That's what happened. We now have more data. Despite the HIV inserts and other tweaks, /ourgal/ is just not killing people en-mass in Western nations.

Maybe the chink government was intentionally leaking sensationalist videos.

Maybe the chinks were dying of cytokine storms because of the new N1N1 vaccine they received.

Maybe the (((western media))) really was just preoccupied with impeachment, and wasn't intentionally ignoring the outbreak.

Maybe personnel within the CDC and WHO are just incompetent asshats, with no ill-will.

Or maybe, there will be a second wave that kills billions.

I dunno. I know that the virus is real, I know that it came out of a lab, I know that it's fucking scary, and I know that it's not killing my neighbors.

The fucker has been loose in the US for about five months, which is longer than the initial outbreak in Wuhan. If it was going to kill people here, as it appeared to kill people in Wuhan, it should have started by now.

Not a hoax, but definitely an engineered event.

I personally believe that /ourgirl/ was a bioweapon that was accidentally released due to chink incompetence. The (((elites))) freaked the fuck out because they knew China was developing bioweapons and they most likely gave them funding to do so. > Chink incompetence

No. The timeframe is too convenient. A coronavirus outbreak simulation called "Event 201", funded by Gates, is held in October of 2019; and one month later an actual outbreak occurs, and Gates is ready with a "vaccine" to save everyone?

No. Too convenient to be happenstance.

Another treatment, hydroxychloroquine (HCQ) appears to work, and is being used by the American President, but the (((MSM))) and Fauci and Gates won't stop shilling against it. Nope, not a coincidence either.

Also, the lab in Wuhan, where the outbreak began, was getting funding from (((Soros))) and Gates. Nope, not a coincidence.

And once the pandemic starts within the US, who is headlining on the taskforce? Anthony Fauci is. And who funds Fauci? Gates and (((Soros))) fund him. Again, not a coincidence.

Dr. (((Frank Plummer))), an immunologist working for the Canadian government's bioweapon program, gives biological samples to some chink spies, then (((he))) dies of unknown causes while overseas. And this same (((Plummer))) is also linked to Fauci? No, also too convenient to be a coincidence.

There are too many connections between (((these people))) for their activities to be unrelated. It is not happenstance, it is not coincidence, it is enemy action.

This was planned, long ago. But for some reason, the plan was executed haphazardly. Not enough people have died for (((them))) to attain (((their))) goals. There is too much dissenting opinion and noncompliance for (((them))) to attain (((their))) goals. And another treatment comes along, HCQ, offers immediate hope to people, curtailing the desperation needed for (((them))) to attain (((their))) goals.

This was definitely planned and executed intentionally, but done poorly and from a position of weakness.

> Second wave will kill billions

> The CCP intentionally stopped leaking videos of dead chinks

Could be, but I want evidence.

> Why would the kikes miss the opportunity to improve (((their))) ratings, and keep blathering-on about the boring-assed impeachment, when (((they))) could have covered the outbreak in chinkland?

This was one of the things that convinced me something was amiss. There is NO WAY the kikes would have ignored the outbreak in January without a reason. Something must be amiss, because (((their))) ratings were in the toilet, and there was a juicy-assed story just waiting to get wall-to-wall coverage. But instead, (((they))) chose to keep on talking about the fucking ORANGE MAN BAD bullshit.

There is only one thing to explain all of this -(((Fuckery))) is afoot.

> The CDC and WHO plebs are just asshats, but the (((leadship))) knows the score.

I think it might be the other way around, fren. In most (((organizations))), policy is set by mindless yes-men, while the lower-echelons actually know what is going on fer realz.

Generally, management is filled with morons who are unable to tie their shoes, but the warehouse personnel keep the entire operation running.

You will get your evidence soon. 1/12th of the total population of bug people are back in lockdown. The 'handling' of the Red Death did not actually happen. The same thing will happen hear. The kikes are angry that their bioweapon did not kill like they wanted it to...so they are running thousands of different psyop to control all the narratives and break everything down to chaos. If you keep your eye on the science NOTHING HAS CHANGED, despite the kike chaotic disinformation weapons of war. Thankfully this appears to kill kikes as much as it kills the other worthless subhuman races like the bugs and niggers. It is coming anon. I hope you didn't buy into any of the kikes constant droning psyops that are designed to murder you faster...'it is just the flu bro'...the science hasn't changed...if you want to live, keep your eyes on the science and ignore the fucking traitorous parasitic kikes.

A lot of the others are just weary from the sluggish pace she's taken, I cant say I blame them, I feel it too.

One thing to consider, we took pretty drastic measures to prevent the spread. Not as early as I expected them to, but measures were taken all the same.

Wuhan's government denied it for so long she managed to get a greater foothold than she did here. Look at Italy, they didn't lockdown til they already had a decent outbreak going, and things got so bad there they had to turn the elderly away at the hospitals.

I hate to admit it, but our soft lockdowns actually made quite a difference here in burgerland, but they shot their load. People are sick of it and they arent going to take another lockdown, hard or soft. Many will lay down, but plenty of others wont stand for it. Even if they would, the economy cant take much more. From a purely tactical standpoint, I think they should have been a lot more totalitarian. That said, thanks for not stopping it.

> A coronavirus outbreak simulation called "Event 201", funded by Gates, is held in October of 2019; and one month later an actual outbreak occurs, and Gates is ready with a "vaccine" to save everyone?

For starters, it's not a virus, it's a mycoplasma, there is no vaccine. (Because it's "alive") Secondly Event 201 happened during the first wave, really right when it was starting to seriously tick up in terms of things hospitals measure. The CPC approached Johns Hopkins et al to run the tabletop sim. Why did the Chinese do this? The answer is simple, they knew precisely what had just happened and sought to covertly get advice from the best people in the world to deal with the issue. This isn't rocket science.

You, are not prepared.

Wait until we see what happens to the pregnant women. I have been hanging in here just to see what the news is with them.

Speaking of pregnant women...I haven't see a single pregnant female in months. And I haven't seen a newborn baby (this used to be relatively common where I live) in months as well.

Has anyone else seen anyone pregnant or a newborn?

I see lots of kids who are about 1 year old now from the last 'round' of newborns, but really nothing any younger.

Are they hiding or did people simply stop having children anymore sometime last year?

>In Search of Preventative Strategies: Novel Anti-Inflammatory High-CBD Cannabis Sativa Extracts Modulate ACE2 Expression in COVID-19 Gateway Tissues

>Screening C. sativa extracts using artificial human 3D models of oral, airway, and intestinal tissues, we identified 13 high CBD C. sativa extracts that modulate ACE2 gene expression and ACE2 protein levels. Our initial data suggest that some C. sativa extract down-regulate serine protease TMPRSS2, another critical protein required for SARS-CoV2 entry into host cells. While our most effective extracts require further large-scale validation, our study is crucial for the future analysis of the effects of medical cannabis on COVID-19. The extracts of our most successful and novel high CBD C. sativa lines, pending further investigation, may become a useful and safe addition to the treatment of COVID-19 as an adjunct therapy.

>To date, the damage to the female reproductive system in COVID-19 patients has not been reported.

>Based on the previous researches, we speculated the possible ways of SARS-COV2 affecting female fertility: (i) SARS-COV2 might attack ovarian tissue and granulosa cells, and decrease ovarian function and oocyte quality, leading to female infertility or miscarriage; (ii) SARS-COV2 might damage endometrial epithelial cells and affect early embryo implantation. However, there is still a lack of evidence about the effect of SARS-COV2 on fallopian-tube, which should be paid more attention in the future.

>According to the latest "Coronavirus Pneumonia Diagnosis and Treatment Program (Sixth Edition)," (thereafter referred to as Sixth Edition) issued by the National Health Commission of China, interferon-alpha, and ribavirin (combine with interferon or lopinavir/ritonavir), arbidol (umifenovir), and chloroquine phosphate were recommended for use. Ribavirin is a broad-spectrum antiviral drug. Animal experiments have reported that the ingestion of ribavirin decreased the testosterone level and impaired spermatogenesis (Almasry et al., 2017), and could cause sperm abnormalities in rats (Narayana et al., 2002b). However, this toxic effect was reversible (Narayana et al., 2005, Narayana et al., 2002a). Clinical studies have shown that ribavirin combined with interferon treatment could affect male fertility, manifested through a decrease in sperm counts (Bukhari et al., 2018, Drobnis and Nangia, 2017). Pharmacokinetic studies showed that the concentration of the drug in seminal plasma during serum antiviral therapy was twice that in the serum, so contraception was strongly recommended during medication period (Hofer et al., 2010). Moreover, ribavirin could lead to sperm DNA fragmentation for up to 8 months (Pecou et al., 2009), so contraception was also recommended for a period after cessation of antiviral treatment.

Whether this was intentional or not, I don't know, but this virus is also being used to decouple much of the world, particularly the Anglosphere, from China. Australia specifically has doubled it's efforts in seeking out replacements for trade and so far has told the foreign student-starved university sector to suck it up buttercup.

I'm sure behind closed doors Xinnie and his buddies are sweating bullets at how rapidly they're being isolated. China puts up a tough (downright aggressive) front but it's to hide serious internal weakness. Peter Zeihan suggested that China knows how fucked they are and so are doubling down on pissing the entire world off which they can use as evidence of massive anti-China sentiment in order to build up ultranationalist fervor in the hopes that that'll be sufficient to distract the Chinese from the fact that their economy is totally fucked.

As far as i know we don't know yet, and the bioweapon part doesn't convince me either, virus mutate a lot, it's not the kind of thing anyone can control once it's out there, it's not impossible but i don't think even the chinks are that crazy to do it, the accidental release makes sense but then it's irrelevant.

Are you sure? Because (((science))) projected millions of people would be dead or dying by now. But it never happened. Maybe we just need to "wait for the second wave" or somesuch, but the "first" wave here in the US did not resemble the happenings in Changland.

> Believe the (((science))) and keep your eyes open

I'm going to continue reading the scientific literature as its released, but I'm also going to remain aware of (((who))) controls the (((scientific research))).

I will use my own judgement, and that of my fellow anons, while remaining skeptical of the kike narrative.

> Fast, and drastic, measures within Burgerland prevented RED DEATH from spreading.

Possibly, but don't discount the potential effect of the new H1N1 vaccine that the chink government rolled-out - the Chang population might have been made more-sensitive to the virus because of their shitty vaccinations.

But the virus only incubates for ~47 days, at the most, with an average closer to 14 days. So the US has been shut-down long enough that anyone with the disease has probably already ridden it out.

Plus, HCQ (hydroxy-whatever) actually seems to work. A non-vaccine treatment is a complete game changer, provided (((they))) allow us to access it.

I don't think that this information is directly related to RED DEATH. Just because mycoplasma exists, and has been developed into a weapon, does not make RED DEATH a mycoplasma.

Yes, this. And it's not just a problem in chinkland. The (((global economy))) is nothing but smoke-and-mirrors. This entire situation is a result of our economic predicament. The markets were over-extended and on the verge of insolvency. Additionally, the average American/European was/is in too much debt to remain afloat or to survive a recession. The kikes had planned to put Killary into office, blow-up the bubble some more, overextend the ZOG military via conflict with the east, then collapse the United States into an abyss of debt and civil discord. But Trump(((?))) happened, and all (((their))) plans went to shit.

This outbreak is a final, desperate attempt to remove Trump(((?))) and re-assert (((control))). The battle for our hearts and minds has been raging for years, and (((they))) are losing. Despite complete control over media and academia, the average Joe-sixpack does not like the government or the mega-corps who own it. I finnaly figured out where the "0.05% death rate" stat comes from.

And I facepalmed hard enough to fracture my skull.

Some dipshit made an infographic and it spread on facebook.

He took the number of deaths and divided it by the TOTAL NUMBER OF INFECTED.

So: $328,462 / 5,014,943 = 6.5 \%$

Worse still, some journalists saw this shit, and some publishers already ran stories with it.

Listen up, you hoaxniggers, if you want to get a rough Death Rate for a disease, you look at the cases that have concluded.

People either die, or they live.

Total cases where the patient recovered: 1,909,701.

Total cases where the patient died: 328,462

Which means a total of 2,238,163 cases have "concluded".

Of those, 328,462 have died. Which means that the Death rate is:

328,462 / 2238163 = 14.67%

As a starter, this almost TRIPLE the amount, AND it's the current stats after flu season is over, after quarantines, masks and all other shit.

A month ago, you could do the same math and get 30%. 40% in some countries like Spain and Italy.

Do you know what 30% is? Here's a picture you can repeat to your hoaxnigger friends:

You get corona. Roll a dice. If it lands on 1 or 2, you're dead!

Do you fancy those odds? I actually have retards telling me that if it doesn't reach 50%, it's not that serious. Motherfucker, with the potential to infect the whole fucking country, if we lose 30% of our population, we lose half the economy with them. And any war we get involved in the next 40 years. And trade. And society.

People are willing to trade ALL THAT for a sunny beach day.

The statistics are bullshit for a very simple reason - the nucleic acid test being used returns lots of false positives. There aren't really five-gorillion infected. The total number of dead is also fucked - the government is literally PAYING hospitals to report SARS-CoV-2 related deaths.

All the numbers are (((bullshit))). But my eyes don't lie to me, and I can see that people are not dropping dead left-and-right. So it might be bad, but we are going to survive this.

This is a misleading pic related and the people who push this argument are deliberately arguing in bad faith. The NSDAP was all about the commons, with total STATE control of the money supply. They built public housing, they wiped mortgage debt, they publicly funded massive infrastructure projects that raised the standards of living of the population and cut out the rents of various privateers. Just because they weren't going around seizing everyone's business or home does not mean they were not socialist. They absolutely were.

This is why Leiber moved on to something that used nano machines to control the behavior...they realized that FunVax's side effects were truly unprecedented and not 'good' for their future plans. You will be given a gene drive vaccine that totally controls all of your behaviors and you will not have a choice at all in any future decisions you will make, because if you 'step outside' the AI programming paradigm that is set up for 'Unit serial number 3987498y1383' then you will be terminated on the spot. And didn't the PreuBen Empire allow kikes to control banking and finance? Spengler's ideas sound like (((capitalism))), in which capital/money/currency is "socialized" instead of production, and not liberty.

Doesn't Spengler discount the importance of the 1848-1849 revolutions? The 1871 unification, under the PreuBen Empire, was kike-controlled. I believe the 1848-1849 revolutions were a shill, intended to push GroBdeutschland into the control of the PreuBen Empire, such that all of Germany would fall into the control of the banking kikes.

You are an idiot, go crack some books.

Do you not notice just from listening, that the person presenting is not Gates? This video has been circulating since 2011 under the assumption that it showed an authentic CIA briefing. Since then, a number of outlets examined and debunked this claim. Metabunk, for instance, noted that the brain scans displayed around the 45-second mark of the video are presented as if they show a "religious brain" and a "non-religious brain" from "two different individuals." These scans, however, were actually taken from a 2010 study about a 43-year-old woman with a history of methamphetamine abuse. The filmmaker simply took the original scan, added some red and yellow coloring, and then claimed it showed the brain scan of a religious person.

Getting rid of the Untermenschen is only one part of the solution. More is required to become free of exploitation.

> Excluding Sozialnationalismus

If some guys want to get together and LARP at being NatSoc, fine. Just leave me alone. And if they come to my house to fuck with my family, I'll kill them. The American concept of freedom is heavily dominated by the desire to be left the fuck alone. So if your NatSoc LARPers are going to fuck with me, then we have a problem. Otherwise, pic related.

If a group of guys are not LARPing, but want to call themselves Nationalists and live in some sort of "social" group, and they're NOT a bunch of pathetic faggots, I might consider asking to join. Provided, of course, that they're not just a bunch of faggots like the biker club that tried to recruit me. The rules are simple: don't be a faggot, don't steal my shit, don't fucking lie to me, leave me alone when asked, and let me leave if I want. If you can manage to follow those rules, then you're not really a (((socialist))) and should find another term.

Yeah, this. The world will always have evil, but kikes and niggers bring MOAR evil. Kikes create evil because it's (((their))) belief - the kike philosophy is one that has rejected God, and which actively chooses to embrace evil. Niggers create evil because they're stupid and violent - they're animals who don't know any better and are unable to control themselves. After all, it was kikes who created RED DEATH, and it's mostly niggers who are spreading it around.

This is a somewhat decent point. I think that is why I want an ethnoglobe. It is the only way to solve all of these problems. I don't really give a shit if the subhumans are exterminated since they bring nothing of value to society, culture or history.

Interesting because the bug people believe it is niggers spreading it and they have the most tightly controlled surveillance state in the world.

WHAT IF THEY ARE CORRECT? What if it is a disease that niggers are actually spreading? Their AI's are very good at tracking everything. They would have tracked the source of the disease to niggers if it was unclean subhumans that were spreading it.

MAYBE this was why they wouldn't let them in their stores and shopping establishments and why they threw them out of their homes and apartments. We think it is just 'muh bug racism' but maybe they have a reason for acting this way.

Honestly I just want the freedom to decide by my own judgement if someone needs to be killed. It is not like I am going to run around as an untamed sociopath given the ability to make my own decisions for the good OF MY OWN PEOPLE. But I would definitely shoot and kill any tranny that thinks they should expose themselves to children. Pedophiles would die. Subhumans would die. Rapists would die. Gangsters would die. Most of the media would die. Most lawyers. All politicians. All homosexuals. Criminals (fucking keeping this trash in an institution) if they are not fit to be among the gen pop, shoot them in the head; and if they are fine to be among the gen pop leave them be. It is the idea that you need 'permission to kill the criminal' that allows criminals to flourish in a society. The state ends up protecting and fostering criminal activity since it is in their best interest to do so to grant themselves even more power to control the criminals (when what they all, criminal and politician working as a coordinated team parasite off you and really want is to control the cash cow). The politician has just as much vested interest in 'control' of the cash cow as the criminal. It is one, politician and criminal system working together against you for your detriment.

If I take the most horrific measure of murder, I want it to be me who bears the responsibility and the blame. I don't want someone else to coddle the criminals who I pay to house, shelter, feed and 'rehabilitate' so that they can get out and commit more crime.

War soon

Venezuela has 302,809 MILLION barrels of proven oil reserves.

Iran at the end of 2006 138,000 MILLION barrels of reserves.

WHY VENEZUELA NEED IRANIAN OIL ????

Hint .. this is not oil on these ships ... And ballistic tactical missiles or something else but definitely a weapon. So the USSR carried missiles to Cuba at one time.

An excursion into history.

By June 1962, the General Staff of the USSR Armed Forces developed a cover operation, code-named "Anadyr." Marshal of the Soviet Union I. Kh. Baghramyan planned and directed the operation

. According to the drafters of the plan, this was to mislead the Americans about the destination of the goods. All Soviet military personnel, technical personnel, and others accompanying the "cargo" were also told that they were sent to Chukotka. For greater reliability, whole wagons of fur coats and sheepskin coats came to the ports. But despite such a large-scale cover, the operation had one significant flaw: it was impossible to hide the missiles from the U-2 American reconnaissance planes regularly flying around Cuba. Thus, the plan was developed in advance taking into account the fact that the Americans will discover Soviet missiles before they are all mounted. The only way the military managed to find is to place several anti-aircraft batteries already in Cuba at unloading sites.

Missiles and other equipment, as well as personnel, were delivered to six different ports from Severomorsk to Sevastopol. For the transfer of troops allocated 85 ships. Not a single captain before sailing knew about the contents of the holds, as well as about the destination. Each captain was handed a sealed bag, which should have been opened at sea in the presence of a political officer. The envelopes were ordered to go to Cuba and avoid contact with NATO ships.

In early August, the first ships came to Cuba. The first batch of medium-range ballistic missiles was unloaded in Havana on the night of September 8, the second batch arrived on September 16. GSVK headquarters is located in Havana. Ballistic missile divisions deployed in the west of the island near the village of San Cristobal and in the center of Cuba at the port of Casilda. The main troops were concentrated around missiles in the western part of the island, but several cruise missiles and a motorized rifle regiment were deployed to the east of Cuba - a hundred kilometers from Guantanamo Bay and the U.S. Naval Base in Guantanamo Bay. By October 14, 1962, all 40 missiles and most of the equipment had been delivered to Cuba.

During the take-off at the end of August, the U-2 plane photographed a number of anti-aircraft missile positions under construction and on September 4, Kennedy announced to Congress that there were no "offensive" missiles in Cuba. In fact, Soviet specialists at that time were already building nine positions - six for the R-12 and three for the R-14 with a range of 4000 km. Until September 1962, U.S. airplanes flew around Cuba twice a month. From September 5 to October 14, flights were stopped. On the one hand, due to bad weather, on the other, Kennedy banned them for fear of escalating the conflict if an American plane was shot down by a Soviet anti-aircraft missile. The first flight took place on October 14 (it is worth noting that until September 5 the flights were carried out with the knowledge of the CIA, now such flights have come under the control of the US Air Force) - the U-2 reconnaissance aircraft of the 4080th strategic reconnaissance wing, piloted by Major Richard Hazer, took off at about 3 a.m. from Edwards Air Force Base in California. An hour after sunrise, Hazer reached Cuba. The flight to the Gulf of Mexico took him 5 hours. Heizer flew around Cuba from the west and crossed the coastline from the south at 7:31 a.m. The plane crossed the whole of Cuba almost exactly from south to north, flying over the cities of Taco Taco, San Cristobal, Bahia Honda. Heizer overcame these 52 kilometers in 12 minutes.

Landing at an air base in south Florida, Heiser handed the CIA film. On October 15, CIA analysts found that the photographs show Soviet medium-range ballistic missiles R-12 ("SS-4" according to NATO classification). On the evening of the same day, this information was brought to the attention of the top military leadership of the United States. On the morning of October 16, at 8:45, photographs were shown to the president. After that, by order of Kennedy, flights over Cuba became 90 times more frequent: from two times a month to six times a day.

ifpnews.com: According to a U.S. Navy official account, a P8-Poseidon patrol plane sent from Trident VP-26 air base was sent to the Caribbean for a possible collision with a group of Iranian supertankers traveling with fuel to Venezuela also four warships.

The news was repeated by the Iranian news agency Fars News, saying on Saturday that the US Navy deployed its USS Detroit (LCS-7), USS Lassen (DDG-82), USS Preble (DDG-88) and USS Farragut (DDG-99) in the Venezuelan area.

The Fars News report quotes Iranian military and political analysts, suggesting that any meeting with Iranian tankers will trigger a reaction that could jeopardize US President Donald Trump's campaign ahead of the November elections. Reports of Iranian fuel supplies to Venezuela in the face of US sanctions against two allies infuriated the United States, with one official threatening to take "measures" against "unwanted" development.

The Reuters news agency also announced on the eve that the Clavel tanker under the Iranian flag went to a South American country and it seems that four more tankers are accompanying it.

Vessel tracking data from Refinitiv Eikon analytical agency suggests that the Clavel tanker loaded fuel in the port of Bandar Abbas in Iran at the end of March, passed through the Suez Canal and entered the Atlantic on Wednesday. A senior presidential administration official told Reuters Thursday that the United States is considering measures against Iran in response to fuel supplies. An administration spokesman spoke on condition of anonymity, but he said that Washington has a "high degree of certainty" that the Venezuelan government is paying Iran gold for fuel. At the same time, Iran and Venezuela are under US sanctions.

> Maybe the chink government was intentionally leaking sensationalist videos.

It were mostly the HK / anti Chinese protesters who made the most sensationalist videos putting a lot of blame on the Chink gov (so they can overthrow it).

> Maybe personnel within the CDC and WHO are just incompetent asshats, with no ill-will.

That they're incompetent is a given. The no ill-will is not true, because their incompetence is a crafting tool for genuine ill will.

I still don't think it was intentionally engineered but a genuine fuck up. State actors had a lot of prep time (2-3 months) since the outbreak in China to measure their response and engineer events in response to the outbreak. Still I highly doubt a state would highly benefit from crashing its economy as badly as it did. Currently I feel like stock markets are still in a massive bubble, it was already in a bubble a year back but it didn't burst yet.

> But instead, (((they))) chose to keep on talking about the fucking ORANGE MAN BAD bullshit.

Ever since US elections all the mainstream media there did was parrot orange man bad points. 2016-2019ish you could turn CNN, MSNBC or w/e on and they would have a complete team of 40 'experts' to weigh in on the "conspiracies" Trump did with Russia. The jews peddled an unfounded conspiracy theory for 3 years to not just American normies, but it spread to European normies as well.

> policy is set by mindless yes-men, while the lower-echelons actually know what is going on for realz.

Usually the policy maker / minister itself is more responsible for who he listens to and what he signs rather than doing actual work on policy matters him / herself due to time constraints of one individual (and the large complexity of some policy areas). Often beneath and around these policy makers you have research institutes, experts, universities and so on as to guide the policy maker. You also of course have a large group of lobbyists giving shape to policies which often hold the most influence.

CAUSES OF DEATH OUR WORLD IN DATA FACT CHECK

56 million people died worldwide in the year ending 2017, from a total population of near 7.6 billion. This shows approximately 0.74% of the people living on the planet in 2017 died. From current presented data on COVID 19 deaths, the percentage of worldwide deaths at the end of 2020 is expected to be 0.75% from a total worldwide population of 7.8 billion. Does shutdown of peoples livelihoods justify collective worldwide government action?

DYING FROM OR WITH COVID 19 FACT CHECK

According to Australian Bureau of Statistics and their "Guidance for Certifying Deaths due to COVID 19" when referring to Section 1 Recording COVID 19 on the Death Certificate (where it)..."is ASSUMED to have caused, or contributed to death" . Yet their own information paper on cause of death certification in PDF format, CLEARLY contradicts this. (Refer to page 9 Problems with certification).

I agree, just speaking from a curefag's perspective. If the goal is to stop her they'd need to be more strict. I'm not sure it would work after seeing how quickly China flared back up, but their brutality seems to have gotten much quicker results. Hard to say though. I'm open to that possibility >the US has been shut-down long enough that anyone with the disease has probably already ridden it out.

I have to disagree there, we're still seeing plenty of fresh transmissions, and it only takes one asymptomatic or simply unconfined case to start the whole party over again.

>A non-vaccine treatment is a complete game changer, provided (((they))) allow us to access it.

That's the question there. Assuming the skeeter pills work, pharmakikes would rather push something they can make more money on. As an unironic plague cultist I can only watch and hope they eat each other alive while she goes largely unchecked.

Survey: One In Five English People Think Coronavirus Is A Jewish Conspiracy

<https://archive.vn/TDRmM>

>A new survey done by a group of researchers at the University of Oxford found that one in five English people think coronavirus was constructed by Jews to topple the economy for financial benefits.

>The study surveyed 2,500 adults that were "representative of the English population according to age, gender, region and income, on their attitudes toward the government narrative on coronavirus and related conspiracy theories between May 4 and May 11," according to the Jerusalem Post.

>When asked to respond to the statement "Jews have created the virus to collapse the economy for financial gain," 5.3% of respondents "agreed a little," 6.8% "agreed moderately," 4.6% "agreed a lot," and 2.4% "agreed completely," while 80.8% did not agree at all.

>"It looks like a fracture in society is exposed, just as we need a collective response to combat the virus. The coronavirus conspiracy theories appear to have built on long-standing prejudices and distorted ideas. Mistrust appears to have gone mainstream."

> Being left alone doesn't really work out
Perhaps, but all the issues you mentioned are a result of Americans "consenting" to harassment. But you have a point - being "left alone" is not a proactive strategy. Perhaps we should revise our desire: "Leave us the fuck alone, or we will kill you and everyone who has ever associated with you." Probably some issues there too.
> Problems won't go away because you want them to Yeah, you're right about that. But that doesn't change the fount of freedom - people really do just want to be left alone.

> What if it really is niggers spreading it around?
Probably, not not exclusively.
> 'Muh racism is why the chinks are mistreating the niggers
There is such a thing as rational racism - the chinks are excluding/mistreating the niggers for valid reasons. After all, they're niggers.
>>109868
> The kikes, niggers, faggots, and assorted degenerates are a very small percentage of the population; why not just get rid of them?
That's easier said than done. The best way would be through indirect means - death squads won't work. The easiest first-step would be to revise the tax and welfare systems - no more gibs for niggers, no more funding for degenerate art/media/education, and big tax breaks for respectable families.
>>110141
> Most of the "leaked" videos from China were created by anti-CCP people
Yes, that's what appears to be the case. They could be shilling, or they could be useful idiots. And much of the "leaked" videos were of CCP forces responding to the virus, so it was inevitable that the "anti-CCP" people would document and disseminate the happening. They got played, and so did we.
> It's a given that CDC and WHO personnel are incompetent assclowns, which is wielded by (((people))) who possess ill-will.
Yes, this makes sense, and is what I was trying to convey.
> Not engineered, just a fuckup
Some people from within the event likely believe that it was just a mistake, but there are too many coincidences for it to just be a mistake:
Event 201
ID2020
Fakery against HCQ
Funding from (((Soros)))
Involvement of (((other scientists)))
Transient shilling from the (((MSM))) - don't be racist, don't wear a mask, masks don't work, you need a mast, flatten the curve, wait for a vaccine, etc. While it's possible that somebody made a mistake, the overall event was planned and staged.
> The (((MSM))) has been non-stop ORANGE MAN BAD for years
Yes, and it's been a failing tactic. (((Their))) ratings are in the toilet, Trump's(((?))) approval ratings remain high, the (((collusion narrative))) is now imploding, and it's starting to look like people from within the (((Obama administration))) could face criminal charges. There is something rotten in the state of Denmark, fren.
>>110557
> Don't care if somebody else wants the vaccine, but (((they))) had better leave the rest of us alone.
Forcing me and my family to accept a (((vaccine))) is one of the few things that would prompt me to let slip the dogs of war. If (((they))) come for my kids, there is going to be at least one more widow at the end of the day. But it's starting to look like this won't happen, thank God.

CDC Going Door to Door Conducting Questionnaires, Virus Antibody Testing In Georgia
MY COMMENT: Always remember you have the right not to answer the door or talk to anyone. Don't ever think you need to answer the door just because some 'officials' want to ask questions, they'll likely leave if you don't respond in any manner. To make arrests they still need a legal complain and court approval to do so. Just talking to them can give them enough info to recieve such an order if they use it against you, so don't say a word or answer the doorbell.

its a total hoax. there is no killer virus. the kikes are contracting the money supply to bankrupt businesses and indies like they have done suddenly for millenia. they always cover it with a BS media story. Any softening towards ' well i don't think its entirely false... ' is just being a retard trying to look diplomatic by being on the fence, or over your years of /pol/ education u never took your medical red pills or your money manipulation red pills.

watch the whole of Bill Still's the Money Masters

For medical redpills, i would have referred u to whale.to which was an excellent site for exposing kikery in medcine for at least the last 12 years. in the last few months the kikes have shut it down though and the owner johnis said to have become unwell maybe (((they've))) poisoned him. Well there was that and the whole retarded appeal of the mother to how much he Typhoid Mary daughter loved helping the elderly and those with co-morbidities out the ying yang at work. So here I am imagining this at first asymptomatic nigger coughing all over tons of elderly niggers while working until she was too sick to work any longer all to grub a shekel. Can you imagine how many of her own people this bitch murdered? Coof coof...but we are all 'upset' when a White man kills a nigger while this bitch might have take out 1,000 of her own people and that number count still hasn't stopped because no doubt those niggers are infecting other niggers with her germs to this day. She loved people so much she coofed them to death.

It is really cringe though. Well, we don't exactly have a shortage of niggers at this point so hopefully COVID can help us with this.

Yeah, I was a hopeful corona-geddon nigger at first. But then I smelled a (((rat))) >not a hoax

Leaving that hoax word aside a moment, look how excitedly the (((media))) and every (((government))) on earth embraced the Exact Same Lockdown reply. Does that seem weird to anybody else?

This #Plandemic appears well thought out as a method to reach (((their))) goals:

- 1) take away rights to assemble, travel, own guns, say no to vaccines
- 2) crush small businesses
- 3) instill sadness, depression, substance abuse, and general unhappiness into the masses
- 4) reduce the population through a combination of depression-attrition and toxic vaccines
- 5) destroy the (((currency))) by printing 10x and giving 9x to themselves.

Is there any information out there explaining why it is nearly harmless to germanics yet so deadly to chinks, italians and anglos?

Especially in switzerland the german speaking areas have suffered far less casualties than the non german speaking ones.

Germany also has only about 8500 deaths despite having near 90 million people living there and having a terrible testing system for most of the pandemic.

> The word "hoax" does not really apply, owing to the reality of the virus, but the (((government response))) is fraudulent and only seems to serve (((their))) purposes

Yes, this is why I've come-around into believing that the release of RED DEATH was planned, and everything since then has been fakery. The virus is probably real, and was made in a lab, but the preliminary information from China was faked. It's not really as virulent or deadly as initially presented, the initial lackluster (((MSM))) reporting was designed to reinforce the idea that the outbreak was "real" because if it was fake, they wouldn't stop reporting on it; but since they ignored/concealed the initial happening, that led credence to the idea that it was real and (((they))) were scrambling to coverup, and the initial response from (((government))) was to allow the virus to spread by keeping borders open, by forcing nursing homes into accepting the infected, by lying about transmissibility, by lying about the origin, by lying about everything. But now we have better observations, and the spread seems to be controllable within Western nations. Still, the (((government))) is pushing bullshit policies that DO NOT WORK to stop the spread - the kike-owned liquor/weed/mega stores remain packed with people, but goyim-owned businesses are forced to close.

tl;dr - When the virus was new, and we had no data, (((government policy))) was designed to spread the virus. But not that we have information, and are able to control/treat the virus, (((government policy))) is designed to destroy the goyim. It's all a kike plan.

> Data on demographic vulnerability to the virus

No, there is no good data. Because it's (((racist))) to think that genetically-different population groups may be genetically-different. But my gut feeling is that the different rates of infection among different population groups can be attributed to behavioral differences. Niggers don't bathe or practice any other form of hygiene or cleanliness, chinks eat garbage and live like bugs in a hive, the poos live in hives too but also wallow in one another's shit, while sandniggers spend their days fucking goats and licking one another's assholes. They are non-human primates, and this outcome should have been predictable.

the fact that the west is cucked and likely won't do anything. The only probably thing that will happen is CCP invasion of Taiwan after HK is annexed. You might see a fight between CCP and India over Kashmir but it'll probably end in a stalemate like it did last time.

The exception to the rule is if Australia does something against China in South China Sea, then USA v China is likely. USA won't start it, it wants Australia to and Australia's government is cucked by China so its not gonna happen. By the time they do anything it'll already be too late anyway.

I can see the CCP though releasing further Pathogens after Coronachan goes dormant for a while.

It is predictable and I am very grateful for the bugs release of the pathogen at this point. I feel like it is going to 'do all the dirty work' of eliminating the subhumans for us (and many of our own people, as well, who are less evolved than is necessary to a highly advanced highly intellectual society of the future). Understanding basic science, medicine and hygiene should be a BASIC prerequisite for entry into the new age and nigger/subhumans don't have it.

>Bug wars will spread like wildfire.

This. The chink government has already sown the seeds of distrust within chink communities with the idea that non-chinks hate all the chinks and that the only way the chinks will get through this is by sticking together (with the CCP being the benevolent glue binding the chinks together). This makes them more easily manipulated by the CCP.

"So what?" one may ask. The problem with this is that the CCP will get their operatives to do shit and get caught. Increasing the resentment of chinks by nonchinks. Thus creating a self fulfilling prophecy that would drive more chinks to believe that non-chinks hate all chinks.

Now consider the size of chink population in non-chink countries. All of them working against their host nation at the behest of the CCP. That is the situation most countries are currently in.

You're extrapolating out. The reality is that China has a "home base" that works in its unified interests with zero compromise at all. It is for Chinese, by Chinese. The reason why they are being worked up as some kind of target is because multiculturalism is a COLOSSAL FAILURE with NO FUTURE. Their system is anti-fragile. Their system has won and it isn't close. Diversity is NOT a strength and the people going after China instinctively know this.

You are ignoring the fact that many chinks do not like the CCP and leave china because of it to get a better life that they could not get under the CCP regime. Other chinks have lived many generations outside of china and hold onto their chinese heritage only as one of cultural identity and not as a political identity. It is those chinks that the CCP will have to manipulate mentally and emotionally in order to get them to act against their host nation.

>China has a "home base"

The CCP wants to be that home base. It is not there yet.

>The reason why they are being worked up as some kind of target is because Multiculturalism is a COLOSSAL FAILURE with NO FUTURE.

Multiculturalism fails because the people who move in from other cultures rarely assimilate to the host nation. Jews know this (they are the worst offenders) and use multiculturalism as a means of weakening the host nation by fueling tension between ethnic groups. Also, are you sure that distrust doesn't have anything to do with the way some chinks behave (spitting on fruit and chairs, that kind of shit)?

Their system is fragile. A robust system would not have to shut people's internet off for wrong think.

Their system is collapsing under a second wave of infection and denial of the the threat /ourgirl/ poses.

The only people leaving China for a "better life" are people who are already wealthy and going to destination cities in the US to work with their free Chinese education or rich kids who weren't smart enough to hack it at a Chinese university so they go live it up at places like Pace or UCLA. Coronavirus: Monkeys 'escape with COVID-19 samples' after attacking lab assistant

<https://archive.vn/rf7hH>

>The bizarre incident saw the troop of primates launch their assault near Meerut Medical College in Delhi, India.

>According to local media, the animals then snatched COVID-19 blood test samples that had been taken from three patients and fled.

>One of the monkeys was later spotted in a tree chewing one of the sample collection kits, the Times of India reported - adding that test samples from the patients had to be taken again.

>It is the latest example of the highly intelligent, red-faced rhesus macaques taking advantage of India's nationwide lockdown to combat the spread of coronavirus.

>While they have proved an increasing problem in urban areas of the country in recent years, lockdown measures in the last two months are believed to have emboldened the monkeys.

>Reports have shown them congregating in parts of Delhi normally crowded with humans.

>The animals have adapted to live in close contact with people, and it is believed some groups have struggled in the absence of human food they had come to rely on.

>People have been advised not to feed the monkeys while the pandemic continues, with experts suggesting doing so could cause the virus to mutate and infect primates.

>A senior biologist from the Tamil Nadu Forest Department previously warned that if this did happen, the mutated virus could have a devastating impact on primate species and other wildlife which prey on them.

>Reports have previously emerged of the primates causing chaos in Delhi, snatching food and mobile telephones, breaking into homes and terrorizing people in and around the Indian capital.

>They have colonized areas around the city's parliament and the sites of key ministries, from the prime minister's office to the finance and defense ministries, scaring both civil servants and the public.

Great work, Pajeet. Sounds like they'd make one hell of a vector. Ganbatte, Corona-chan!

If the mobs go outside city limits, average armed citizens will start dealing with them, and unlike the police and military, we are not inhibited by the PC thought police, we'll use live rounds and kill as many as we need to defend ourselves, families and towns.

I tested positive and my immune system is damaged from exposure to hazardous material I have to dump for work. Not insured. I likely can't afford any meds. Should I inject disinfectant in myself like Trump suggested a while back? I don't really have access to needles though I heard injected may mean through an enema rather than a needle into a vein? What kind should I use? Bleach? Hydrogen peroxide? Lysol? Or should I just buttchug everclear? I hope I get through this.

NO. Just take large amounts of Vitamins C & D, zinc supplement and an anti-viral like Chaga mushroom powder or Chaga tea. Boost your immune system, keep hydrated and have fever reducers and expectorants ready encase an emergency (if absolutely needed). Don't let fevers get over 104F or you risk brain damage.

>I am not sure if it would be good or bad to increase my immune system because isn't that what causes some of the damage in people's lungs is their immune system responding to the virus?

Boosting your immune system never harms you, only makes it more effective for you to fight off viruses and sickness. There are other ways to boost the immune system too, like drinking herbal tea with ginger root, taking curcumin supplements and eating balanced nutritious foods (avoid too much sugar, sodas, junk/fast/snack foods for example). Eat meat without nitrites and without hormones. Eat organic vegetables. Avoid smoking and drinking (too much). Avoid drug use. Your immune system is really your only natural defense. Defend it.

out of 37k deaths only 1k were people w/o average age of 80 with pre-existing pathologies

basically it's nothing if you aren't 80yr old with pathologies

Just do your daily shower and if you're poz'd unless you're 80 worry not it was all a ruse, (((media panic))) and not much else

I just got surrounded by 30 niggers in a public park. The park is closed to gatherings but not to groups of 6 or less. This is why they are dying at a rate 7 times the general population. They refuse to social distance. Since niggers make up 14 percent of the US population we can allow all of them to die with a loss of the white population of only 2 percent. Only the weakest whites will die. The life savings will quickly rebound since the number of murders and automobile crashes will be cut in half. There will also be a 10 percent reduction in taxes as the parasites are removed from society. I am willing to accept this risk and will gladly give my life to reduce the nigger population.

I agree with everything and glad you were able to condense it in your post, especially this:

>As for Iran, I think they may have been hit deliberately with a deadlier strain by the CIA and/or Mossad because that's what they do to their foes, right? it was kind of suspicious that Iran, of all countries, would somehow fall for the coronavirus, right?

Iran, the anti sionist country, would have declared the virus fake and gay and would be the first country to deny the virus or at least its supposed end times effect (instead of that role assigned to Sweden). They would be fine.

Iran hardly take immigrants after all. There's no reason they would be hit hard. Most likely scenario: it was deliberately released there, or maybe even a deadlier strain, and Iran wouldn't reasonably have another option than condemning the virus as real.

I even created a thread with plenty of data and sources. against this hoax.

Guess what? mods locked the thread.

When free speech about any issue is locked to only one narrative (muh we are all going to die), this shit happens.

For each "happening" i suggest you inform on all possible angles.

If not enough data, wait and see, but never panic, always cautious.

How i knew so soon (a month and half ago)?

Literally 100% of the mass media were shilling the virus.

When was the media on my side on any single issue?

Literally 100% of corrupt politicians which comprises the presidency and 90% of congress (argentina) were on board with the chink flu narrative.

When were they on my side?

That fired all alarms on my head. It was too obvious.

It's pretty simple really. Early on the media, already fully infected by the globalist thought virus, defaulted to accusing anyone even mildly concerned by corona of being a racist. Once it got here, and Trump started referring to it all as a dem hoax, their orange-man-bad programming kicked in. Ever since they've been trying to leverage the virus against him, but if he came out tomorrow and called Corona-chan the single greatest threat to humanity the world has ever know, they would change their narrative overnight and become nothingburgers.

Truth is, this is the biggest and last burger you'll ever consume. It's the end of days, and Coronavirus was only the first course. The much anticipated red horse just got here the other day. Just turn on your local news and you'll see a riot going down somewhere not too far away. These niggers arent going to stop either. This is going to keep spiraling out of control. Even Euros and Nips are getting riled about it, and I expect many more to follow suit. Right up until the Chinese put boots on the ground. You can bet your ass they've got an eye on this, and they're liking what they see. And the Dominoes just keep falling. inb4

So here's how the diagnostic tests are working anon. They are testing the cellular membrane, which has these specific receptors on it that the test detects. They aren't getting inside the son-of-a-bitch, the real heavy lifting is being done by an entirely separate piece of genetics. The cellular membrane of C19 is highly weaponized coronavirus-like and that is what is being measured, the actual mechanics of the organism lie within said structure. You're just trying to understand the shell, presuming it's a virus when again this is not the case, then attempting to elucidate pathogenic function this way. The model using these techniques have proven to not merely be inadequate but failed to predict such startling revelations as the ability for C19 to replicate in corpses and fecal matter. This is why the "waves" of this pathogen are going to increase in virulence and mortality, not attenuate; whereas a virus is essentially just parasitical protein encapsulated code that has to bump into the right thing to infect and replicate: a mycoplasma feeds on sterols and possesses motility. They can move and feed. This is part of the reason why they hang around in the body for SO long. As >>109178 points out, not just directly! Further, what do you use to treat a mycoplasma infection... what is the first line of defense? Quinolones. = Which is precisely what 'Hydroxy-chloro-QUINE is. Aging and disease.

A dictators wet dream.

Ho-hummm, this retarded asshole was a fucking LAYUP for the goddamn chinks. He never stood a chance. That is the face of a man that will believe anything you tell him, if you're the right person. No confidence, desire to please and a utopian egg head as the added cherry on top; synthesize with profound intellectual narcissism and wham-bam. Easiest mark ever, you don't even need to flip these morons, you just ask for help. Charles Lieber is quite possibly the most valued, cultivated and protected foreign scientific asset in the entire PLA. Looking at this mans known associates... he isn't Jewish anymore... he's fucking Chinese. No intellect of this sophistication, nobody with this much fucking room in the attic couldn't figure out what's up, or at least smell something; then again... eggheads gonna egg. This dude knows absolutely everything, I hope the ABCMIB are giving him a crash course in experiential pharmacology because if they haven't yet the ball has been dropped, intentionally. If Lieber doesn't know it, he can guess it and that's good enough so long as his guesses aren't deceptive in and of themselves. So, basically, this happy lil retard gave the chinks the tech to, in theory, if it was mastered, own the entire Nano-Industrial Revolution. Only somebody from fucking Massachusetts who's spent every waking hour either on a college campus, or in a fucking book or at a chalkboard could think this was a bright idea; sadly there are oodles of these cunts in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. No wonder Harvard became so buddy buddy with chinkroaches over the past 20 years, the PLA has funded the entire institution (among others) to protect and advance their key scientific asset(s). We must assume that all of the research at these institutions is utterly compromised, which is fine, much of it was trash anyway. So, I guess we live the in fucking comic book timeline? Where Dr. Fu Manchu is actually fucking real and actually has attempted to create cyborg-commie-chink-plague spreaders, actual mind-control nanobots and fuck knows what else to take over the West... but a lab accident occurs and all those machinations are now loosed upon us. What the fuck bros. I'm totally thrilled this has popped out of the bag, really: the entire Cosmos is laughing at Chinkroaches, by the way. They almost won simply by right of total conquest, but they're so goddamn thieving and niggardly they fucked themselves (and possibly the planet).

An excerpt:

The Lieber group has a large program focused on a conceptually novel approach for integrating electronics within the brain and other areas of the nervous system, which involves the development of neural network-like mesh electronics and a noninvasive delivery method into targeted distinct brain regions via syringe-injection. We are actively exploiting this new paradigm for tackling fundamental questions in cognitive and behavioral neuroscience, and as powerful new approaches for treatment of neurological and neurodegenerative diseases, traumatic brain and spinal cord injury, and ultimately enhancing human performance via brain-machine interface.

If you are skinny-fat, time to get your testosterone checked. If you have low-t, that's highly correlated with diabetes.

<Go easy on the EtOH

Dry as a bone for years- and glad I have been- need a sharp mind, healthy body and strong spirit for these fascinating times. By the way, the Quinine extracts are still available out there, if you don't want to go with a premade tonic much cheaper that way. I'm using a seltzer bottle and damn the "virgin tonic" is delicious without the Gin, almost has grapefruit overtones. The juniper overpowers the good flavor of the quinine glad I stumbled onto this- may even make it for parties.

Thanks for the heads up about the zinc, will be following the recommended dosage exactly. The extract I'm using is plant based but either way solid advice from you. Thanks.

It's not all HIV, most of it is SARS. So getting into the air is not a problem. The four HIV inserts allow it to more easily enter human cells. Something to do with the protein shell around the virus.

> The bullshit "Bill Gates" presentation

That's fake, fren.

Well, this roleplay has been fun, but I think the habbening is just about over now. The kikes have moved on to a new skill - Chimpout2020. There's not going to be an extinction-level event, the military is not going to be deployed to force vaccinate people, the economy is going to stagger back to its regular shamblings, and the normies can get back to their various forms of degeneracy. It was nice playing with ya'll, and I'm glad that none of our make-believe is going to spill-over into the real world.

Ironically, the "lockdown" barely impacted my lifestyle - squirreled away in my office, eating cheap food, lurking well, trolling on full-chan, with no social contact for months on end. It's like being back in highschool.

Just a FYI from Italy

Italians know it's all fake

1k deaths over 30k declared were asymptomatic

1k deaths over 30k declared were below 80yo

Influenza makes 650k deaths/yr, corona 300k

Coronachan makes half that much

Lockdown was for nothing

It was all media panic

Everybody knows atm

Corona only kills old people, who are owed state pensions

People who can work and pay taxes don't die

I'm Italian I had corona it lasted 10 days no hospital just aspirine

In America the info wlll probably come out later

But it's literally nothing

I'm in the deepest hole of the infection in Italy I had the virus it's nothing

Fever and cough for a week omg we're all gonna die ffs the Spanish illness killed half million people

Corona is nothing but a way to take control and impose rules

By Caitlyn Stroh-Page Posted at 7:35 PM

>Athens-Clarke County District 2 Commissioner Mariah Parker tested positive for the novel coronavirus, according to a post on her personal Facebook page.

>Parker posted: "I just tested positive for coronavirus. More in comments."

>Parker, an organizer of Sunday's protest in downtown Athens, also commented that she is "asymptomatic but infectious. If you spoke on Sunday or were near [Parker] in the crowd, please get tested."

>Parker was seen wearing a cloth mask at the demonstration.

>She asked her Facebook followers to comment coronavirus testing resources, and Parker noted that, due to her decision to self-quarantine, she will not be present at a protest planned for Saturday in Athens.

I have been saying, for so many breads, that niggers don't give a shit, a large number of them must have coronachan. The chinese aren't wrong about niggers.

They are the spreaders.

Now anyone at these protests probably has it. Niggers and shitlibs. All in the cities. Could 2020 get any better?

So nigger floyd had covid, probably had all kinds of shit in his lungs (I can't breathe), and died when a normal person wouldn't have. Sounds ilke at most manslaughter, but I'm not even sure about that, manslaughter usually requires recklessness. The riots will be great when the cops get off. Stock up now anons. Going to get fun in 2021.

Now they need to make some tweets lying about testing positive so the goyim don't begin suspecting something. Gotta push for those (((vaccines))) once those protests are over.

Sorry, I don't buy into the jew trope of blacks as super-sex-beings. I also just don't understand the latest "sexual transmission" narrative. If you are fucking, there's plenty of better available vectors (breathing, kissing, etc) than your dick. It's like that fucking retard BBC article about how people should wear masks when fucking. Kek, really? You aren't allowed to leave your home, and you are supposed to fuck your wife with a bag over your head.

I think they were. Ever notice that the more vocal antifa people are chinese american women? kinda weird huh? Also a lot of jews too.
These riots are a great way for them to get rich. First you create more food and product deserts by destroying the local city business. This makes amazon rich, and they will get super rich once ape crates become a thing and snap is replaced by a direct government food distribution. They already started giving discounts to people on food stamps for amazon prime. Rather weird that started before all this.
That is just the long term gains from the riots. Now imagine what happens if this spreads through the ghettos. HYPER GENTRIFICATION. All those shit areas get cleared out and Jews and Chinese investors can buy the real estate dirt cheap and develop it.

>Explanation: Humanity is under attack. The attack is not from large tentacle-flailing aliens, but from invaders so small they can barely be seen, and so strange they are not even clearly alive. All over planet Earth, the human home world, DNA-based humans are being invaded by the RNA-based SARS-CoV2. The virus, which creates a disease known as COVID-19, specializes in reprogramming human cells into zombies that manufacture and release copies of itself. Pictured here is a high magnification image of a human cell covered by attacking novel coronavirus SARS-CoV2 (orange).

Brain involvement in COVID-19; Seroprevalence of SARS-CoV-2 in China; Polio cases in 4 nations

>For the three patients over 65, the cause of death was determined to be cardiorespiratory failure. The three patients younger than 65 died of either f massive intracranial hemorrhage or pulmonary embolism, consistent with COVID-19-associated coagulopathy, the authors said.

>Both groups showed lymphocytic pan-encephalitis and meningitis. "A pronounced [central nervous system] involvement with pan-encephalitis, meningitis, and brainstem neuronal cell damage were key events in all our cases," the authors said.

Fascinating. I can't help but picture all the domestic terrorists (looters) with their brain rotting out of their bodies while they pillage. This explains a lot.

That is a pretty steep climb at the end there anon. Do people just 'never recover' from this? The recovery number are not coming close to the infection numbers. 37.7% recovered? 5.6% dead that is 43.3 Resolved cases...so just under 60% are not resolved? For how long?

The jew requires slavery because the jew is incapable. They are aware of it too. The jew despises the west mocks them by existing. There are not elaborate palaces in kikeland, not wonders of the world, no amazing pieces of art. They were "slaves" in egypt yet picked up no useful skills. To further mock them and prove that they are a people that cursed themselves, christian nations achieved so much more than they ever did.

They are an evil people, that destroy everything out of spite. Why do you think they want riots during a pandemic? The pandemic was not moving fast enough, and they want an excuse to scream "we told you so!!! we have your best interests at heart!!!!" all while stoking a race war.

That sorta makes sense. If you look at the spikes of confirmed cases, then the spikes of recovered cases, it is about 20 days apart, meaning it takes 20 days to recover once you realize you have it and get tested. That's the magic here: it knocks people out of society for 20 days. What happens when all the doctors get it? or utility workers during hurricane season?

A lot of people just don't get tested to see whether they've recovered.

Depending on the jurisdiction, they might not consider it to be the best use of their resources, or people might not want to be re-tested.

IIRC Germany considers every "recovered" if they've gone for a certain period of time without dying.

Ironically, the kikes are the closest ones to them, so they will be the first to go in a race war. Though i suspect that they stoked the riots during a pandemic for maximum profit. Profit from gentrification as the virus clears out the cities, profit from creating new police departments after cuckcities get rid of theirs and suffer crime waves, and profits from long term medical treatment of the severely sick.

It's gut-check time for corona-chan. If swathes of rioters start falling ill and clogging hospitals assuming they weren't looted, we'll know the ride is starting to properly leave the station. If there's not a surge in cases that correlates to riot locations, then she ended up being a meme after all. But that data suggesting she was in China well in advance of November gives me reason to think she's the real deal.

>Ohio lawmaker wonders if 'colored' people get COVID-19 from not washing their hands as much

Haha...ok it is funny, but the reason that they are all asymptomatic (but still diseased) is because they have fewer ACEII receptors. So they can catch it and spread it for a really really long time before they fall over dead.

It will be interesting. It did seem like most of them were wearing masks, and they were outside, which are cons for spread. But, no social distancing, and lots of yelling, which are pros. Incubation period 1 - 2 weeks so yea this is about the day protest-related spread should start hitting the books.

Which makes the fact that Floyd tested positive on April 3rd even funnier.

Maybe he should have been counted as a COVID death.

It must be absolutely rampant in the nignog community. If that anon was right about the spread date and the fact that you simply drop dead 6 months after you catch it, nignogville is going to be a total ghost town in a few months.

I think Floyd would have had to have had it for a few more months to keel over dead from it and be counted as a COVID death. On the other hand...perhaps his heart attack was the product of ACEII destruction rather than the fentanyl and methamphetamines. You may be right...

>It must be absolutely rampant in the nignog community

Don't know if it's to the point where most blacks have caught it but blacks are diagnosed disproportionately more than whites. That's a fact. As Ohio Sen.
Huffman found out >>122964 wondering about why that's a fact is racist (unless you conclude whitey is at fault of course)

>On the other hand...perhaps his heart attack was the product of ACEII destruction rather than the fentanyl and methamphetamines.

All those stresses combined (including the cop altercation) played a role in causing his heart to say "fuck it". So what really "caused" his death?

Attribution to a single cause is tough (and not always productive).

That jogger dying is rather timely. Was it kikes wanting to spread covid? Was it kikes planning election year riots? Weird how they had that one jogger getting killed in georgia, and when that did not work they upped it by having a jogger killed by the police. I am curious to see how this will all play out.

Anon, going outside is fine. Corona-chan is a pneumonic virus that spreads through sustained proximity with other people doing normal things (talking, coughing, laughing, sneezing, whatever). Going out for a walk is fine. Going grocery shopping, so long as you wear a mask, is fine. Hell, even the protests are probably fine since they've been going on for a week and change and the only corona-related hospital spikes are from people crossing the southern border. Relax. Go out, walk around, buy something you enjoy.

From the top of my head, this is what I've been doing to stay sane.
First, devise a daily routine and keep it, don't over do it too much tho, so sprinkle some schedule-free days in it.
Eat well, varied and nutritious as possible, don't over-eat.
Don't watch porn, it fucks your dopamine.
Do exercise indoors, it will lower your cortisol levels (stress hormone) and increase endorphin levels (happy hormones), I mostly do HIIT, does cardio while it helps keeping muscle too, not as much as other exercise routines for developing muscle but HIIT it's usually just a few minutes. Don't exercise everyday, but don't be a slacker either or you'll lose gains.
When taking a shower, start with super hot water then finish it with the coldest you can, it will improve your cardio health and overall cell regeneration, it will help you to sleep well. Best time for a shower is 1.5 hours before sleep, according to some studies.
Sleep well, but don't oversleep, my sweet spot is 7 hours, this varies for each person. Oversleeping is almost as bad as not having good sleep.
Don't pull an all-nighter or eat at irregular times, it will fuck your daily biorythm, will increase your appetite unnecessarily.
Get face time with friends and family, it will reward you emotionally and socially. But avoid other social media as much as you can, this includes comment sections and shitposting at imageboards like this one(kek). As an analogy, face time is closer to a full wholesome meal and social media is akin to junk food for your social and emotional needs.
Keep you busy with chores and studying interesting and rewarding stuff, could be anything you like, but it's better if it's somehow slightly challenging, (i.e. I'm learning another language and studying history and philosophy as always, next I'll learn how to play a musical instrument), track your progress and gamify it if you need to, like with some phone app.
When doing chores or study, try time intervals like the pomodoro technique, (25 mins of task/activity and 5 mins of resting and relaxation)
Meditate and/or pray, do it a couple of times through the day, if you're doing it fully focused then between 10 and 20 mins it's enough for a session, it will keep your mind clear and will give you meaning.
Don't forget to reward you for your routine/schedule, like watching an episode of a series you like, or watching a movie. Don't do binge-watching or you'll fuck up your dopamine reward system, you'll feel depressed and purposeless, video is specially bad since it's mostly a passive activity, night-time screen use can also give you insomnia so avoid it if possible.
Overall don't be too strict to yourself or you'll suffer from the so called ego-depletion and it will make you drop it all in the pursue of slack and hedonism. Same with video games, they are good for amusement, but over-doing them it's counterproductive.
As with anything, the dose makes the poison said paracelsus, i.e. a beer or two is fine every other day of a week, same with other habits you may have.
After 2-4 weeks of constantly doing a thing, it becomes an habit, probably for life if you don't slack.
PD Intermitent fasting improves your metabolism and it's good for mood, also makes your mind sharper because of ketosis. (You'll need to read a guide about this, intermitent fasting is not as safe as /fit/ says, but you'll be safe if you keep yourself hydrated and good in electrolytes (salts). My sweet spot is 2 days, and I do it once each month, I tried fasting over 5 days but gave me a huge-ass headache from the stress of it.)

That's it, hope there's other good ideas from you guys.

==Coronavirus is Now a Deity in Many Indian Villages, Being Worshipped with Flowers and Sweets=
<https://archive.vn/ECBdb>

>Coronavirus, which is believed to have originated in China's Wuhan and has thrown the entire world out of gear, is now a goddess in India. 'Corona Mai' is being worshiped in parts of Uttar Pradesh, Bihar, Jharkhand and Assam.
>The 'goddess' is being pleaded to spare lives.
>In Uttar Pradesh, women in some villages in Tumkahiraj, Kasia, Hata, Captanganj and Khadda tehsil in Kushinagar district have started worshipping 'Corona Mai'.
>These women have dug a small pit in the field, filled it with water and each one offers nine cloves and nine 'laddoos' to 'Corona Mai' to appease her. Women from adjoining villages are now flocking to the 'temple' to pray to 'Corona Mai', IANS reported.
>Similarly in Ranchi, women on Friday gathered in large numbers at Namkom and Tatisilve in Ranchi, Bagbera ground in Jamshedpur and at two places in Dhanbad and worshipped goddess coronavirus. The women gathered along along with puja materials like sindoor, flowers, ladoos, water in pots. They sat around a tree and worshipped the coronavirus goddess.
>They also sang a song to appease the coronavirus goddess. However, while praying, the women forgot about social distancing.
>"We have taken shelter under goddess coronavirus. She will be pacified with worship. The doctors have failed to treat patients and scientists have also failed to develop a vaccine to cure coronavirus. We have worshipped coronavirus goddess so that our family members will remain safe from it" said Naina Devi, a resident of Namkom who was part of the group.
>Echoing her view Kabita Mahto said "the country has witnessed two natural calamities in West Bengal and Maharashtra in the form of cyclones due to goddess coronavirus. Nothing has been done to pacify the goddess. She is taking a big shape. We have worshipped to calm down goddess coronavirus' anger."
>Taking cue from other states, some women in Assam have also started worshipping the deadly novel coronavirus as a "goddess" in a bid to to get rid of the devastating disease.

This is just a sample, the article goes on and on listing various places where pajeets are worshipping Corona-chan and begging her forgiveness. Detailing specific practices and offerings, and adding in statements from worshippers here and there. Good shit.

I know a lot of you guys will think this is hilarious turdworld autism, but I believe this is a most wise course of action. Those who worship Corona-chan will be spared her wrath. As far as ending the pandemic, it's a fool's errand. That doesn't mean it's fruitless on an individual level though.

This isn't really a first for India either, I expected this would happen at some point. They also worshipped Smallpox-chan as Shitala Mata or Shitala Devi. Many cultures around the world believe, or at one point believed, that illnesses were caused by spirits associated with them. Not all of them respond with worship, like the Romans, who would take offerings to Malaria-sama as Febris the Goddess of fevers and malaria. Some like the Egyptians believed illness came from demons, and rituals were preformed to ward them off. Many sub-Saharan tribes have similar practices to this day.

One of my favorite happenings of the '14 ebola outbreak was the tale of a witch doctress named Menindor, who talked a big game about how she would smite the ebola demon and drive the illness out of Africa. Ebby killed her. :^) It's gets even better though, this woman was so famous that 360+ people were infected as a result of her massive funeral. One of them being her niece, who became Liberia's index case.

>A mutated strain of poliovirus has been reported in more than 30 countries. That 'mutated strain' is actually from the Bill Gates Polio vaccine. It was a brand new form of polio that can be traced back to his polio vaccinations in India where it first originated. Now it is a global pandemic since there is no way (this is what I heard) to vaccinate against it...something about it mutation. Polio was almost completely eliminated and he revived it and set a new and much deadlier strain loose on the planet.

They sell for quite a bit so you can make a good wad of cash off a bottle of them.

THINGS TO LOOK OUT FOR IN SOCIAL SITUATIONS

Lets break this down and look at what they are saying here in terms of symptoms and behaviors so that we can understand the profile of the mutation.

Extreme aggression (think rabies but in humans) is often the result of damage to specific areas of the brain. We know that COVID crosses the blood brain barrier. And we know what it does to lungs.

Hydrophobia - fear of water once so commonly linked with rabies that rabies was called Hydrophobia before it was called rabies

Delirium - psychosis and inability to manage terror or danger; inability to establish a normative 'threat' baseline; with or without hyperactivity

Mild encephalitis - manifests as schizophrenia

Non-enhancing hyperintensity -

>Chest xray reveals under 10% lung involvement with no apparent dyspnea (shortness of breath typical in COVID).

So this mutation appears to affect the brain rather than presenting in the lungs.

>PCR testing confirms positive SARS-CoV-2

>Neutrophil (common White blood cells in mammals) exceeds any count reported in literature.

This could mean that COVID has advanced from not just being a clotting disease to using the White Blood cells of the patient as a vehicle for reproduction.

I heard corona-chan will only suddenly kill her mildly ill hosts in about 6 months after infection. If that's really true, then they'll release the vaccine by July/August when people will start panicking with all the sudden dead drops all over Europe and Bill will present himself as the Savior of Mankind as he personally injects the mandatory vaccines preemptively developed in Israel of course on the remaining goyim survivors. inb4 I am gifted with death on my birthday.

Mutation could make coronavirus more infectious, study suggests

>Researchers in Florida say they believe they have shown that the new coronavirus has mutated in a way that makes it more easily infect human cells. Not to be confused with the article I posted a couple weeks ago Coronavirus Mutations are Feared More Contagious <https://archive.vn/yHjtn> I've already had to explain this to a few people so I'll just go ahead and mention that 'contagious' refers to the ability of the pathogen to spread, 'infectious' refers to it's ability to enter cells.

I question the legitimacy of the virus, there may be something but it's not what we are being told, Question what people are actually being tested for as well with the so called coronavirus due to the test being used. Determining factor of infected is using the PCR technique invented by Kary Mullis which he received Nobel prize for. It amplifies fragment of nucleic acid which is a part of virus but not in full, the ends of the fragment are imputed. Compared to a fingerprint; when analyzed can be used to identify, but analyzing just a fragment can be used to identify many people. Operates by way of amplifying the of a sample. Our bodies have tons of virus and bacteria in us (harmless to us but it's what keeps the body immune system active and ready to protect from other viruses and sickness. Increase how much the sample is amplified controls results in infected. More test=more infected. Kary Mullins was VERY adamant this technique should not be used for DIAGNOSIS! He was out spoken about it and made it very clear. And I would bet he wouldn't stand by while government organization's use his creation to deceive everyone. Top it off he knew DR Fouci and wanted to call him out on TV and ask him why he and a Dr Gallow spent billions of dollars and killed 100,000 people? Said he could prove to everyone hes a "Asshole" in 10 minutes. Damn shame he didn't get the chance, also no surprise to find out he so happened to of died just before the virus outbreak August 2019. Gets better, Kary Mullins knew Dr Anthony Fauci head of infectious diseases and a big influence on the trump task force and good friends with the director for the world health organization. Now pushing importance of vaccine to return us back to normal through Moderna therapeutics which he has funder with government funding, and same Moderna therapeutics Bill Gates has been funding for many years. Also #1 funder for the W.H.O. presently $326 Million. NOsecret Gates wants to decrease population and has even said VACCINES are a way of that could be accomplished. VACCINE gng to be a death sentence for thousands, or millions if he has his way and the powers trust this non doctor with their lives and the lifes of their loved ones with his funded vaccines disguised and helpful worldwide. Tell that hypocrite to wear a mask so it takes the smart ones another couple minutes to call him on their B.S. RIP kary Mullis and watch his video on YouTube and check out the similarities from Aids epidemic to today situation <https://youtu.be/FJuv1cB0zrI> Believe the accusation was based of Fouci withholding info of correct medication while describing ones that were causing sickness, and death to thousands. Be nice for some Kary Mullis justice if there was foul play and make the pushers of vaccines that have minimal prior good results but has been the cause of injury and death via his vaccines for so many. Gates has to much damn influence in the health of everyone just because he rich. Corrupt bastards in positions of power choose money and power over everything peoples lives everytime. worth $110,000,000,000 (Billion) and also has a fund of over $500,000,000,000 (BILLION) through the Fund him and Warren Buffett started which is composed of donations from other very wealthy mystery people probably just as evil as him, fund is called THE GIVING PLEDGE and according to what I have seen the money doesn't have a have specific purposes, so no telling how many will be his puppets for a a few bucks. EXPOSE they corrupt and have bad intentions before he kills our loved ones as he has done to many others already 🙏🙏🙏 Love America Love Americans then get these fuckers out of the picture. Bring the justice for the ones without a voice or that had a choice. In Trump, Q, and ones helping behind the scenes we thank your continued efforts in the race against time and evil 🙏😏us

You know that when AIDS first came onto the scene we had thousands and thousands of people just like you saying that AIDS wasn't real as well. But with the number of cases doubling IRL (not in a model) every two months we only have to wait until next March 2021 to see 100% infection. That is not long. It is much shorter than we had to wait for the data on AIDS. Reddit probably has the page you are looking for btw. A snuggly get together where you can, just like the AIDS deniers, get all comfortable with disease.

Number two is obviously any "community" of promiscuous people who don't use protection.

Unlike most people, I still follow COVID news. We were looking at someones lungs last night (they got a lung transplant so the old ones were 'on display') and you couldn't even recognize that they were lungs anymore. They look like cheesy fries covered in chili. That said, I still spend about 6-8 hours outside everyday working because it is good for me. There is nothing to wait out anon.
We will reach 100% infection by March 2021. You probably shouldn't be inside that long. It is not healthy and you need vitamin d (this regulates testosterone).

I know, they are disease spreaders of the worst kind even if they didn't rape our children to 'propagate' themselves in society. Child rape is the only way for homosexuality to reproduce in a heterosexual society. If you let homosexual homosexual.

No, it's just fashionable to not care about coronachan. The small hill country towns were packed with people memorial day weekend. San Antonio is starting to get many more coofers, a little late, but they had to bring it back and spread it.

As VP Mike Pence plays down the threat of a 'second wave' of SARS-CoV-2 sweeping across the US, the WHO revealed Thursday that an accounting of the total case numbers and deaths recorded on Tuesday (48 hours ago) amounted to 140,000 new cases, the highest number since the outbreak began. Another 6,800 deaths were also reported, the highest number since April, Nikkei Asian Review reports. Nearly half of these new cases were recorded in Latin America, where Brazil, Mexico, Chile, Ecuador, Peru and other countries are all struggling with a surge of infections in the region as decisions by Brazil and Mexico to not take the outbreak seriously have apparently come back to haunt the entire region.

Circling back to the data released so far on Thursday, Tokyo reported 41 infections on Thursday, up from 16 a day earlier, while South Korea saw 34 new cases, down from 37 a day ago, not exactly a sign of another outbreak.

As the worldwide count of COVID-19 infections surpasses 8.25 million (JHU reported 8,320,288 as of early Thursday morning, along with 447,628 deaths), the death toll is on the cusp of passing 450k. Following a brief spat, the US and China have struck an agreement to allow four weekly flights between the two countries, easing a standoff over travel restrictions as Beijing blames travelers from abroad and imported seafood for some of the latest outbreak. Delta will resume passenger flights between Shanghai and Seattle next week, via Seoul, and once-a-week flights from Seattle and Detroit in July.

We know that it is the heaviest know public (not private surveillance like the US) surveillance state in the world...and what did the Chinese conclude with all that data?

Niggers are the disease vector in China...

Why would they lie?

Clue, NATIONALIST China has no reason to lie about this...this is blatantly obvious from our own riots that niggers are a disease vector.

Like I have said before, WE KNOW THIS IN THE WEST ALREADY, we are just not allowed to SAY IT. Like faggots are a disease vector in civilization; niggers are a disease vector as well.

>Pretty sure you're a chink, albeit a clever one

Nope. European ONLY Ethnoglobulist. Meaning I have no confidence in any of the subhuman races...but there are disease vectors and DISEASE VECTORS. In the US right now our problems are niggers, they are single handedly going to spike the COVID cases through the roof over the next two weeks. Chinks are disgusting bugs but they are one fractional step above the nigger. Very small though since they share all the same characteristics as niggers but are slightly (and I mean SLIGHTLY) more intelligent than a nigger. In this case that is not a 'good thing' but rather a very bad thing for Whites (and all living things on the planet).

UK poster here.

So a couple of days ago I had a real freak out about public transport and people not wearing masks. The majority of people I saw without them that day were POC and I wanted to genuinely know why they appear to be more susceptible to corona or if it was a language barrier thing and they maybe didn't get the new rules? Or how the UK government was being racist about the disease because I genuinely don't get that one?

Today I've been using public transport again and there are people of ALL ethnic backgrounds without masks, sitting together and everything.

So why are people of all races not playing by the safety rules? Do they really want to risk a second lockdown? And if people of all backgrounds are breaking the rules then why are POC being so badly affected?

Not a usual PND poster, not racist, just genuinely looking for proper answers from a science anon...

Ego-induced immortality perception. Either that or they are waaaaay too stupid. You're thinking from a white person's perspective and overlaying your cognitive thought processes onto another race. That's wrong, They do not think or act like you for a neurological reason. Has nothing to do with skin color or culture. NPC's, blacks, spics, chinks, etcetera etcetera, can't conduct precognitive thought, they are all 'reactive thinkers'. They want whatever their hormones demand of them at that point in time. Pre-planning, preparation, civil-care is asking too much from an NPC to think about.

When they get the coof, thank your lucky stars. Don't freak out about it, just be content that nature is doing her thing to ensure rape thugs will die.

That's a pretty good question.

From what I can see, it has to do with two things: people in general are getting desensitized to the whole epidemic thing, and with how social groups and social networks work.

There's one important thing that the white leftists and the authorities don't realize, and that is that "people of colour" don't think of themselves as being part of mainstream society, and that they don't even want to be part of mainstream society. They mainly stick together with their own kind in their own communities, and they like it that way.

So when these people see the government broadcasting instructions about how to handle the coronavirus epidemic, they see white authorities talking to white people. The fact that there's the odd nonwhite face in the publicity campaigns doesn't matter to them, because that's still just a token "person of colour" talking to mainstream society. And again, the "people of colour" generally don't think of themselves as being part of mainstream society, and on top of that, they generally also have far fewer white/mainstream people in their social networks because again, most of them prefer to stick with their own kind.

In short: they are already kinda insular so they are less concerned about what goes on in mainstream society, and they also have less contact with regular people who are part of mainstream society and who would otherwise remind them to take this epidemic thing seriously.

Of course, the fact that viruses don't care about your skin colour or what language you speak at home is lost on them - but hey, people are good at being stupid, and "people of colour" are people too.

And people are still herd animals at heart. So when regular whites see that Khalil, Jamal and Vidresh aren't giving a fuck about face masks or social distancing when riding the Tube, then that will inspire them to less cautious about these things as well.

And like I said; people in general are getting desensitized towards the whole pandemic thing. At this point they've seen it a million times already. It's everywhere, all the time - so people's minds have begun to tune the whole thing out.

On a side note: network theory provides some interesting perspectives into how ideas spread among people. It's quite worth looking into.

> A large scale 5G network engineering program will be piloted in Wuhan to accelerate the deployment of this new technology and to hopefully upgrade the IT industry, as was reported at the conference on 5G networks planning and engineering in early April.

> By the end of 2018, the trial use of the technology will start in various pilot areas; it is expected to be accessible to users at the Military World Games in 2019.

I'm not saying 5G is the sole cause of this Covid nonsense.

Anyway, either Chinese reports were highly blown out of proportion wrt deaths etc., or there is a different strain almost everywhere else, or there was/is a different factor at play - maybe it was 5G.

In any case, I don't like coincidences. It would be nice to see overlaps of 5G and covid maps; I'll try to find the data, but I haven't found anything directly usable yet.

Maybe - please look at the link to study on pubmed; this is just only one and there are others. Thus we know EMR causes quite a few things when one is exposed acutely and/or chronically, and flu-like symptoms are one of those things. Yes, it might even exacerbate existing flu, or might lower the immune response; or maybe it will make immune response stronger, leading to cytokine storm. I'm now just speculating, though.

Next, we know that Covid deaths are being massively inflated. Could that be done to also cover 5G, making it less suspicious?

I'm still looking for studies and data, will post here once I'll find anything interesting.

http://francisholisticmedicalcenter.com/images/Electromagnetic_Sensitivity.pdf

This overview study is about EMR sensitive people and the funny thing is that the symptoms and signs, together with the EMR-induced disruption of underlying processes point directly to intestinal malabsorption. This is important, because ones immunity (well, ones EVERYTHING) is extremely dependent on the GI tract and its microflorae.

You might say that this holds only for EMR-sensitive people, however the immune response is one of the most sensitive detection mechanisms known; allergics are good canaries in this regard. Put a nice engineered virus to the mix ... again, just speculating; I'll look into it further.

"the aliens presented the concept of the earth as a cosmic zoo.

Such indoctrination serves to reduce our concepts of human sovereignty, as well as to bind us to them in a subservient position, as a possession. While some people accept this relationship as fact and thus allow that the aliens can legitimately do with us what they please, there are others of us who feel we possess an inherent sovereignty and right to exist without interference, no matter what our genesis. Their claims to be our creators have never been more than mere claims, anyway."

November. Heh... pays to be weird. I heard wind of theKung-Fluin September/very early October simply because a close friend of mine who lived in China for some time, and thus has a multitude of contacts, rather nonchalantly, quite blase actually... remarked about a terribly vicious bug going about Hubei. So because I'm just on of those people I guess, I was already thoroughly aware of the CPC's Trans-Biologic ambitions, the Chinese getting in quite a bit of trouble for doing enough monkeying about with human embryos to create it at least 100 living, breathing humans that were immune to HIV back in the early '10s. While the veracity of such information is always dubious, that combined with a plethora of other truth signals has indicated, to me, for years that the CPC and PLA have gone full Re-animator status on the bio-x front. Wave II is very very very veryreal. Seeing how locked down things have become, my dewds... buckle-the-fuck-up. Deniable Warfare is the best kind. The die is cast, no more toys for Mr. Chan.

A quick remark on Rain-forests. They are Green Hell. Wait until this thing kills bats.

Aren't those caused by the increase of testing, and misdiagnosing/not reporting real cause, not taking flu stats into account etc. etc.? Asking for a friend, not really following anymore.

However, (((they))) will make their move when winter will come and with it, lockdowns everywhere. No fun allowed, while funs are in play. Funny thing, that. GCP and Schumann might just be indicators, we sure as hell don't know how to influence them, but they might have some predictive capacity.

More than that, what if both anons are right? There was a talk about S and L strains, Chinks don't need any excuses to kill their bugmen so why bother, Italy might have been overblown but it is an entry point from Africa (remember AIDS - apes and humans, even virii like to learn slowly as anything in apefrica lol, well fuck at least they learn&improve).

What I don't get about this is that there seems to be two camps:

1) Coronachan is a nothingburger and democrats are using it for political advantage

2) Coronachan is going to kill us all, shut down everything.

I think that coronachan is serious AND the democrats are using it to crash the fucking economy so trump loses. I don't get all the resistance to wearing a stupid mask. I do get the resistance against big tech tracking everything we do. I do get the resistance against shutting down the entire economy.

>I think that coronachan is serious AND the democrats are using it to crash the

I was lurking /cvg/ since late February, and as much as I wanted Corona-Chan to be the ELE we hoped she would be for non-whites, I now fall into your line of thinking. My own father is co-morbid with diabetes and Lyme disease so when he caught it and was diagnosed as positive, it was a pretty scary time for my family. His pneumonia and coughing was really bad, but the hospital ended up prescribing him chloromeme and antibiotics, so thank God he turned out okay. I think Corona-Chan is a big deal, but only if you're:

>severely immuno-deficient due to being a prancing-la-la-homo-man >severely unhealthy due to a lifetime of KFC and Popeye's >physically weak due to a lifetime of vidya-gaemz and pr0n >severely old

Word is still out on whether she will mutate into a deadlier strain anytime soon, so I suppose we are just on for the ride, and if there's one thing /pol/ taught me from over half a decade of shitpoasting, it's this...

CATS INJECTED WITH CORONAVIRUS

<https://www.coronavirusoutbreakmap.com/listings/coronavirus-infected-cat/>
Scientists who led the research say it shows the need for more research into whether coronavirus can spread from people to cats to people again. Cats can spread coronavirus to other cats without any cats ever having symptoms, a lab experiment suggests.

Anyone concerned about that risk should use "common sense hygiene," said virus expert Peter Halfmann. Don't kiss your pets and keep surfaces clean to cut the chances of picking up any virus an animal might shed, he said.
University of Wisconsin School of Veterinary Medicine led the lab experiment and published results Wednesday in the New England Journal of Medicine. Federal grants paid for the work. Researchers took coronavirus from a human patient and infected three cats with it. Each cat then was housed with another cat that was free of infection. Within five days, coronavirus was found in all three of the newly exposed animals. None of the six cats ever showed any symptoms.
"There was no sneezing, no coughing, they never had a high body temperature or lost any weight," Halfmann said. "If a pet owner looked at them ... they wouldn't have noticed anything." Some tigers and lions at the Bronx Zoo also have tested positive for the virus, as have a small number of other animals around the world. Those cases and the new lab experiment show "there is a public health need to recognize and further investigate the potential chain of human-cat-human transmission," the authors wrote.

Guidelines from the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention say that based on the limited information available so far, the risk of pets spreading coronavirus to people "is considered to be low." The veterinary medicine group says "there is no evidence to suggest that animals, including pets, that may be incidentally infected by humans are playing a role in the spread of COVID-19." It stressed that person-to-person transmission was driving the global pandemic.

>The flight data recorder showed the landing gear was lowered at 10 nautical miles, Mr Khan said, but then raised again 5 nautical miles from the runway, which he described as "beyond comprehension".

>The aircraft was "100 percent fit to fly" and there was no technical fault, he said, but added that the pilots were not "focused" because of the pandemic.

>"The discussion throughout was about corona," Mr Khan said, referring to exchanges between the pilot and co-pilot he said he had listened to on the cockpit voice recorder.

>"Several warnings and alerts such as over-speed, landing gear not down and ground proximity alerts, were disregarded," it added.

>"The landing was undertaken with landing gear retracted. The aircraft touched the runway surface on its engines."

Rabies is extremely rare. Only 1 - 3 human cases happen a year in the US. Mostly by bats, although other wild animals can carry it. Dogs no longer have it as the canine variant has been eliminated through vaccines. Human-to-human transmission is unlikely but not impossible. 17th century anatomist Marcello Malpighi claimed that his own mother contracted rabies and succumbed to it after being bitten by her daughter during a seizure. Another account was mentioned by Van Swieten in the earliest medical journal to date - the ephemerides academiae naturae curiosorum (Statutes of the Academy of Natural Curiosities) of a young man dying from rabies after having bitten his own finger in a fit of rage. Also, of the 8,600 people in contact with rabies victims at the Pasteur Institute of Paris only one developed the disease. There was also rumors that human bites had spread the disease in Soviet Russia, accounts repeated in the 1950s concerning the transmission of the disease by homeless orphans roaming the streets of Moscow of the period after the revolution. Other instances include a mother passing on the disease to her child while breastfeeding and another in which the disease was contracted through coitus and other sexual activity, such as licking. Survival is extremely slim, only 3 people survived without the vaccine in the US, two of which used an experimental protocol involving drugs and sedation. There have also been reported cases of rabies through laboratory aerosols and airborne exposure in bat caves that support unusual environments. There was one case in Vietnam of a man who contracted the disease from eating dog brains, since rabies can only be found in the saliva, brain or other nervous system tissue of an infected animal. Symptoms include persistent vomiting, hematemesis (vomiting blood), low grade fever, dysphagia (inability to swallow), and rapid neurological deterioration leading to coma and death. It is 100% fatal unless you're genetically gifted, like in the few cases of survivors. If you think you've been exposed, get the post-exposure vaccine. Also, if the animal you've been exposed to is alive after 10 days, you may not need it as it is not contagious during incubation (which may take days, weeks, months or even years). Symptoms in animals vary depending on the animal.

I realllly can't be bothered reading your bullshit. If you are relying on Case Fatality Rate, you're a lying fuckhead.

Infection Fatality Rate is the most important thing.

For example, before the UK and the Netherlands pulled their data, Coronachan's Infection fatality Rate was 98%. Meaning, 98% chance of you dying if you caught it, no matter your age.

Coronachan is a BLOODBORNE disease, it is not the flu, comparing AIDS with a cough is exactly what you are doing. People who survive, may or may not clear the disease, long term breakdown IS occurring in so called 'recovered' cases. -> Dr John Campbell, Longer Term Issues. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3Yg-5qnBrIM>

v=3Yg-5qnBrIM

Not to forget, 'cleared' children are dropping dead from bloodclots, liver failure and other 'elderly-type' problems.

Comparing an AIDS-spliced, blood-borne disease to a flu, Jesus fucking Christ.

This is the exact opposite bullshit of the other guy. There is no reason to believe it's that high.

CFR must be higher than IFR by definition. All IFR is trying to do is account for the cases that existed but are never caught, which is what >>132005 was trying to do. (Factor of 10 seems reasonable IMO) But for the "just the flu bro" crowd, the 0.1% fatality # is the flu CFR...the IFR is probably another factor of 10 lower, 0.01%, because of people like me that get it and just ignore it. When was the last time you saw a doctor for a seasonal flu?

Apples: COVID-19 CFR (5%) to flu CFR (0.1%)

RE: The Plane

I'm not sure what the discrepancy is. There was a plane, it crashed, horribly. It was flown by pajeets as a technicality, not designateds. Regardless, I thought it a rare find, that their own media has the freedom to admit what ours not only reject and obfuscate, but what ours subverts and kikes with insidious jewry and globalist pinko nonsense. Namely, that their degrees and credentials are all beyond fake, etc.

See attached image. That plane was told it was going to die 3x. They did what they did anyway. At crazy levels. From 10k ft to 3kft, at 2-3x standard approach, with A320, a dead-cat bounce runway, a general confusion (as oh god take off raise gear, but we haven't bounced yet, oh shit lower gear, but we're dragging now after hitting the bounce on runway miss and must take off raise gear, oh god no engines what's happening etc). Amazing. It's as if they weren't fast enough, smart enough, strong enough, and able-to-handle-the-total-space enough. Even if their degrees/certs weren't total lies, it doesn't matter that you give perfect 100p certified certs to flies - they are still flies, and should go buzz the fuck off.

Is this coronachan? Who the fuck cares. It will repeat. Maybe you'll post a nonsensical img then too. Are you too soon? Too late? Out of order? Unable to handle the memetic bantz total space? Your responses seem off point. Granted, offtopic is the name of this game, but with lulz. And your lulz are expired, as well as off target w.r.t. The Plane of Pajeets.

This is true. All our governments didn't have the balls to do something drastic like China's. They should have either taken the chaos-pill like Brazil and let everything open, so that the virus killed a certain amount of people but the economy would still work, or they should have gone the China route and shut down everything for a whole season.

By the way, is it just me or Bolsonaro's actions feel like he's deliberately trying to kill all of the denizens of the favelas? I am sure that a ton of drug related problems are simply disappearing with the infected..

Bullshit. The whole reason casees are going back up is because now that the weather is getting really hot, people are staying inside. Their breathing the same cool(i.e. virus preserving) recirculated air as everyone else, which are the perfect conditions for spreading the virus. It's just like New York's lockdown infecting entire homes.

People need to be wearing masks, keeping their distance, and going outdoors into the fresh air and sun. Here in Texas, almost no one wears a fucking mask either. I've been wearing one since February, but I'm in the minority. Most people don't wear a mask in public, and don't social distance. They act like there's no threat at all. I have unmasked fucktards walk right up to me at work every fucking day. Abbot won't make people wear masks, so the counties are stepping in, but their policies don't have much more teeth than Abbot's. If we're gonna get tyrannical about it, we need to be ticketing people that aren't wearing masks and keeping their distance in public spaces.

> The whole reason cases are going back up is because now that the weather is getting really hot, people are staying inside. Their breathing the same cool(i.e. virus preserving) recirculated air as everyone else
That's February tier shit, my dude. Corona-chan does just fine in the heat and well enough in the sun that it doesn't matter. Peak solar UV can kill her in about 30mins, she can only stay airborne for about half that time, so it's more than enough.

>Most people don't wear a mask in public, and don't social distance. They act like there's no threat at all. I have unmasked fucktards walk right up to me at work every fucking day.

That's my point exactly, you just validated the shit out of me, anon. No one fucking cares at this point, they're done with this lockdown and social distancing shit, they're making a protest out of invading your personal space, most of them don't care, some of them don't even believe.

If you want my advice, stop giving a shit. Protect yourself as you see fit, but join the virus. There's so much more winning to be had that way.

90% of antibody kit results are false positives says Tokyo University
>On March 31, a team from the University of Tokyo's Center for Advanced Science and Technology (RCAT) and other teams announced that about 90 percent of people who were positive for simple test kits were negative for detailed tests using large-scale equipment. Kits are increasingly being introduced in clinics nationwide, but they point out that there are challenges in understanding the exact status of infections
>The survey was conducted in May by the team and the Hirata Central Hospital in Fukushima Prefecture. Fifty-eight people were positive when 680 medical and care workers working at the hospital were examined with a simple kit (immunochromatography). Of these, about 90% of 52 people were judged to be negative in the detailed examination. The person who was negative in the kit was negative even in the detailed examination.

From what ive been reading on the news in Japan, they can't even do more than 100 tests a day because they have to confirm everything with X rays and shit after using pcr and antibody kits that are super inaccurate. How is every other country with third rate health care doing thousands of tests a day and confirming them positive?

> economy can't re-open nor recover (any upswing in stocks is completely inflated as production is way down).

> Riots making USA shift towards more anti white garbage

> Riots destroying USA's strong economic position (possibly permanently) in relation to other countries

I guess the elites and jews are really frantic in 2020. Why even destroy stuff so badly? Corona is a chink bioweapon released so I can see the unintentional damage caused by that. But why promote nigger anti white riots to spread it further (and destroy the economy)? I don't really believe the globohomo kikes would do that just to get rid of Zognald Drumpfstein.

It's not just publishing that is a problem it's also reach and early adoption of published results. You can have a really great research, get it published but if it doesn't get initial traction it could be that the study gets ignored by peers. Also science suffers from an overflow of published articles. On the same subject you find multiple studies and they often contradict each other, meaning some studies were probably manipulated in some way (to get them published-important metric).

By destroying the economy, the Dems can say that Trump's policies have failed. Remember that the Dems "run" BLM. Remember the tweet by AOC calling for the sabotage of the US economy because the Dems don't want Trump (and more importantly the Republicans) to have any political power what so ever.

Why does nobody acknowledge that the media was plastering DEATH COUNTS everywhere all day every day. Now that deaths are way down (70%-90% lower than the peak), now it's all about "cases." So true. Many are coming forward with long term symptoms. I have a family member that works in a hospital (non-covid section). She knows two people that had the coof. They were down for almost 60 days each. They are back at work now, but they struggle with extreme lethargy every day, they aren't like they were before, and no one knows if they will ever be "normal" again.

I'm reminded of a scientist talking, months ago, about these patients and how they transition back into normal life, and some having changes, from being the breadwinner, to not being the breadwinner, etc.

>'They Want to Kill Me': Many Covid Patients Have Terrifying Delirium

><https://archive.vn/igmnd>

This one is disinformation, they really are deliberately killing patients by using a sleep apnea setting on the machines or injecting them with actually lethal vaccines. So they post articles like this so their family and loved ones will be dismissive of their pleas for help. I've also seen the "testing" facilities in my area, went without a phone to track me. How convenient that there wasn't any actual equipment there just a shady parking lot setup. The parking lot was also a place nobody could fucking go or visit, in a town center all but abandoned with virtually 90% of the shops being gone decades ago. Generally speaking there are two strains of this virus, the worse strain is in Russia, China, and Iran this one hits hard and fast. The second one though is basically flu AIDS and we won't be seeing the worst of this until years later. Most people who got it just had a bad cold and the rest of the Covid19 numbers are deliberately being inflated.

In fact you can tell when you're about to die from it because you get a single pink eye. Since it means you'll be literally breathing manually and then you'll just die from not breathing.

We should be more concerned about cocoloravirus. Nobody has seen it directly, and there is no accurate test for it, but it may exist in the human genetic material. This also means that some people who recently deceased may have had it. To protect the rest of the population we should take decisive action. Of course such action should be based on science and data, so let's think it through. In case cocoloravirus is rare among humans, it has to be considered dangerous (because of the deaths it may have caused) and we should stop its transmission by wearing snorkels. In case cocoloravirus is more widespread, more people might be infected and, to protect others, should wear snorkels as well. The fact that in the latter case cocoloravirus would be less dangerous should not deceive us, to the contrary, since many people would be asymptomatic they would pose an even greater risk to the rest of the population. To those who oppose wearing snorkels because experts say they "don't stop viruses" I have a simple message: It is a small price to pay (except for the snorkel) which makes us all safer, so stop bitching and just do it! And it will not last forever.

Sure we cannot eliminate cocoloravirus (since we have no proof it exists we could never be sure it is gone) but we can make ourselves immune to it. Sounds complicated? It isn't. There are plenty of philanthropists (people who spend their life savings to help others) who will solve the problem for us. All we have to do is listen to them and not question their motives. Sounds like a deal? Disclaimer: this post and the subject matter and contents thereof - text, media, or otherwise - do not necessarily reflect the views of the 8kun administration.

is a bioweapon, 100% proven."

I've never heard such rubbish in my life. There is no evidence this is a bioweapon disease, in fact the very opposite has been a supported hypothesis: this is a natural disease, virological samples proved as much. Examinations were conducted and the traceback of samples displays that covid19 is of natural origin and is not man made.

I think many people writing trash on this thread are mentally unwell. This is evidenced by the paranoid writings of young white men who are unemployed or in insecure, lowly paid work, with little future fortunes. It's common in this scenario to have paranoid thoughts relating to any event occurring in the world. Things are much simpler than they seem. A pandemic has caused an already unstable economy in the USA to fracture further, with the income and wealth inequality heading up yet again. What do you plan to do about that? You nutjobs think that a rich regularly bankrupt businessman, Trump, is going to help you. The truth is he's raping your vote to further enhance the elites, which is why the tax stimulus favored the rich.

Even when you have fucking nothing, which is possible within a year, you will still be blaming other countries and peoples for the fault that is at your own door and is easy: lack of education in the USA has seen a dumbass populace lose their rights and freedoms thanks to corporations and rich Republicans pillaging even more. From which shithole did you crawl from to post this shill story on here? Not even going to say which part gives you away as a very obvious shill since then you can learn. Hopefully you at least get paid for posting this garbage.

See my posts in qresearch archives, look for key words

QAI Q AI, RV ANON. I never start threads using RV ANON and I only use RV ANON on posts where I am trying to reach the "watchers" with a particular message.

However, in the last few days there is someone who has been trying to use RV ANON and they are attempting to muddy the waters. I do not start threads, and I only use that RV ANON in posts. My latest battle with this fake person is over the Yangtze River dam breaking. I have posted about that dam on /pol/ for a long time. As it is irrelevant to this particular thread I won't go into it, but this I saw happening back in 2007 for the first time. I've been using the phrase "when the dam breaks in China" for years because for me it is a very huge marker on the timeline.

Because I often see "too much at once" it's been hard for me to narrow it down to the single most important component but finding Cyrus's work today really aimed me in that one direction. There are many aspects that need resesarch but mostly, the message has to get to the White House.

I posted on qresearch about the virus in a fury about 4 days before Trump spoke about the virus publicly the first time. I said then that Trump was being lied to in his intel briefings regarding the virus and in the interview Cyrus says the same thing, that Trump is being misled. He saw the advent Trump the same way I did. I have much more to write about the advent of Trump but we have to start somewhere. And this is it. Help me make a thread with my RV ANON posts. If there is a post that gets in that is not from me but from the asshole LARPing as me, I'll say so as I used particular words, phrasing and things that the LARP does not know.

I don't want to argue or debate the various beliefs about the virus, it's NOT the virus. Cyrus hasn't yet (as far as I know) mentioned the real reason behind the virus, but my RV ANON posts talk about it. I am posting a screenshot of a very disjointed post I made at GLP. I cannot link you to the thread because I'm banned there. But if you are not finding that thread should not be hard as long as it has not been deleted.

I'll explain more if people want to make a thread. I cannot do that myself for many reasons. I also want to say that I am not the only person who can see forward and backward that has talked about this. I have done some RV work jumping OFF the work of another and what I've found, including the actual person I call TrashCanMan in the attached photo. What my "job" is, is to put all the pieces of the puzzle together and then get someone to listen. I need help doing this.

blue attachment is my GLP post. Sometimes as I write things I've seen they can be jumbled as it is "free" writing. But this is a place to start. Also please, compare the drawing from the other RV person that I used to go deeper, with the "front cover" photo, also attached, of Cyrus Parsa's book.

This is not a coincidence. Anyone whose almonds are tingled, let's work together to organize the evidence, for anyone that gets angry and reacts with "shill" take your meds, or other things intended to shut down the conversation, I think you know, based on what I just wrote, that you're part of the problem. We can stop this, but only if we work together to get this message to the right ears, and in a more organized form. Cyrus covers the AI angle, but I have been hitting all of them. The way they intend to bring everyone into the system I have written about on my RV ANON posts.

Please, help me organize this and start getting eyes on.

It's not what I WANT you to do, it is what do your inner directions say? If I need to prove what I'm saying about what I've posted at Qresearch then you can prove it to yourself by just going to their archive and look for Q AI, QAI, RV ANON posts, if that is all it takes to get you thinking, woah there might be something behind this then start a thread.

I will be glad to participate, but as I wrote on dream anon's /pol/ thread I was flat out told I could not LEAD it. But I can promise a lot of almond tingling, a lot of holy shits, and connections that maybe, just maybe, we can stop what is intended, merely by becoming aware of it.

if you see "yep, RV ANON wrote about this" then you can see I'm not fucking with you.

Big pharma pushes addictive medications anon and benzos are one of the most addictive ones out there. If a doctor leaves a patient on a medication like xanax for longer than a month that person begins to become dependant.

After awhile severe physical and psych withdrawal symptoms. Makes the kikes lots of money to push meds like those. If you need to use them, use them wisely and research what your getting. :)

I don't know to be honest. I figured this subject would get lost on this huge board but I was wrong. When you get access to a computer you can make your own board here or..heaven help us at /x/ but that is not the best place because bless their hearts

ANY idea why this thread would be deleted? I figured the second fungus found it and the fake RV found it they'd try to delete it. I don't know where to say... maybe just make a board for spooky shit with one thread? on this platform? If they delete us there, then...but there was zero reason to delete it here.

I am making copies of everything open. I'll just cut and paste my posts into a word doc so I can easily repost them. The only thing from the deleted thread that I would have loved to see is the pic attached to the last post.

I will keep checking back here for any place you decide to put this information. but must be careful here or they will delete that too.

This is beyond spooky. There was no reason to delete that thread it was on topic re the virus and the political ramifications of Q AI.

I am so sorry, as I said in the /pol/ thread I am NOT allowed to be the "leader" or create my own "hemisphere." or followers, it is supposed to be information sharing and giving people things to look at. And it's gone. Someone got very spooked. I am not just saying that. I was following my guidance on how to get this information into useful discussion and my guess is this..when I make my posts on Qresearch or pol I am mostly left alone because no one believes me. There have been a few times that I was sure I'd be arrested (not kidding) because they have reason to 100% believe what I post. But now that there's a chance that there might be discussion and people figuring this stuff out for themselves?

I am NOT allowed to be a thought leader. AT ALL. I am NOT allowed to influence opinion (that would be David Wilcoxon or Icke as an example making declarative videos and developing a "following". I should have known after the post I made on /pol/ a few days ago that linked my "when the dam breaks in China" RV posts to a video from China in Focus which is the first time there was actual physical evidence that the time was close. (the flooding).

It was after that the person LARPing as me attacked me (I think like two days later) and started posting examples of my FAIL posts, which are not me, anyone that can follow energy trails knows it's not me. I know who it is, and if you do a search on /pol/ and qresearch for the attached image you will see that every time I "clock" this person i post the same exact image and usually they go away because I am sure it freaks them out that I can "see them" as I say, every. single. time.

If you want to prove it to yourself, I encourage you to do that because only then-will you see it for yourself.

SO IMHO the person posting the fake me things is the same person I am always responding to with pic.LOL no matter what flag, no matter what board, I always clock this person. They're evil af.

Look all I hope to do is help those who are seeking to sort their own issues out. I have been told my entire life that "you are going to put an important puzzle together" and heck I can't even get a good near death without hearing "you have to go back, you have to put a puzzle together". And I finally get brave enough and feel I have it orderly enough, and I know where this journey is going to carry you, and I'm sorry-so does the person that deleted this. I just didn't think they were watching me that closely. LIke I said, they mostly leave me alone because no one listens to me.

And that I have reached the exact right people? I made the same opening post over on a /x/ thread and not one of them responded. I mean-/x/ is, to me, kind of like kindergarten for spooey shit. LOL not being mean but, it was the thinkers on /pol/ that got tingled.

I have all my OPs because I hit post to answer someone and got "thread gone" so it was still open on my computer, still is. YOU be the leader :) I have zero issues following and just posting what I am led to post.

I am serious about being sure of arrest a few times. I did NOT hold back at gresearch, I was furious...but not one person heard a thing I said, no one asked a question..(this is since late January, but recently I posted some stuff such as the Assange video and the Millie expose of Biden being blackmailed to insert Green agenda into his, and it was like talking to robots. No one even watched anything, just like at /pol/ they just kept robo posting "Trust the Plan, PRAY, god wins...and I was like WTF is this?

I will follow whatever direction you go.

That scared me in a way-I cannot explain, it's like suddenly finding that there is no one alive?? not sure if that makes sense..After the mass banning at /pol/ I get that weird feeling there too. Because of things I have posted in the first few years of Trump's presidency, and because I know the results of that, I figured they were going to be on me like white on rice, but I didn't care, because at the time I was feeling like they were "team good guy".

Because I see things they miss (due to the shifted timeline and the impossibility of foreseeing all possible outcomes and events) and I posted those things very specifically, I know THEY know I am not a larp bullshitter. But now I'm not so sure "who" team good is. And based on all my puzzle pieces I don't feel so good right now :(

Yes, in fact I spoke a lot about specific things, I C&P the entire post into word so will C&P the relevant part here:

Remember, I've been at this a VERY long time gathering information and storing it away. I have watched and engaged thousands of hours of "entertainment" because I have learned (lol mostly from original Star Trek) that there is ALWAYS truth in fiction, it's merely a matter of sitting back and letting the truth pop out.

In that vein I'll give you some entertainment homework

IN TIME

Then, if you haven't already, look at the patents Gates has for using / mining human activity, then blow your mind by watching the black mirror episode, I forget the name of it but honestly I don't know what those writers are tapped into, but damn..The episodes of interest to use for our purpose right now are the social credit social media episode and pic related.

When I saw that social credit shit I was like OMG that is coming. And here we all are in the US on the very edge of that becoming a reality here-as it is currently in China.

SO homework? step by step and if you stay with it, make notes on your personal experience. You do not have to share anything at all. THIS is for each person interested as an INDIVIDUAL.

This little bit of homework will let you tap into the WHY. This will help you unwind your brain from the "what I know" to the WHAT IF. What if is a very difficult concept, believe it or not. NPCs cannot engage it, and neither can concrete thinkers. Concrete thinkers are very very useful but they are not WHAT IF people. We can't have WHAT if people in professions such as accounting (if you get my drift).

That is a very good, very accurate write up on the virus. I didn't see a single thing to disagree with overall. As far as the beautiful design and intention, that's another story. This virus, as we have noted, is slowing down and not as bad as we thought it was going to get. Even I was stunned then I saw why. It was pretty amazing what they did. Whew I don't know how I am going to get this stuff across in any meaningful way.

That virus has been "mitigated" but, only THAT one. Mutations, and any further "new" virus release are going to take time to study, get the RNA convert that to DNA convert DNA to frequency then frequency into the masses. So yeah we are still in pretty big trouble. THIS will have to be done or BILL Gates is going to be chasing the fuck out of all of us trying to force the jab.

At the current time there are at least three timeline threads running side by side on this. When this virus got released (attach again that blue one, garbled but saves typing) it was NOT the virus they were expecting. BUMP that timeline to the right. I am still unsure if they know who did it, maybe me and my big mouth, lol but I hope they have him cause he's batshit insane. THAT was a completely different "mission" for the virus because of the 2015 timeline shift. 1/2??3

China is working on owning the world, and Israel has had their hand on China's shoulder since the cultural revolution. China is what they hope for. TO learn as much as possible about china and to be entertained, I recommend Serpentza, Laowhy86, and ADV China. Learn about the Chinese people, and how and why they've changed over time. ISRAEL was getting pissed over Africa and although they've been spying on the chinks left and right..well everyone has been. So Israel tells China they'll make a virus and vaccine for X reason. China thinks that's great but they want their own virus and plan on taking out everyone but them. What was left of us would be vaccinated with that special Gates, Epstein, Lieber vaccine that would have had a pay load in it.

The virus settles in the stem of the brain and the vaccine carrying along Lieber's virus sized battery, receiver, transmitter and BOOM what if the AI could switch off the ADE and the HIV Sticky" cured, you wouldn't get it again. BUT you'd also then be connected to that AI and (insert black mirror post). My guess is that China had their own planned as did Israel, and then MY GUY. LOL He stole some of the base virus from Shi's lab? I think. And he was supposed to do something on the Israel virus / vaccine. I think he fell in love with the virus. Then he started getting upset about the vaccine killing "her" so he released her into the wild.

Chinks found it that was "not their virus, well shit" so they thought Israel did it, or somehow the US did it via Liber, but they never really considered US although they blamed us for a week or so. China is pissed, not sure wtf happens, figured if they were fucked they were going to fuck everyone else right back. So they say meh, hold this big giant banquet and then let 5million people leave Wuhan THEN locked down.

In Wuhan in December was the South Korean Death Cult. THEN went to Israel carrying the virus. LOL

The Pope knows there's a virus in China so he's slapping that woman away. Israel is fine, they think it's their virus so they announce they have a vaccine, and find out too late it's the the wrong virus and the virus spreads in Israel.

(HEH)

BUT since everyone was expecting a virus, they just thought it was "time" and sprang into action.

Bill Gates starts yapping (oops)

Bezos sells billion in stock, issues orders to hire 100k delivery people and bugs out to what HE thinks is a safe place , New Zealand.

Then here we converge with the other posts I made where up until the time I posted my rant on qresearch the media was all about "just the flu bro" then 360% degrees opposite to "OMG we are all going to die, Trump is going to kill us."

It's a mind fuck that goes back to other posts of mine about how it is becoming more and more clear that both sides are being fucked with. With this version of the virus Trump is OK. BUT...we got that Brazil drop and I've been keeping an eye. I also saw a quickly deleted post about a Chinese woman in the CHAZ that had volunteered to man the sanitation station

So after the virus was mitigated and it was clear it was not going to go here the way it went in China they started faking shit to get people terrified, THEN take advantage of the MASKS to kick off another aspect of THE PLAN, just not...they had to rush it, they weren't ready. ALL of that shit is fake af. I have watched fake "truth" be spread without question and all that fake truth was just to jog that timeline just a bit so the real question is slid.

And the MASKS/RIOTS second wave, all opportunistic, planned but rushed. How does that link

What I was trying to explain about timeline shifts and outcomes is that natural events, earth events, they are always going to happen. Man planned / created events can and will happen but because it involves choice, outcome can be different. Trump was served up the exact same events because the desired outcome was Israel taking back that land from Syria, aka greater Israel. But in order to do that they have to get rid of Assad, that was always THE PLAN so what Trump did was get the same fake intel Hillary would have used, he acted all concerned and (LOL) probably had Bolton fapping with joy when it appeared Trump was going to do as Bolton asked and bomb Syria to drive out Assad, based on fake intel shit. Trump says ok, has his guys go bomb an empty airfield after telling Putin and Assad, and LOL completely different outcome than we would have with Hillary. Recently all that noise at the NK/SK border I just smiled. When there is a division, destroying the symbol of that division is a first step to unity. And chillax a bit. I am pissed at being deleted but if they haven't come for me, I think you'll be ok. We have a lot to go through coming up. Something is up on the 4th that has me trying to pluck threads out and follow them. I included a few LARPs remember threads of truth in the lie, misdirection to whomever we spread it to?

BUT WHO DID IT? I did a read for the WHO based off two drawings from a different RVer because I wanted to know more about this man. You can read a general description of what I picked up. 3 languages, one of which was French with in my assumption (cause I knew better,) I started calling him my french man...well that slowed me down because I could not find a matching Frenchman! I believe he served in some kind of uniformed capacity, but can't prove that, and I think now his languages are Dutch, French, and German. When I RV'd the drawings to get deeper into the man, I was wowed by the level of insanity. "Normal, genius, insanity" and I tried to "follow" his energy trail and couldn't which is WEIRD. So I set him aside (besides referring to him in posts as Trashcanman after the character in The Stand which he reminded me of.) THEN last week I was poking around in Qresearch which I hardly ever do as they annoy tf out of me (wilful blindness masquerading as thinking for self). I found that post attached here, sat up straight and thought that's him. So I went to read about him. Confirmed, batshit insane. I can't find anything more about him.

I think this guy is the one and he went rogue using some of the base virus that Lieber stole and Shi was working with.

For the record, we actually might've already gotten infected by a planned countermeasure strain when timed with China and Iran. So while it wasn't "the right one" we got lucky and our immune system was still able to respond decently enough because it was the base template. So while they tried to come up with a vaccine precise enough to work (and getting stone walled), other countries realized they had to use the chemtrail method for a manufactured countermeasure. Would explain the shift of alliance with China too so the virus is now impotent until the dreaded second wave of the mutation strain comes.

Although. Even if it did, would anyone really want to go back to being couped up inside isolated from everyone? Eventually people will just say "fuck it" and just live life because dieing a human being is better then living like that.

I am kind of super chilling tonight and shitposting on /pol/ got three sets of digits on the dam tho.

You may have to suspend belief to move forward. We don't try to reform new information to fit our "beliefs" we collect evidence and let that lead us. I cannot do that for anyone but myself. I don't even work crimes any more because it doesn't matter. Believe it or not it does not matter. I know right where a body is that will free a man from life in prison but, no one is every going to go looking for it. not even with big red arrows and "proof. I found one body I wasn't even looking for and it was murder, flat out, (unless one normally commits suicide by bracing a barrel among the hay bales, filling it with acid and crawling inside pulling the lid down on top of you.

Sometimes I am fully committed to the idea of life as a "video game" that no matter which way you do it, you "win" the same way. (if that makes sense). Also I don't ever let any outside energy get near me and there's a reason that I never go to bed until the sun comes up! There's too much fuckery after midnight right now.

<https://www.zerohedge.com/political/if-you-dont-wear-mask-you-might-be-psychopath-survey-finds>

>Using an obviously unscientific premise, the study sought to explore any connection between the so-called "Dark Triad" traits which purportedly (according to accepted theory) indicate an individuals' level of psychopathy. Surprisingly, we found, the study had been peer reviewed, and was set to be published in Social Psychological and Personality Science.

>The data was largely collected in late March, making it mostly irrelevant to the current mask debate which is roiling the country.

>All of this doesn't matter. >>134937

It looks like they are trying to see how much can it be used as a pretext for controlling people. They will probably keep releasing similar pathogens, enough to get people immobilized, not enough to bring the total collapse. The supposed waves won't be from the same "virus", they will be new ones. If the pathogen is too deadly, it will bring total collapse (which is not in (((their))) interest as it would make them highly vulnerable). Rather, it will slowly make the people, economy and infrastructure more and more sick, a controlled demolition. A condition for communism to be implemented is that the majority of people lose their property and independent source of income. Then they would promise the underclass the great robbery (what's going on with protests in USA right now), and use it as cannon fodder against productive population and non-jewish middle class/lesser rich. Then, they will offer their technocratic, AI assisted tyranny as the solution, and the unwashed brown and white trash (SJW) masses will cheer for it.

As for "normalization", they are gradually getting people to accept 'open gulag' conditions.

>Prices Are Going To Rise... And Fast!

Honestly, it really depends. This whole thing is a shit-show, a black swan, it's really hard to predict all the factors at play. The biggest wildcards are if they get a functional vaccine or treatment soon and the November elections. Cue the vaccine/mind control schizos. We could be in CW2 by then anyway.

>Trading and Investing America's second Civil War

What a joke. MSFT and AMZN aren't going to be fielding new technologies in CW2. What's deployed right now is what will be used. If it goes hot, it won't last years, and if it does go hot, MSFT and AMZN HQ are fucked. One guy with a pair of cutters can take down either in a city. If it does go hot, Smith and Wesson will be shut down by the gov't, or forced to produce by the gov't at a set price, they won't be able to supply the rebels, I can't see how that would reflect well on a stock's price. If we are really looking at CW2, the only stock that is going to go up is shares in the local warlords, or anyone with goods on hand. This moron is looking at things like we are going to war in a different country.

Preppers win, warlords win, everyone else gets slaughtered. Not a prepper, I has a sad.

No one is sure of the long term effects /ourgirl/ has on the human body. If the immune system's antibody memory is somehow short lived (as in a few months) then any immunization protocols such as vaccines will in effect be worthless. Add to that the long term scarring of lung (and probably heart, liver and testicular/ovarian) tissue then you have a slow burning virus that still could wipe out the human race in our lifetime.

But if an effective vaccine is developed, which is only a matter of time now, then as it's redeployed every year it'll simply be reconfigured for the various strains or the newly mutated version every year, just like the various seasonal flus. Everyone who catches it now or that doesn't take a vaccine will be fucked, but chances are a vaccine will resolve it. I think it'll just be another deadly pathogen we'll have to vaccinate for, like tuberculosis, polio, HPV, hepatitis, and eventually HIV. But it'll be a while imo.

The problem is that the flu doesn't cause long term scarring of the lungs, etc. Even if a safe vaccine IS developed, people will still catch the strains that the vaccine does not emulate (which is why some people who get vaccinated still die from the flu). This means wave after wave of potential reproductive sterilization, heart and liver failure as well as lung scarring. Vaccines are developed to counteract the most likely of strains of a virus. Not all of the strains. Hence my reasoning of the slow burn effect on the human population.

>Depends on if they find one vaccine that has broad action or not.

They cannot create vaccines for a broad range if viral infections like an umbrella vaccine. What they do is create a single vaccine comprising off multiple specific strain vaccines. They do not know all the varying strains of this highly mutable virus. There can never be a vaccine that will cover all of them.

> I'm at the point where I'd gladly get a shot every three months if things could return to, eh, normal.

You better hope that the vaccine strains are deactivated. There was a post several threads ago outlining how The Bill and Melanoma Gates foundation killed thousands of streets shitters because they failed to deactivate a serum strain of polio. If the vaccine makers fail to follow proper procedures to save cost and time then expect a viral load delivered straight to you bloodstream.

>Genomic epidemiology of novel coronavirus - Global subsampling

Yes, there's plenty of variations, but a lot of it comes down to the spike protein, and how much variation is there. Can't tell that from the admittedly ominous graph.

"Only about a quarter of the hundreds of spikes on each SARS-CoV-2 virus maintain the structure they need to successfully infect a target cell. With the mutation, the tripod breaks much less frequently, meaning more of its spikes are fully functional, he says.

The addition of the D614G mutation means that the amino acid at that location is switched from aspartic acid to glycine. That renders it more bendable, Farzan says. Evidence of its success can be seen in the sequenced strains that scientists globally are contributing to databases including GenBank, the duo reports. In February, no sequences deposited to the GenBank database showed the D614G mutation. But by March, it appeared in 1 out of 4 samples. In May, it appeared in 70 percent of samples, Farzan says.

"Over time, it has figured out how to hold on better and not fall apart until it needs to," Farzan says. "The virus has, under selection pressure, made itself more stable."

<https://www.scripps.edu/news-and-events/press-room/2020/20200612-choe-farzan-coronavirus-spike-mutation.html>

Yes, the NextStrain data isn't about the spike opening the door, but the total amount of strains that are busy running their own type of attack after entry. The thousands of strains shown are simply variations on a sickness theme, and indeed, not indicative of its mechanism of entry. The good news is that there are less variations of that mutating, the bad news is that it's observed to be more stable.

We can't lockkill ACE2, but we can force mutate the spike. What do you think?

You called it. Well, this is exactly the same story I saw on 5 December 2019:

"Pneumatic plague of unknown origin in East China"

The Elites need a higher death rate to save the planet.

#COVID20 is here.

It's quite possibly human-to-human pneumatic form of Black Death.

Someone needs to make a My Body, My Choice illustration for washing hands, showering, umbrellas, shoes, sunglasses, clothing, and unwiped street-shitting. Because they simply aren't getting the "respiratory contagion" and fomites concept.

A sealed full face mask protects you, and thats your body your choice. But since sealed full face masks are expensive, the common face mask that internally catches coughing or sneezing is how this is mitigated. It is prevented from being spread, to those around you, at any time, including pre-symptomatic days. Inconsiderate niggers, this aint about goddamn liberty, because a virus and any other pathogen doesnt care about that, this is how it is contained and snuffed-out. They want a first wave next year and the year after, until theyre actually in the age/health demographic in which any simple pathogen kills easily.

Uncivilized hoopleheads.

It does sound like what they are doing in serbia is pretty stupid. IMHO, at this point, it should be wear a mask, no large gatherings, and be done with it. Day four update. Felt pretty good today, no lung tightness problems. Either the cigarette cleaned the corona out, or it was a false alarm. Hasn't been a full two weeks yet, so maybe I'm a bit early to declare victory.

<https://www.coronavirusoutbreakmap.com/listings/pedophile-pastor/>
A former pastor of First Baptist Church of Hammond, convicted of raping a young teenager girl in his church office is currently in prison. The pedophile pastor was convicted for taking a 16-year-old girl across state lines for sex. The pedophile pastor is seeking a compassionate release because of the COVID-19 pandemic and his record as a "model prisoner," according to court records. Jack Schaap pedophile pastor 62, pleaded guilty to taking a 16-year-old girl he was counseling at First Baptist across state lines for sex, and in March 2013 he was sentenced to 12 years in federal prison. He is serving his sentence in Ashland, Kentucky. In a recent court document, Schaap wrote he asked for a pre-indictment plea "to show (he) accepted full responsibility and to avoid a lengthy trial period which (he) felt would be detrimental" to the church "and to prevent any other staff personnel from being indicted." "Although there were extenuating circumstances and I did not know I was violating the law, the fact is I did violate the letter of the law and I did plead guilty. I realize the seriousness of the crime and accepted responsibility for it," Schaap wrote.

Also that woman doesn't have her mask on either at all. Why does she bother with the gloves and everything then do that?

Also does anyone believe this virus is even real? Even with all the gunshot victims, car crash victims, heart attack victims, etc. being counted all as corona virus deaths the death rate is like 0.2%?

I was thinking about this and I realized that you would never be able to fight in a civil war against tyrants if you are chipped. Never again could you 'go outside' an area that they didn't want you to go. Also, foreign invasion and the tracking of all your citizens would be possible by the foreign army. You r soldiers who were chipped could also be tracked by foreign intelligence agencies. The COVID chipping agenda is going to facilitate the killing and slaughter of whole groups, nations, peoples and families.

I fear they are laying the ground work for the next stage in their plans for total control. With real-time satellite imagery of the entire globe, and an ability to ID and track everyone in real-time, they will have the power of a God. Combined with all our past data, AI, and drone and satellite type weaponry... Death and slavery are coming and there seems to be no force on Earth willing or able to stand up to them.

In light of this understanding, the covid and riots make a lot of sense. These are the tools which enable them to accomplish the implementation of their plans while preventing any coordinated resistance.

Scientists Discover That One Big Assumption That Everyone Has Been Making About COVID-19 May Be Dead Wrong

>one thing that everyone could pretty much agree on is that eventually this pandemic would end. Virtually all of us assumed that one way or another eventually most of the population would develop COVID-19 antibodies and that once we got to that point the pandemic would fizzle out. >But why are the rioters not sick?

Who says they aren't? Who is going to publish that story though? The media? Don't make me laugh, that contradicts the narrative. Funny, all the media can talk about these days is how many niggers have covid, but NO, we can't connect the fucking dots, we can't say it's because of the protests... Or because niggers refuse to wear masks and wash their hands. Kek. Either one. Dirty fucking rioting niggers. I'll have to content myself with the fact that their mortality rates are higher than whites also.

Coronachan, bring your worst!

Coronachan rides on water droplets, it doesn't exist on it's own. It's like anthrax, it's in the dirt everywhere, but for it to be inhaled and deadly they have to have a special process to aerosolize it. So outside of drying it, but not killing it, then blowing it around, anything that filters water droplets is sufficient. Could this happen if you wear a mask for consecutive days? I think it might. Rotate masks or have a method of baking them to sanitize.

In fact it seems the big upticks are in the more traditional conservative states.

What gives?

Its pretty obvious to us in Texas this is a scam. We don't even have the numbers yet a very "FAKE RINO" Governor whom we all thought was a Conservative, but boy, were we wrong. This guy trying to shutdown Texas regardless. Not sure if they are trying to convert the State back to Blue, but I thing they are doing a fantastic job at this whole thing. I haven't seen this level of mayhem and shear incompetence since the fall of the USSR. Anyhow, in Texas, and we are running at about 1/3 the rate of infection we have every single year from the Flu and DONT wear masks. So its more than obvious now we are being scammed!

We should be legally permitted to kill anyone who gives us covid if they're not wearing a mask. A mask does prevent alot of the particles - why do you think hospitals stopped leaving masks sitting out? People kept walking off with them. Doctors and nurses wear the masks. Air flow being filtered and direct flow being stopped by the masks help a fuckton (despite the jamal tier specs on the napkins we call masks). And of course a greedy hollywood pedo kike would know how to handle the virus and tell the cattle to do the same - the money doesn't want to lose too many of it's human mules. I just hope has the virus mutates into something less lethal that the niggers and liberals who so valiantly volunteered to spread the virus to themselves by gathering in large groups without masks help via their deaths make this virus less impactful than it would've been on everyone else.

Focusing on universal masking alone may, paradoxically, lead to more transmission of Covid-19 if it diverts attention from implementing more fundamental infection-control measures.

/cvg/ is (((state))) propaganda and a few autists who desperately hope for this to be much more deadly than it actually is. This pathogen was designed to weaken/sicken people, kill a portion of population, crash economies and help ZOG's implement their Orwellian plans. Not to kill everyone. They want to make what's left of free world to concede defeat, because totalitarian, communist measures are the only thing that can effectively deal with this, and even the chinks who went the furthest with such measures struggle to contain it. It looks like something is not going according to the plan, and the only way out of this is to A C C E L E R A T E until ZOG's lose their ability to enforce the will of criminal regimes, so that genuine and non-corrupt scientists and medical professionals can find an actual cure. This, glad that someone can get past wishful thinking about their meme-waifu. The average age of covid deaths is 80+ years old. In my country there was a 100+ year old woman who recovered. Not even mentioning the death misattributed to covid, which is the reason why the tallies are so high. The real damage is economical and social. It's like a fucking huge Milgram experiment - people are conditioned to think that wearing masks is going to change anything, and they ridicule everyone who doesn't do it. It's sick and retarded, but not surprising in the slightest.

Read recently that rashes are now being considered coof symptoms to some. You guys buying into this one or is it possibly something to get more younger people into hostpitals just to get infected? Dunno if you guys saw that yet, I'm kinda sketchy on it since it can be easily caused by allergies and rashes can hit kids/babies hard alot due to such.

Alot of weird articles with "new symptoms for the young" seem to be a bit of a trend, possible new wave attempt but honestly at this point the world is so honked I can barely tell.

Also covid toes are a thing apparently. Mass hysteria is going to be what hits the hardest if they keep making new symptoms for people of diffrent age groups. Not touching your face is a skill everyone should learn. I spent a few weeks in feb/march doing a dry run for when coronachan arrived in my city. I fucked up plenty before I learned not to touch my face, and how to remember that my hands are possibly contaminated.

Or just wear gloves, but yeah, if you are constantly taking off and putting on your mask, that's a problem. When I go out, the mask stays on until I can get home, take it off and wash my hands.

Most people probably don't do this.

>ZOG got double crossed on this one

Are you sure about that? They could be faking the cases/deaths in order not to look suspicious. We've seen how easy it is to manipulate the data for political purposes. I'm inclined to believe that the virus is only one component of the disease. Others being bacteria, airborne poisons or radiation. The virus is real, but seeing how divergent it's effects are, there must be something else making it more or less lethal. And I doubt it's the genes, since it would apply to other diseases as well. If people had such different genetics when it comes to immune response, there would be countless studies documenting that over the decades, and there would simply be no seasonal flu or other epidemics. Yet, most people tend to get those (with all the effects).

This would allow them to get rid of populations or individuals they find problematic without arising suspicion, a perfect crime. They've been spraying us with something which caused similar effects (the immuno-suppressing ones) over the previous years, often followed with pneumonia as well, but those were not as difficult or as deadly as the ones that people are having now. And it simply refused to go away, no matter how much it was treated.

Don't get me wrong, this thing is nasty and will attempt to kill you. If you have some health defects or weak immunity, you should be very careful. But it's not a mass extinction event that people are portraying it as. Most people already have it, without knowing to be having it. The question is, what triggers it's effects. It seems that (((someone))) is creating a great polarization in society, one side being for treating it like it's just a flu, another being for oppressive measures. Taking into the account how kikes operate with their false dichotomies, both options are most likely wrong and are meant to maximize the damage. They don't want people to figure out the actual solution.

>people are conditioned to think that wearing masks is going to change anything I've noticed the IQ bell curve manifest with this one as well, low IQ people are completely careless, average and slightly above average people get all hysterical and gobble up the propaganda, while high IQ people realize the futility of half-measures in the long run. Seeing how supposedly infective it is, you would need to wear gloves, mask with appropriate filter, eye covering etc. at all times while in public, while constantly disinfecting clothes or wearing protective suits, which is simply too impractical for people to function in regular settings. While these measures do reduce the spread rate, it's an uphill battle in the long run. In other words, people will either develop immunity (or at least the ability to fight it like other flu), a cure, or die.

Seeing how many of those towers and installations popped up after the curfew, it's very likely it has something to do with it. Regardless of it being 4 or 5G. The effects could probably be caused to a certain extent by 3G as well, if you are close enough to the emitter. Quite curious for the government and telecom companies to install so many of those while people are locked at homes during the state of emergency and pandemic, it's as if they had no better things to do.

Well anon it is a pathogen, not a virus. The one thing the globalretards fear more than anything is disease because it is indiscriminate and it can and will wipe them off planet as quickly as it will wipe us off planet. But for them the fear was instilled in them at a genetic level...for us, not so much.

>This would allow them to get rid of populations or individuals they find problematic without arising suspicion, a perfect crime. They can do that anytime and there is fuck all you can do about it. Sure, White USA can and will fight the entire planet eventually...and this is not the 'end' of the pandemics that will grind humanity into paste...this is only the very beginning. The problem with your position is that there is no more ability to control the masses as tech accelerates. They are literally fucked when it comes to ruling over a highly advanced technological society which is why they are pushing as hard as they can for BLM BULLSHIT and central commie planning.

So why does the SARS-CoV-2 genome end in 33 A's ??

It's a NOP sled, a trick used in computer viruses, used to raise the probability of a piece of code (randomly injected into the host) to be actually ran. In that context, it's always a starting point. Its possible that this tail-of-As, as described here, is actually not a "tail" (end of data, last piece translated, etc), but a "head" instead? A "head" that is "caught" or "detected" by something and then it is where the process begins and proceeds with reading/processing/replication, or fails if the A-chain is too short and the process "loses its grasp" on it?

In short everyone is being infected by a nanotech virus.

Ok. Let me dumb it down for you small brained nigger fuckers.

No human is immortal. The only way humans survive is by breeding offspring.

If /ourgirl/ causes reproductive sterility then there will not be enough offspring to maintain a productive and survivable society (assuming that the offspring don't get infected as well compounding the breeding problem). Unless humans breed, humans will die out. Therefore potential ELE for humans.

>B-b-but no evidence of this.

See >>141838

>Coronavirus may be sexually transmitted and cause male infertility: study and pic which shows the occurrence of ACE II receptors in various internal organs including the ovaries. This is important. One male can get 50 women pregnant at once. One woman cannot get pregnant to 50 men at once.

><https://archive.vn/U6ByV>

Virtually no one seems to be studying the sterility effects of /ourgirl/, I have not seen one study using empirical data of fertility rates. Why? Because men usually only get their semen tested if there is already cause to think that sterility may be the reason for difficulty of getting a woman pregnant. As this is a rare occurrence among normalfags, the vast majority would not have had their semen tested. therefore there is not really a reference point for male semen virility.

The only way the medical profession would be able to determine any sterility caused by /ourgirl/ would be to study semen of adult males that have had children. If there is a drastic drop in quality of spermatozoa to the point where it would be deemed impossible for the male to have reproduced. If the male's offspring is his, then the logical conclusion would be that /ourgirl/ has had a measurable affect on sperm production. I have not heard of any study that has done that. I doubt that many would think to do that type of research as many medical researches seem to be focused on finding a cure (or at least treatment) for /ourgirl/. I am unaware of how female sterility could be measured other than a measurement on the rate of reproductive difficulties.

If either of you faggots have a valid argument to counter these points, please speak up. If not, shut up.

Wow, took a while to out yourself FEDERAL AGENT.

Having fun sucking KIKE-DICK at our expense?

You really are the lowest form of scum. If you despise us white people so much, why are you on here? Too stupid to work anywhere else? Did you get outed in the jewish media for polishing too many hebrew dildos while sucking your black boyfriends cock? Wow, what a gay-ass-trooper-for-kike-dick-you-are! Special Award!

You're actually worse than a kike. You're like their shit. Infected, betraying, pustule of sociopathic shit.

I want you to fucking die horribly of the coof. Worthless fucking lying retard. Sell out scum. Non-white imposter.

Too other anons, only the chink and israel shills are left. As most who've stuck around since the very first posts know. It is the AIDS RNA virus, the immune system won't retain antibodies to the 'mutating corona spike (part)', ie, you'll catch it again. It may be worse the second time around. Do everything in your power to prevent yourself from catching it, (as if these hundred posts haven't been saying that already).

China and israel (by default) are trying to downplay, and obfuscate the pandemic. Now it's a race to see who can make the other country penniless first. Do not fall for their 'cuckmuzzel', nothingburger, and other demoralization threads and posts.

Wear that mask, even if you feel stupid. Wear glasses and gloves. Carry a tiny bottle of isopropol alcohol and spray that shit on yourself and your face whenever you can. Don't let those commie cunts beat you!

Lastly, ALL the action is at 4chan. I'm an 8chaner-&4 before exodus, things are really stirring, you are missing out. It's starting to reek of a HOT WAR buildup. It IS NOT sabre rattling. (The usual pre-war checklist, abolition of trade, closing of flights, shutdown of embassies). Normally there is a process of political bickering between two sides, which ends up being a nothing burger, this time, they are not doing that, which means it could be deadly serious. At least be informed. Most of you have prepped, but you - may - actually - require - more. China are only exporting what's LEFT in their warehouses, they are barely producing anything new. India production is unknown? Know that when the top level 'elite class' pedophiles are being outed, Ghislaine and her other ghostly consorts (Bill Ultrafaggot CIA Gates), you can automatically expect the world jews to be organizing their shit to start a massive terrorism strike, dirty war or hot war as their cover up - backup plan. We are talking potential Armageddon level of happening on top of our girl Coronachan. Do not get caught out. No one is doomposting yet, we early 8fags know how they think, work and operate, so be extra warned. Stay safe anons, I've been artposting since the beginning. Coronachan draw and mememaking. I won't be anymore. Good riddance you fellow faggots. See you gay cunts at the pozzed 4chan. And to that FEDERAL AGENT newsposting. The Original Newspost Guy was way better than you, you fucking jewish pedophile. >Seeing how supposedly infective it is, you would need to wear gloves, mask with appropriate filter, eye covering etc. at all times while in public, while constantly disinfecting clothes or wearing protective suits, which is simply too impractical for people to function in regular settings. While these measures do reduce the spread rate, it's an uphill battle in the long run. In other words, people will either develop immunity (or at least the ability to fight it like other flu), a cure, or die. People continue to bring up arguments that masks limit the range of droplets that escape you, but the spread of corona isn't limited to just droplets. It's an airborne disease, there's no way to escape it without drastic measures. Ever notice how proud the stupid people are of their masks? The lower the IQ, the greater chance they will attempt to chastise the non-compliant. When you take a person with very little accomplishments in life, they revel in the opportunity to experience a sense of imperious superiority, even if false.

Wasn't most research related to this classified as a highly confidential matter of national security in most countries? I guess whoever manages to find a solution (an actual solution, not some pre-planned kikery or scam like what Bill Gates is proposing) will emerge as a new leader on a global stage. Well, "leader" as we know who runs the world, but any country developing a cure first would benefit tremendously from it. They would be seen as a savior. If there was an independent group in some country that's strong enough to resist the tentacles of the mafia and avoid getting suicided for their findings.

Vitamin C actually works to a certain extent. Luckily, more and more normies are waking up to the schemes of medical and pharmaceutical mafias and globokikery in general. I wonder what motivated people like Gates to be complicit in this, as if he wasn't already a good goy (or a crypto-kike) enough, and he already has enough money to buy entire countries and get as many child hookers as he wants. He was most likely blackmailed by his handlers to act the role of the "evil rich white guy" and serve as a front for organizations which are truly behind this, those being run by kikes/Mossad.

A lot of findings about it make no sense whatsoever, which leads me to believe that the disease itself is activated by some other components. For example, you have married couples where one has it and another doesn't, and people who took all precautions getting it while those who didn't give a fuck not. You might have a virus, but you likely won't get sick of it and/or die of it unless someone activates it/sets it to kill mode. Or there is no virus and we are just being poisoned/irradiated/infected with GMO superbacteria/phages etc. What's certain is that it's not behaving like a natural disease, and it's symptoms being so divergent, as well as it appearing to retreat and emerge again point out to other causes. I highly doubt someone was able to pack an actual autonomous AI into such a small code-string. Maybe it's controlled through wireless networks.

Let's read the article shall we?

>But according to Prof Loman, who is based at the University of Birmingham, the new strain is not thought to increase the risk of death or lengthen hospital stays.

>"We didn't see any significant association with survival and the length of hospital stays with this mutation - we don't think this mutation is important in changing virulence. The effect seems to be on transmissibility."

The rest is mostly fearmongering.

What is my long term survival rate after catching covid twice? I fought it once for 3 months than it went away for a short period in June and now it is back for another round after eating a COVID infected onion that I bought on the first round.

I can feel my brain become cold but I've never developed ARDS or even the inability to walk and the chest doesn't have any pain or pain is rare and quick. I am a man at the age of 25 with very little college debt due to having an online job or at least I had little debt until the medical bills came. Now I am like every other millennial thanks to idiots calling COVID a hoax instead of telling me to get a HAZMAT suit and it also sucks due to my area which is one of the worst on the map. Never checked my circulatory system due to getting an x-ray for a lung but I've never felt it become fatal outside of some parts feeling cold especially the brain.

So how long until I die and what can I do to prevent my death? What is the redpilled way in defeating COVID after the second infection.

I've already gotten the scans on my lung twice with zero damage. (I hope I didn't track any new germs on the second visit) My lung is healthy based on the x-ray scans (or they are lying and being jewish and I have not seen the scans myself but it doesn't hurt to speak), it is the circulatory and nervous system for me that is fucked. I felt fluctuations in the heart, but I have never had trouble speaking. However I had have the chills and a cold brain. I have not gotten back the covid tests so I would not know my blood oxygen levels but temperatures in the body range from 96.2 when waking up and burning to 98.1 during the day.

I will tell you that on the day I got sick in March, I was riding the bus and saw a bright blue truck doing something suspicious. It had a jewish sign and ISIS letters. I've heard reports that there were jewish agents buying ventilators around the world. I wish I had took pictures. I am sure you would have gotten a kick out of it. I believe that I am a target of an attack by MOSSAD who targeted my city on the day of the lockdown.

If you're referring to my statement about the onion, there's a major difference between your brain and spine and an onion in your pantry. The onion is dead, and is void of human cells for the virus to replicate in. Even if we were talking about a live onion, this would be the single most groundbreaking virus since the advent of virology. Never in my six years of study have I encountered a virus that can infect both plants and animals. They're just too genetically distinct. Possible it's a resurgence of his original infection, but anon could have just picked up a new case from someone.

The only way to know if it is the same infection or not it to check the DNA of the virus. If it is the same as before then the virus must have hidden in his nervous system. If it is different then it would be a re-infection.

COVID-19 surveillance is going to be used to locate White draft-dodgers who refuse to participate in (((their))) war with china. If (((they))) can't find you they'll make sure you're economically castrated with the roll out of digital currency (COVID as the reason for going cashless). China will be used as a meat grinder to rid (((them))) of military aged males who would pose a problem for (((their))) domestic plans. It will also be used as a pretense to (further) stifle freedom stateside.

To those who are thinking I'm chang-posting I pose a question...

Why would you fight communists abroad while communists are destroying your Country at home?

Molymeme did a video in 2015 about r/K-selection strategies. The relevant part mentioned the sending of K-selected to fight elsewhere while the r-selected inherit the nation unopposed Koikatsufag, I want to thank you for continuing these news posts.

The Boston Children's Hospital research mentions the virus uses a hairpin configuration to fool the immune system to make ineffective antibodies. This reminded me of Dr. Lieber's "hairpin transistors in a lipid sheath." The 5G connection is also disturbing.

>5G Technology and induction of coronavirus in skin cells

Ah, a computer virus causing a biological one. Absolutely transhumanist. Got a full article? Is this limited to 5G though? Seems like they could use other networks as well. This appears to be the most likely scenario so far. It would explain how transmission and effects are so seemingly random and how many people who were in close contact with the infected don't get it (or the symptoms) despite it's supposed high infectiousness. Or how people who have it react so differently. They are targeted. Sure, there are countless other factors like age, genetics, health condition, etc. but no other virus has such a huge divergence of symptoms and lethality. Even conventional bioweapons. Which would also explain the witch hunt against Huawei and Chinese 5G networks while pushing for American-Israeli ones. This is not only about economic competition or even espionage, those towers are silent weapons of war. The question is, what else can serve the same role?

No point I might have already picked up a new case in addition to the case I already have while visiting the ER the second time. I can feel even worse chills now plus I used garlic to get rid of clots which I then overdosed on, completely spilling blood and getting rid of most of the functionality of the lower digestive system?

While I usually do post like a glownigger just to troll here, I am not a glownigger. My life was becoming shitty anyways all due to the virus so I figured I might as well die before the world gets even worse.

We might have a conflict with China or we can have more bioweapons come to America, either way I am fucked and this is during a time in life in which my parents wanted me to live on my own without their help. I used to live on my own using an online source of revenue completely independent of my parents until profits were hit. With no way to get a real job due to being hit, what is the point. The zionists at the top have won and they are laughing at the target that they have silently murdered using their secret MOSSAD truck to spread the virus around my hometown. I had everything going for me up until COVID-19 which ruined any chances of having wealth, family, and a means to leave my town to get a real job. Now I have devolved into the stereotypical nu-male with hundreds of debt but instead of college, it is medical.

There is no way that I will be able to join the elites by being a FED banker using their printers to make infinite money for myself to then use that money to take over the country. My plans to take over America are screwed and I want revenge on my death.

So what do my parents tell me to do about this situation, they tell me to get a job during a terrible economy while having no driving skills to get out of this COVID-hotspot that they trapped me in and even worse, threw me in a situation that could have easily been prevented if they had just let me stay with them for until the disease blows off while obtaining interns/work experience. My parents are idiots who think that 96.2 temp at the morning is nothing to worry about and the scans that I don't have make everyone I talk to think I am some kind of schizo. They are the worst kind of boomers that you can think of. They have no concern of helping the white man against the enemy due to being deluded into thinking that I am survive in a broken system.

One anon described having the disease and experienced a strong smell if gasoline and burning feeling on the skin. Probably the result of chemical reaction caused decay and rapid cell death. She was literally being cooked from the inside out. In a more severe case a woman in her 20's needed a double lung transplant. Doctors described "The 10-hour procedure was challenging because the virus had left her lungs full of holes and almost fused to the chest wall"

Multi-site co-mutations and 5'UTR CpG immunity escape drive the evolution of SARS-CoV-2

>Moreover, we found significant decrease of CpG dinucleotide at positions 241(c)-242(g) in the 5'UTR during the evolution, which was verified as a potential target of human zinc finger antiviral protein (ZAP). The four dominant mutations, three significant multi-site co-mutations, and the potential escape mutation of ZAP-target in 5'UTR region contribute to the rapid evolution of SARS-CoV-2 virus in the population, thus shaping the viral infectivity and pathogenicity.

Basically she mutates fast, and has a good chance of becoming multi-drug resistant. This also means pursuit of a vaccine is all the more likely a massive waste of time and money.

I've seen countless towers and emitters pop up during the lockdown, and it's not only about the transmission type/frequency, it's about how much power someone puts into it and is there anyone legit to check that since we can assume all regulatory bodies to be compromised. I should look up some instruments for detecting a wide spectrum of emissions and their strength. But it doesn't need to be constant, they could target a certain area or try to direct it towards certain individuals, then switch it back to compliance mode. This is old news however, I am wondering did they come up with a way to induce viral sequence in your body by using much less power and on different bands.

>Imo it should be taken with a grain of salt since it was done by a bunch of dermatologists

Of course, but this possibility should not be overlooked, especially considering the direction where the technology is heading. It could be a two component disease, one being an actual virus, another being a code transmitted by radio which activates it or makes it more lethal.

i suspect the kikes will use corona as a cover story for their upcoming geocide of boomers via the winter flu kikecine.

there has been a lot of shill activity to stir disdain / mocking for 'boomers'. Also they are rebooting western economies. Banker kikes will often shed the dead weights of society during economic reform. Oaps in general are a large dead weight on society, and boomers (born 1945 - 1949) are a particularly large dead weight.

I think this winter many of them will get a flu kikecine laced with deadly toxin. When they die off en-mass it'll be propounded in the mass media as ' a tragic combo of flu and corona ' they might fool normies, and most of the tards on /pol/, they don't fool me. I can see whats coming. If you want the oaps in your family to live thru this economic reboot, then stop them taking the kikecine this winter.

CONFIRMED! Real Origin of Covid-19 Found in Florida!

Few days ago, I received some leaked documents from an anonymous contributor.

After investigation, I found something explosive.

According to solid evidence, Mary Ellen Ralph, 66-year old, living now happily in Crystal River, Florida, was infected with Coronavirus last July and luckily survived. She was diagnosed as pneumonia, with ground-glass lung images and upper respiratory symptoms. All these manifestations matched with those of Covid-19. Her blood sample has been tested and confirmed now by some friends of mine in the hospital as Covid-19 positive.

Additionally, there were three similar cases in the neighboring county Ocala from June to August last year, Enna Maulseed, Judy Marie McIntosh and Dean Harris. They also went through a series of tests and were diagnosed as pneumonia back then. Unfortunately, they didn't make it. May they rest in peace.

This leads to a cluster of coronavirus infections last summer in Florida.

Apparently, Mary Ellen from Crystal River is proved to be one of the earliest cases in the States, along with three similar cases and more nearby. All these add up to one conclusion: Florida was where the virus began in mid2019. The only question is whether this was covered up or simply neglected.

Because of the press conference censored by china (twitter), china (twitter) is pushing back fallaciously:

>Not effective

but the FDA says

>Likely not effective

Which are definitely not the same thing. Unless ur a dum liburul.

They are bashing Hydroxychloroquine + zinc because they know it works and they don't want a cure, they want a nano-chipped vaccine deployed by the Gates Foundation! And I have no intention of ever taking it! I'll give them bullets before ever I roll up a sleeve for them.

No doubt. That's why this boomer packed up and moved to a much more rural area. I'm not taking any tests nor will I take a vaccine. My plan is to stay the hell away from the medical system from now on, and if I die naturally so be it. At least I'll die free, on my own terms and in my own home. I'm not going to be treated like cattle. I'll be doing my very best to become more self-sufficient and better prepared. Got a comfy country home now, perfect for homesteading / growing big gardens / raising some livestock and DIY work/hobbies. It will take a year (or two) to adjust and fix up a few things around the house that need attention. Other than that, glad I've bailed. I'm done with all this bullshit, I really am. Hopefully some others can and are willing to do the same here, even if you can't afford a home you can always pack up an RV or rent a trailer, something, to get the heck away from all the non-sense going on around these cities today. I just hope anons reject Bill Gates ID2020 vaccine agenda, I hope the country resists these trojan horses and stop trusting their contaminated tests!

PS: anyone see the video where one of the 'health officials' linked to Gates and all the rest of their cronies openly admitted corona was being used as a weapon to further their agenda, and openly threatened they'll release a worse bioweapon if they don't get what they want? That video is some damning evidence how these scoundrels operate and they'll brazen about it too. Video should be on Bitchute somewhere.

>Just the flu, bruh. The flu doesn't cause all that organ damage.

It is an infection that is not limited to the respiratory system as many associated conditions such as heart muscle damage has been noted. As the article noted, the researchers are unaware of any studies to confirm or reject the hypothesis of viral infection causing testicular damage which would lead to male infertility. Does /ourgirl/ enter through (and damage) the lungs? Yes, however, /ourgirl/ is not limited to that one entry point. It can also enter the body through the eyes, ears and even through unprotected sexual intercourse.

If true and almost anything is possible with the advancement of technology these days then I am not at all surprised. It actually makes sense why they are supporting the social credit score, collecting our internet history, collecting our financial records, trying to chip us like cattle... it would all fit into a master plan for covert subjugation: obey or be exterminated remotely with no evidence behind the beginning wave of genocide. Truly a Hellish nightmare on Earth scenario. I would pray to Christ you kooks are wrong.

The jews are downplaying the virus as well, and they have the highest infection rates in NY and NJ.

I don't expect everyone here to feel the same way about viruses as I do, and I don't expect everyone to be as educated on the subject. As someone who has an interest bordering on obsession though, I can tell you honestly that this is the single most diabolically virus I have ever seen. What you need to understand is that a virus is not its CFR. If it was Ebola would be a problem, it isn't. Ebola is a very interesting and incredible virus in it's own right. High CFR, breaking 90% with some strains, it's R0 is universally pitiful though, down around 2. Measles is typically laughed at, but it cuts a much wider swath through just about any society even though the CFR is usually somewhere in the neighborhood between 0.05% and 6%. What makes Measles so heavy handed is the record holding R0, usually around 13-18, but has been recorded higher still.

Whatever the CFR of Coronavirus is, its R0 is significantly higher than the seasonal flu which is somewhere between 1 and 2 depending on the season, usually cited at 1.3. Corona is being estimated 3-6, but personally I believe a more realistic number is twice that. Corona has killed five times as many people in Utah in the five months it has been around than an entire eight-month season of the flu in any given year since records began. At some point you're going to have to zoom out from this autistic CFR hang up and look at the big picture, and that's assuming you're arguing in good faith.

Besides that's the sequela, or secondary effects of a disease, are some of the farthest reaching and harshest I've seen. That's the brain, lung, heart, testicular, etc damage in Corona's case. I posted a study, I believe in the last thread, that shows 2/3rds of the asymptomatic carriers involved had some degree of lung damage. Many of them were young, healthy individuals. Combine that with the facts that there is no sustained immunity in those who develop it, and most asymptomatics don't seem to develop immunity at all, and you have a recipe for disaster. That's exactly why people who test positive twice have a harder time the second go-round. What do you think is going to happen to them in bout 3 and 4? It's not going to be pretty.

If you've been reading my posts you know I don't advocate mask mandates, and I'm against vaccines, full stop. I'm not interested in infringing on anyone's freedom, much less stopping Corona-chan. If you don't want to wear a mask, then don't. I don't give a single fuck. I just don't know why you want to push that shit on /our guys/, go tell those niggers on black twitter or some shit. I'm sorry if you cant watch muh mandingo sportsball or something. If it's because you cant work, look into something in the incinerator industry, it's absolutely booming right now. All I know is calling this nothing and spouting the same tired shit isn't going to change anything. Because it is something, and it's not going away.

If it actually ends up killing off the populated shithole cities it may be worth it for this country after all, sadly. But I expect they will come for the rest of us out in rural America via contaminated tests and vaccines. I just want to give them a warning right here and now, if they come near me they get shot, end of story.

It's just one of theories that are being considered, but the fact remains that this (((pandemic))) can serve as a perfect fog of war for them to get rid of their opponents. Once you get infected and tested positive, there are a lot of other things that can kill you which can be made to look like a virus and have similar symptoms. The ones that don't require cutting edge technology. Chemical, radiation poisoning or (((accidental))) medical malpractice that's hard to detect, especially in such conditions.

Younger people living in countries where (((state))) owns your organs in case of "brain death" should be particularly concerned as they might be the next (((covid19))) victim and their organs might end up in Israel.

Jews are probably the most well informed, and most paranoid people on the planet, if they don't give two fucks about it, then there is probably a reason for that.

Yes, this thing kills slowly and gradually, but there must be a way to stop it (longer term) that doesn't involve (((vaccines))). Whoever made this, would not release it without having a cure ready.

Florida couple arrested for refusing quarantine

<https://archive.fo/SijuS>

A couple living in the Florida Keys were arrested Wednesday morning for refusing to quarantine after testing positive for the Coronavirus. Jose Interian, 24, and Yohana Gonzalez, 26, are now facing second-degree misdemeanor charges for violating isolation rules for a quarantine. The Miami Herald reported that a neighbor caught the couple on video walking around outside of their home and "going about normal life functions."

Neighbors were furious after they saw the couple walking their dog, washing the car and going to the grocery store. The videotape was then given to police and authorities moved in and arrested the couple. Two Key West residents who tested positive for COVID-19 were jailed Wednesday night after defying a quarantine order from the state health department, the city manager said.

Freire posted on his Facebook page July 14 that he had tested positive for the virus, urging anyone who had been in contact with him in the past week to get tested. But he and Gonzalez failed to follow orders to remain at home and wear face masks around others, according to an isolation order issued to both on July 21 by the Florida Department of Health in Monroe County that directed them to stay at home for 14 days.

On Wednesday, the property manager at their apartment complex reported to Key West police that the two were not following the order, saying Freire had walked his dog, gone to the grocery store and washed his car. Both had been seen leaving and returning home without wearing face masks, according to a police report. The property manager gave police some video footage of the couple. It was taken by a surveillance camera located in a common area of the complex. "An officer took the video to the judge and the judge signed the warrant," Key West City Manager Greg Veliz said.

>Chinese whistleblower alleges coronavirus originated from People's Liberation Army military lab

A Chinese virologist and whistleblower on Tuesday (July 28) alleged that the Wuhan coronavirus (COVID-19) came from a People's Liberation Army (PLA) lab. On Tuesday, Lude Press (路德社) held a livestream interview with Yan Li-Meng (閻麗夢), a virologist who was employed as a researcher at the University of Hong Kong's School of Public Health when the coronavirus pandemic began and who previously accused Beijing of covering up the initial outbreak in Wuhan. Yan said that she spoke out early on because she had seen innocent doctors and patients being exposed to the highly contagious virus.

She said that as a doctor and scientist, she really could not remain indifferent. She then claimed that during her research into the human-to-human transmission of the virus, she traced the source of the outbreak to the PLA. "At that time, I had clearly assessed that the virus came from a Chinese Communist Party military lab. The Wuhan wet market was just used as a decoy," said Yan. She then claimed that when she reported her findings to her superiors, she was not taken seriously. The Shandong native felt it would be impossible for her to report the discovery to the high levels of the CCP: "I knew that once I spoke up, I could disappear at any time, just like all the brave protesters in Hong Kong. I could disappear at any time. Even my name would no longer exist." She also emphasized that it was her responsibility to get the information out before being "disappeared."

Couple of Libtards Throw Hot Coffee in Man's Face for Not Wearing Mask - Get Asses Beat

<https://counterglobalist.news/california-couple-throw-hot-coffee-in-mans-face-for-not-wearing-mask-beat-up/>

"I'm like bleeding out of my face right now"

In a new viral video a couple of Karens (one was a man) were harassing two men about not wearing masks. They apparently didn't know they were being filmed because they both launched HOT coffee into a man's face and then acted like victims when he defended himself. If you throw hot coffee into a man's face you deserve to get your ass kicked. They actually had enough nerve to call the police and claim they were assaulted. Of course this video disproves their story. Watch it for yourself below and then make sure to share it everywhere so the real victim doesn't go to jail.

UPDATE: According to reports, the police laughed at the two masked assailants when they arrived and found out that they had started the altercation. The man who had coffee thrown in his face chose not to press charges on the couple.

From IBTimes: According to the Reddit user who posted the video the couple tries telling the cops that the man attacked them "unprovoked," but his friend presented them with the bodycam and officers made the couple apologize to the men.

I don't understand the tone of his thread. What exactly is the endgame for you corona cultists? Are these just the end times to you? You can't expect a young man like me to give up so easily. Coronachan is killing everyone and vaccines are the mark of the beast? So what the fuck are we supposed to do? Suffocate on our own blood and await god's judgment? The biggest problem? Many of these faggots don't know how to meme responsibly:

-The Demiurge

-Roko's Basilisk

-1948 (What 1984 was supposed to be titled)

-The Saturnine retards putting cubes everywhere and thinking they're doing real magick.

-unironic belief in the matrix

Paranoia and the paranoid fearmongers are no better than the shills.

For the record, the matrix series has great action scenes but it's story is shitty, philosophy 101 tripe that sniffs it's own farts, and rips off good sci-fi.

That's up to you to figure out, anon. I do believe these are the end times, but I'm not a christian and don't believe a lot of their claims about the implications of the end. They might be saved through it all, I don't know. I know their eschatology isn't the only one unfolding though, there are at least four prophesies that seem to be coming true before our eyes. As a hermeticist I think they're all worth giving the time of day. A lot of people don't see it, but a lot of them aren't keep a very close eye on things. Even for the ones who are barely paying attention though it should be pretty clear that pestilence, war, and famine are beating down our door right now. We have to play like the game wont end though. Whether that means denying that it ever could end, or taking steps to ensure survival in the event of catastrophe. Personally I don't think everyone will die, so given a bit of planning, maybe a little luck, you might (not) make it.

Chances are, coffee thrower would get off with a slap on the wrist and an admonition to not do it again (wink, nod) from the liberal DA. Better to have a threat of prosecution, than a real data point of someone doing it and getting off with no (or light) charges.

The clinic is called: Living Health Holistic Health Care. To be frank, you go to a place called that, you shouldn't be surprised when they shove a mesquite twig up your ass and call you cured. People are so fucking stupid.

Mesquite? That's awfully specific anon. Too subtle, eh? Mesquite grows in texas, and has nasty thorns.

Not surprising, depending on the locale, coughing on someone could be assault or battery. If you intentionally cough on a cancer patient, I have no sympathy for you, you are just being an asshole.

Yep, there are already treatments for it, Big Pharma and their corporate media stooges just don't want anyone to know about it (or even doctors to talk for that matter). Whether it be boosting the immune system naturally (Vitamins C & D, Chaga mushroom (anti-viral), zinc supplement and curcumin) or whether it be from Hydroxychloroquine + Zinc + Azithromycin to treat it. >Next big COVID-19 treatment may be manufactured antibodies

><https://archive.vn/7AWSG>

>Fucking called it.

For God's sake anon, it is not a fucking 'virus'...it has never been a fucking virus and it will never be a fucking virus. It is a pathogen that has phages as its main route of infection. There is no way to make 'antibodies' for phages. They mutate way to fast for there to ever be anything effective...and if they manufactured something that could defeat phages and it SOMEHOW got loose into the wild (who know how this would happen) it would literally be the end of all life on the planet because then phages could no longer keep the planet in balance. Every time I see one of these 'articles' I want off this fucking ride through ClownHell even more.

I also have some new info on that Bunya, and a bit of speculation that could be exciting or troubling depending on where you stand. I'll try to make it quick, but first I should explain that Bunyavirus refers to the taxonomic order Bunyavirales. Thanks to chink outlet Global Times we now know that the virus in question is a tickborne virus called Dabie Bandavirus, aka Dabie Mountain Virus or SFTS Bunyavirus. Formerly known as Huaiyangshan Banyangvirus, originally referred to as SFTS Virus. I'm not very familiar with this one, but based on my research human to human transmission has been confirmed, and cat to human transmission is suspected. Here's the article I'm referring to.

New virus passed via tick bites emerges in China, killed seven so far <https://archive.vn/XSakY>

It's not actually that new. First isolated in '09, and was responsible for 8 deaths in South Korea between 2012-'13, and the deaths of a woman and her cat in Japan in 2017. It's believed to have a CFR somewhere in the neighborhood of 12-30%, and it believed to be transmitted human to human via blood or mucous. It's considered to be a hemorrhagic fever, and is known to infect rodents, cats, hedgehogs, weasels, brushtail possums and yaks in addition to humans. Here are my sources, all but one of them are outdated, as Bunyaviridae is no longer a virus family, it was split into 12 families in 2017 and became the order Bunyavirales. Might be something to keep in mind if you really care to dig in.

<https://archive.vn/Uqph>

<https://archive.vn/vSXkt>

<https://archive.vn/mcg9S>

<https://archive.vn/1C4UE>

<https://archive.vn/E7Jxn>

On top of all that it's been found in four species of ticks, including the Asian Longhorn Tick. Which is of note because this tick has recently been found in America, and females can breed without males!

Ohio: Asian longhorned tick detected in Gallia County

<https://archive.vn/eLaho>

>"Due to the nature of this pest, the female ticks can reproduce without a male, so it only takes one tick to create an established population in a new location," said ODA State Veterinarian Dr. Tony Forshey. "This pest is especially fatal to livestock, so producers should practice preventative measures and be on the lookout for this new threat."

I think you can see where I'm going here, but it would be absolutely NO PROBLEM for one to a few chinamen to come over here with a few of these things or more, and seed the countryside with them.

Granted I'm jumping to a few conclusions here, I'm well aware, but it's not that crazy.

>Murder hornets

>Mystery seeds

Who knows what how far they've gone to try to screw us over.

Here's a bonus study on the ticks carrying Dabie-chan:

Haemaphysalis longicornis Ticks as Reservoir and Vector of Severe Fever with Thrombocytopenia Syndrome Virus in China

inb4 the jews. Yes yes, the enemy within. If I had a reason to pin it on them I would, but outside of speculating that the kikes are framing the chinks, I got nothin.

>>148756

Only a matter of time. Now that we have a name and know she's tickborne that might change the memetics a bit unfortunately, but you never know. Depends on how the drawfags read into it I guess. I wouldn't mind a bunnygirl though.

Los Angeles to cut off water, power to properties with gatherings

<https://archive.fo/UzJbq>

The Face Diaper brigade has finally resorted to outright blackmail by way of cutting off your power and water. Folks, without power your house is set back to the 1800's, without water your home is UNLIVABLE. Does anyone have intel on the mayor's mansion/summer house/etc? Anyone willing to start coordinating with your neighbors?

This is literally a threat to your lives, folks. If you aren't armed with at least a .40 caliber pistol and a .300 caliber rifle or above, GET THEM WHILE YOU CAN. Buy them with CASH. Then learn how to load, fire, and unload them without blowing off your hand or the head of your fellow militiaman. And then learn how to hit a human-sized target at the maximum effective range of your rifle.

If you can't afford a generator to power your whole house, stock up on potable water and talk to your neighbor(s) about keeping a chest freezer so that at the bare minimum you have somewhere to put your food and/or medication

There's never a guarantee of immunity anon. But if enough people get the vaccine, you have herd immunity, and you won't have disease spread. That's why when you have measles outbreaks that start in anti-vaxx strongholds, other kids get the measles also, vaccinated kids. Once you get below the rate for herd immunity, all bets are off, and the poor vaccine responders are also vulnerable.

I would imagine such a non-specialised virus would be a failure in the wild, either having a large and inefficient genome to allow it to infect everything effectively, or else have to sacrifice something else to achieve it. Still maybe a lab could artificially produce such an abomination.

It's probably possible, just extremely unlikely. From what I understand though, the key difference is the cell wall. Plant cells have a much harder wall that viruses cant penetrate, so they have to rely on something else to do that, usually a bacteria or fungus that damages those cells. Because of that, they don't have another means of entering a cell. I guess you could say they're sort of like hitchhikers that don't know how to drive. That said, I basically know jack shit about plant viruses.

It's only a tiny change. At some point early in the pandemic, one of the 30,000 letters in the genome of SARS-CoV-2 changed from an A to a G. Today, that mutation, at position 23,403, has spread around the world. It is found in the vast majority of newly sequenced viruses and has become the center of a burning scientific question: Has the mutation become so common because it helps the virus spread faster? Or is it just coincidence?

More than 6 months into the pandemic, the virus' potential to evolve in a nastier direction—or, if we're lucky, become more benign—is unclear. In part that's because it changes more slowly than most other viruses, giving virologists fewer mutations to study. But some virologists also raise an intriguing possibility: that SARS-CoV-2 was already well adapted to humans when it burst onto the world stage at the end of 2019, having quietly honed its ability to infect people beforehand.

>mumps

None of these diseases are to be trifled with, you can't possibly seriously say that someone would be better off getting polio than a vaccine. Yes, smallpox has been eradicated, via extensive worldwide vaccinations. But before then it was deadly, like polio, which is still around. Meningitis was also fuck you up royally if you even survive.

Stop being a retard, the only reason you think vaccines suck is that we haven't had a major outbreak of any of the truly painful, deadly, crippling diseases in years.

The immune system is based on ones' genetics. Even if modern vaccine and vaccine practices work perfectly, they will end up drastically weakening the genetics of all the various human sub-species. Diseases like those caused by virii and bacteria select those with the weakest immune systems within populations and then kill them off. This happens often enough before reproduction and so it causes the removal of both genes that directly cause weaker immune systems, as well as those that indirectly cause weaker immune systems (such as those responsible for certain types of risky and dangerous behaviours, such as faggotry, amongst any other behaviours that lead to immune weakening), from the gene pool as a whole.

This means that with mass vaccination the people lose their natural selection for immune fitness and strength, and so immune function is weakened en masse generation over generation. In this case I have no problems with vaccination so long as the eugenic principle of selection is maintained artificially somehow, with human selection and sterilization of the genetically unfit in general, and the immunologically unfit in specific. As a caveat, this also only works if the people selecting are trustworthy, noble, and dedicated to the good of the People/Volk and of Western/European Civilization itself.

Thank you for strawmanning me, as you quoted, I said almost every case, I've been vaccinated for MMR and the usual for a kid born in the 90's and know it can be useful but in most cases i think you should avoid it unless you are a an idiot who wants the weak to live. The first three I would agree, however Mumps was not and is not terribly deadly. It has a 1% to 0.1% CFR and this is probably somewhat high because the reported cases are supposed to have been under-reported. yes it can cause some permanent damage but even having been vaccinated i would much rather risk that than trust a multi national jew owned pharmaceutical corporation, or Bill Gates to vaccinate me. I know vaccines work and never suggested otherwise, but they also if you had actually read the photo, and checked it's claims and sources you would know that vaccines tend to weaken our immune systems leaving us MORE vulnerable in general to a NEW virus than surviving most of what you encounter in life. The data on the deadliness of this virus is leaning towards having a CFR, according to the CDC, ranging from 0.2 or exactly matching the flu so, it does not need a vaccine if one can even be made. also this>>149625

Prior to this, there were many mentions of one of most likely extinction level threats being superbacteria which would be immune to every antibiotic, and for which it would be very difficult to develop new ones. Even WHO made publications about that if I remember correctly. I wonder if this whole situation is somehow tied to that. Maybe there is another reason for all those measures that they are not telling us about. Or, if fungusfag's schizo theories were correct, it could be an attempt to create bacteriophages which would potentially fight superbacteria infections. Those being either released on purpose in a sort of global experiment, or leaking accidentally. Or they simply want to kill off everyone with weaker immunity so they reduce antibiotic consumption. It's a bit of a stretch, just something to consider.

Ayo, hol up. Are you saying that certain countries were too much of cucks to answer to that, despite their military doctrines allowing use of WMD's in such scenarios? I guess loudly wishing for that dam to break really showed them.

Ok, please enlighten me of these diseases where you are better off catching the disease than getting a vaccine. Because that's a fucking hard argument to make, a much easier one is that catching said disease is unlikely, therefore you don't want to risk side effects from a vaccine.

But it's a tough fucking lift to say you are better off catching the disease. So please, list me any of these diseases you would prefer to get over taking a vaccine. Because of all the vaccines I have had (and I have had many) none of them were casual diseases.

Are you saying you just want everyone to die? Because that's also a different argument, and not a terribly persuasive one.

You do list the mumps. Ok, 1-0.1% chance of death. I'll take the jab, because even if I do catch it, I'll probably be useless for at least a week. Then I have to take care of my family after I recover and they get it from me. So two weeks of my life and possibly a dead child. Nah, let me roll up my sleeve now.
>and checked it's claims and sources you would know that vaccines tend to weaken our immune systems leaving us MORE vulnerable in general to a NEW virus than surviving most of what you encounter in life.

Citation needed.

South Korea finds new 'mutated' coronavirus

<https://archive.vn/QqJ2j>

Pure speculation on my part, but something I'll be keeping an eye on. I don't have much info from Uzbekistan unfortunately, but it is a shithole. So I don't expect their reporting to be accurate. I'll see what I can dig up later when I have more time though. I'm sure we'll get more info before too long at any rate. I'm pretty excited tbh. Ganbatte, Corona-chan!

RUSSIA DEVELOPS CHINKFLU VACCINE

Russian President Vladimir Putin claimed Tuesday that Russia has developed the first coronavirus vaccine and said his daughter has taken it, local news agencies reported. Putin announced the registration of what Russia claims to be the first vaccine against Covid-19.

"As far as I know, a vaccine against a new coronavirus infection has been registered this morning, for the first time in the world," he said at a meeting with members of the government, RIA Novosti reported. "Although I know that it works quite effectively, it forms a stable immunity and, I repeat, has passed all the necessary checks," Putin said. He also reportedly stated that one of his daughters was vaccinated against the coronavirus, commenting, "In this sense, she took part in the experiment."

At the end of July, the World Health Organization said that there were 26 candidate vaccines in the clinical evaluation stage, including the one registered in Russia that was developed by the Gamaleya Scientific Research Institute of Epidemiology and Microbiology. Russia has denied that it is part of an "arms race" to develop a vaccine, saying it wants to cooperate with other nations. There is international skepticism that Russia has developed an effective and safe vaccine, however. The registration of the vaccine had been signaled earlier this month. Russian Health Minister Mikhail Murashko told reporters earlier in August that clinical trials of the coronavirus vaccine were over. "Clinical trials of a coronavirus vaccine developed by the Gamaleya center are over, paperwork is underway for the vaccine's registration," Murashko said, according to Russian news agency Tass.

>In Iowa, Gov. Kim Reynolds said early estimates indicate 10 million acres (4 million hectares) have been damaged in the nation's top corn producing state and many grain bins were destroyed. That would be nearly a third of the roughly 31 million acres (12.5 million hectares) of land farmed in the state. The most significant damage is to the corn crop, which is in the advanced stages of development nearly a month away from the beginning of harvest.

100 mph winds razing the IA landscape left crop damage visible from space. I would say this is yet another hit to the food supply chain but I thought much of the IA crop is either exported (which may have yet indirect consequences here due to losses abroad from the locust plagues) or turned into fuel ethanol. Still rising food prices are a no brainer thanks to Corona-chan as you have posted yourself.

The data basically says that masks which are not n95 masks don't really work. And that's true. Your homemade rag mask doesn't do shit. Those surgery masks don't do much either. And people wearing masks with their noses sticking out also doesn't do shit.

When I have been in public, people have always been taking their mask off to talk, etc. When I go out (p100) my mask doesn't fucking come off. I bring it in the car, when I have to get out, the mask goes on, doesn't come off until I get home. Wash hands, remove mask, wash hands again. If I was somewhere crowded, I put my clothes in the wash and shower. Even then, it's not 100%, but I think my chances are pretty good.

it prevents you from getting infected and hence building the herd immunity, which, as I understand it, is when 60% of the population has the virus but gets over it, thus new infections dont have symptoms or express the virus and be infectious. I'm still a bit dubious as to immunity as i dont think coronaviruses trigger the memory cells to carry around the antibodies. so immunity is less than 6 months.

Surgical masks aren't designed to protect you, retard, they're designed to be a physical barrier over the mouth so as to somewhat prevent the expulsion of aerosols, whether through coughing, sneezing or even speaking. Nothing short of a sealed respirator will actually protect you and effectively filter out those aerosols.

And if you seriously think Coronachan can't peg you via the exposed mucosa of the eyes, you're delusional. Sealed eye protection with a half face respirator or a full face industrial or military respirator with at LEAST a P100 grade filter is the ONLY adequate protection against this highly contagious airborne pathogen. poorly fitted n95 masks are about the same.

my minimum level of protection is a3Mhalf face respirator and close fitting eyepro. I'd wear a full face and suit if I thought i needed to.

If you wear a respirator, checking the seal is easy. Take your hands, cover the in ports, breathe out and in. Then do the same with the out port. If you feel a breeze on your face at the edges of the respirator, you need to adjust. Takes 5 seconds to check. After a while, you just notice if there's a leak. This isn't hard folks.

That Guy is a degenerate, I bet his breath stinks.

Anyway... the case of New Zealand is interesting from an epidemiological point of view. It was nominally corona free until recently. One theory is that the virus can exist in an asymptomatic and low infectivity latent state in the carrier.

With a R0 of about one, it could be passed among a chain of a handful of asymptomatic bugs for many months without causing enough concern in said bug to have them get tested (which is of limited sensitivity anyway). Then it passes to a bug who, for whatever reason, it is expressed into severe symptoms far higher infectivity, thus the reported outbreak. This may mean that the virus is endemic already even where no cases are reported in Mainstream channels. Could this be the case in NZ and other virus free populations?

Does it really matter? (You) anti-maskers say that the masks are unnecessary but the debate you are having is with a chronically debilitating viral illness, which is a fools errand, a suckers bet, fit only for the likes of (You).

Imagine still not knowing N95 is MORE effective at filtering particles less than .300. Testing is done at .300 because that is the most penetrating particle diameter. Read about NIOSH certification and try to explain this to others. Good luck.

The masks don't matter for this kind of bio-engineered virus, you'd know that by now from when this was first being reported on /pnd/.... this tiny virus can only be stopped by something like a P100 respirator, gloves, goggles, bio-suit and the decontamination procedures each time you go out and re-enter your home. That's the ironic thing... unless you are super-prepared (most are not) you'll end up getting this virus (sooner or later). The GOOD NEWS is that this virus is not as bad as the media made it out to be, and there are treatments and ways to boost your immune system to fight it off (which is what every-fucking-one should really be looking into and doing!) The virus doesn't kill everyone, it's like a bad flu for some people, but different individuals feel different symptoms and not always very bad ones. The worst for most people is shortness of breath for a while, as it does minor damage to the respiratory system. That too can be fixed and healed, naturally.
What you do have to really worry about: will they release another more deadly virus if we don't play by their draconian rules!?

I'm also urging caution here, but I would like to point out a that recourse will be available through federal court, which makes the situation a lot worse imo. Vaccine damage is always covered by the American taxpayer.
https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/National_Vaccine_Injury_Compensation_Program
>The Office of Special Masters of the U.S. Court of Federal Claims, popularly known as "vaccine court", administers a no-fault system for litigating vaccine injury claims. These claims against vaccine manufacturers cannot normally be filed in state or federal civil courts, but instead must be heard in the U.S. Court of Federal Claims, sitting without a jury.
>The National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program (VICP or NVICP) was established by the 1986 National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act (NCVIA), passed by the United States Congress in response to a threat to the vaccine supply due to a 1980s scare over the DPT vaccine. Despite the belief of most public health officials that claims of side effects were unfounded, large jury awards had been given to some plaintiffs, most DPT vaccine makers had ceased production, and officials feared the loss of herd immunity.[1]
>Self representation is permitted, although the NVICP also pays attorneys fees out of the fund, separate from any compensation given to the petitioner.[23]
This is "to ensure that vaccine claimants have readily available a competent bar to prosecute their claims".[24]
>In the vaccine court, as in civil tort cases, the burden of proof is a preponderance of evidence, but while in tort cases, this is met by expert testimony establishing a rigorous scientific case, in the vaccine court, the burden is met with a three prong test:[26] the petitioner must present a biological theory of harm, demonstrate a logical sequence of events connecting the vaccine to the injury, and establish an appropriate time frame in which injury occurred. The petitioner must also show that there is not another biologically plausible explanation for the injury.[26]

I always shall this book, but other than being a victim of vaccine damage and a father I don't have anything to do with it. It's just the best case I've ever found for freedom of choice for vaccination.

This pdf isn't the book so much as a brief overview, but it makes a decent case on it's own.

If anyone has a full pdf they can send me so I could spread it around, I'd greatly appreciate it.

Masks matter because viral load matters. N95 with eye protection at least ensures you will get a mild case as 95-99% of the virus won't get through. Then you will also gain the benefit of temporary antibodies.

A mild case can likely be resolved with quercetin, zinc, and maybe a couple liters of tonic water (contains small dose of quinine) per day to approximate a poor man's version of hydroxychloroquine. >>151106

RFDT:

Today I had a realization about corona. I couldn't imagine why they pushed it, and why they still push it after most people realized it's essentially a hoax. Current strain out there, it's a flu or milder. It makes no sense to make a deal out of it, the narrative would fail, even harder than it did so far, which would mean bad things for the instigators of the hoax. They don't want that. So why?

It has everything to do with vaccines. Hear me out.

The plan is near perfect. They release a mild virus and overplay it. At first most people will eat it up, horrific videos of people dying in China media panic, lockdowns, economic chaos. As it supposedly spreads, people realize it's bullshit, and some will start calling it out, but the government will keep enforcing pandemic rules, even though they ease up on them, because they don't want the economy to collapse and more importantly, the richest to lose any money. Just see how they forced small shops to close, but big shopping centres were wide open. Also sports events with tens of thousands in the arenas are back on the plate. So why is the govt. not backing down, demolishing their credibility? It's intentional and you will see in the end, it will strengthen their legitimacy and credibility.

This year or the next vaccines will start coming out. Now despite what everyone thinks, I have doubts these will be mandatory. It's essentially a test. Those who submit to the power, the new world order, will get their vaccines, their chips, for them, this will be it. On the grander scheme, they are done, but they will live and they will be the slave class of the future. The rebellious ones won't get the vaccine, despite the advertisements and media pushing the virus is extremely dangerous narrative.

The vaccine won't be for the current corona strain. It will be for the next. If they would just release a deadly strain straight up, everyone would be up at arms and the virus would kill the useful slaves, catching them off guard and not kill some of the rebellious, since some of them would get the vaccine after seeing a massive death toll. This will achieve them multiple goals: rebellious exterminated, since you won't be able to get the vaccine after they release the deadly strain. There will be a "shortage" or "queue". It will also push the governments' trustworthiness to a new high, since they "told you so", making the already servile panicked and pushing them to their agenda. No hostile voices anywhere, the few rebellious survivors will be suppressed by the media. The death toll will be big enough that they will call for a unified one world government to supposedly better organize workforce and save the economy, since the economy will be in the shitter, probably 1-2 billion death toll.

There are already a ton of mandatory vaccines. It's totally unnecessary to do any of this just to shill a vaccine.

In addition to that, literally everyone is an obedient sheep glued to their phone - There is no need to kill off the "rebellious ones".

its not about shilling the vaccine. There are still people who would resist, lets say, pedophilia or straight out killing people for wrongthink. After this, the remains will go along with everything because the media will tell them too and the few bad apples are not there to mouth offabout it and get the sheep thinking. Also it reduces the population and leaves the ones that are best suited to serving them, also creating chaos that allows the nwo. being able to make money off this directly and chip people is just a bonus for them. Its a pretty good plan, to be honest.

Hugs Over Masks Kitchener Ontario

<https://www.bitchute.com/video/f0HQIz9v41e0/>

This protest has been going for a couple weeks now and will continue still for one week more (possibly longer, it may be extended, but guaranteed one week more). You may drop by any time. The issues being raised are the lack of justification for the continued lockdown and against mandatory wearing of masks (it should remain voluntary) and awareness about the rising rates of suicide, joblessness, depression, isolation, and related issues. I have found it to be completely tolerant and open to all manner of controversial subjects and a welcome place for literally anyone, even completely opposed ideologies. The

"non-aggression principle" basically remains supreme and there hasn't been any violence at all (the worst thing that happened is someone had a single egg thrown at their tent on the first day, it is a surprisingly very civil protest, and a great way to meet friends and fight social isolation).

It's funny... If you are in one of these states and stay then you are a complicit libtard faggot. If you leave then you are a coward or are leftist filth spreading their disease. So which is it?

As for 'kill your politicians'... This won't change a goddammed thing and you know it. A worse one will just be placed in the seat who now has the power to make sure there are no more like you about. This is literally their plan!

You are advised to support those behind the lines. When they are gone the enemy will be at your doorstep. Your Rambo fantasy will wrap up pretty quickly when you realize there is a judge and the police and the entire Government behind them. There is no lone-wolf defense against that.

>Moving away from niggers and together with whites is cowardice

Actually most of modern military strategy is about retreating and baiting your enemy into attacking a defensible location. You need to be in a properly deployed in a defensible position to win anything.

Arguing that we shouldn't regroup is crazy. It's blazingly obvious that the big cities are not a strategically appropriate location to pitch a battle.

Regroup, unite, arm up, and bait them to come to us. They will even burn down their own homes and businesses for us.

Listen. A virus doesn't get out and kill millions of people like this. People, especially in first world countries, have good immune systems. Doesn't work like this. Our bodies are made to fight, adapt and survive. If you are young, eat well, and living in good sanitary conditions, you can't die like this. That goes for the plague threats as well. The plague can't come tomorrow and kill you. The Pasteurian medecine is a science build on erroneous concepts. It's only good for cash milking the cattle (Abraham Flexner). No wonder we're being attacked by the medical establishment right now. They been a problem since over a century.

Anyway there is few chances the elite are that stupid and ignore this fundamental principle. Which is leading me to think :

1 - Qanon concept of "wasting ammunition" is describing best the current situation. Obviously the plandemic was rushed. It really looks kind of imperfect in its execution. So what was the plan ? Probably was supposed to be released during Killary second mandate.

2 - The virus was supposed to work with 5G. I'm sorry if I sound like a nut. Because I was reluctant myself to listen to these theories. But there really seem to be something with the 5G. Obviously it's not about tech but about control. The 5G is not only terrifically Orwellian (just like the blockchain tech) but we know it's also bad for health.

The virus was made to respond to the 5G frequencies. Ever heard about zappers and stuff ? We react to frequencies. And you can induce diseases through them. Who knows what else. Targeting the mind and thoughts. Scary stuff. The tech is ready. But the 5G grid is not yet installed at all.

What does RFDT mean?

>Kitchener Ontario Protest Against Lockdown & Mandatory Mask Wearing

<https://www.bitchute.com/video/f0HQIz9v41e0/>

This protest has been going for a couple weeks now and will continue still for one week more (possibly longer, it may be extended, but guaranteed one week more). You may drop by any time. The issues being raised are the lack of justification for the continued lockdown and against mandatory wearing of masks (it should remain voluntary) and awareness about the rising rates of suicide, joblessness, depression, isolation, and related issues. I have found it to be completely tolerant and open to all manner of controversial subjects and a welcome place for literally anyone, even completely opposed ideologies. The "non-aggression principle" basically remains supreme and there hasn't been any violence at all (the worst thing that happened is someone had a single egg thrown at their tent on the first day, it is a surprisingly very civil protest, and a great way to meet friends and fight social isolation).

Far more people have committed suicide from the lockdowns than have died. When

Don't forget the war of attrition. In any kind of social collapse (which would be inevitable if negro protests weren't controlled), the bigger cities and centers of poz would be the first one to be hit with shortages and collapsing infrastructure. That would force them to go out to raid smaller towns, farms etc. which should be fortified like bunkers by then.

Los Alamos has seen an increase in suicides during the pandemic, rising from just two last year to triple that many so far this year.

>You need to be in a properly deployed in a defensible position to win anything. This anon speaks the truth. The reason antifa is burning the cities is that they attack in business districts which are mostly uninhabited at night, there's no one there to defend them. It's basically the meme about antifa attacking and killing a garbage can. The cities are also liberal run, and the liberals own the city police forces. Individual officers may be based, but the command structure is not.

If you meet antifa on their own turf, you will lose. Yeah, you can punch some commies, but you will get arrested, possibly beaten, the commies will disappear, you will get arrested. When antifa goes to the suburbs, by and large, they get routed. Big boys with bats appear, antifa basically runs, and if cops do show up, they slow walk it while the big boys get some hits on the commies. Then, the cops declare "mutual combat", and antifa leaves.

Covid particles' size is about 0.125 micron

FFP3 gas mask with anti-virus filter stops any particle larger than 0.10 micron
It's about 150 euros

If everyone was given one of these (or at least to those who need to go out) corona would die off in a week

In the mask industry everyone knows, yet they keep asking for FFP1 (yeah, those masks the media labels as FFP2) or other types of masks which are basically not a FFP

I seriously doubt govts aren't aware of this, my theory is that since actual war is not possible due to nuke mutual destruction they are resorting to a different type of war; biological warfare

I can't think of any other explanation

You are forgetting contact transmissions where people shed the virus onto their hands which then touch surfaces that others touch. Also viruses are not shed on their own. They are attached to tiny water droplets when coughed or sneezed out. These droplets (even in aspirated form) can be filtered out using a properly fitted N95 mask.

Continually sterilizing ones hands would fix the problem of secondary transfer to one's hands in lieu of disposable gloves.

You dipshit. Coronachan rides on water droplets, she's not out there floating free. It's like anthrax. Anthrax is in the dirt everywhere, but it takes a special process to dry it out so it can go airborne by itself, and thus be weaponized. It's not easy to do, which is why anthrax lung infections are rare. Same with coronachan. Unless someone is drying virus particles and blowing them in the air, they aren't getting through a mask.
OTOH, you do need to sterilize your mask, or at least rotate them, because if you have wet virus in the mask, then it dries out, yeah, it probably could come through. That being said, IIRC, these masks have a static charge to them, so maybe they stick anyway. I sterilize my masks in a special built oven, don't attempt that method in your home oven, you will probably burn them.

From Mother Shipton's poems: Last one, last part.

And yellow men great power gain

From mighty bear with whom they've lain.

These mighty tyrants will fail to do

They fail to split the world in two.

But from their acts a danger bred

An ague - leaving many dead. -she is talking about COVID

And physics find no remedy

For this is worse than leprosy.

Oh many signs for all to see

The truth of this true prophecy.

At this point I'm just waiting for the dragon. I stumbled onto her writings because I was researching "planet x" a term that has the same gematria as "Corona-chan", as well as "dark star". Both are nicknames for Nibiru. Which I'm on the fence about being an actual planet. What even is a planet anyway, what was a planet to the ancient Babylonians, did they consider it a planet at all? None of that is quite clear. You can tie this into Rev 8:8 and 8:11 pretty easily as well.

>did they consider it a planet at all?

I missed this comment.

No, I do not believe that they are speaking of 'planets'. Someone I know says that Corona was an ancient Goddess that comes from the deep waters of our planet (think Deepwater horizon) in fact, they claim that she is part of the Abyss or was locked in the abyss according to ancient legend. Supposedly WWIII almost broke out over the Deepwater Horizon accident after the 'explosion' there was about 8 or 9 different subs all trying to occupy the same space to collect the 'black goo' sentient life force and they were so competitive that they almost got into WWIII over it. Theoretically Corona-chan CAME FROM A LAB but is not the invention of people at all, but rather the self assembled life form as a result of the 'black goos' presence. I guess that is the fountainhead of all life. I think they need it to terraform other planets which is why it is so valuable to so many different agencies and 'others' since, of course, we are not alone here.

You remember that humans were not allowed to go down to the shore, only military personnel. That would be the first time ever that people were forbidden to go near an 'oil spill'. Oil spills happen all the time on the West coast down by long beach and no one thinks anything of it. Guess they didn't want us to 'catch anything they couldn't control'. LMAO.

I saw an interesting photo of a Masonic temple in AU where they had Boaz (thinking) and Jachin (memory) on the facade and someone had taken Jachin and splashed it with a bunch of black tar...the people who pointed it out commented that no one was cleaning it up and these people were normally quiet fastidious. Sooooo...I will just leave that there for you to ponder as you seem like an interesting fellow. :^) I would find the photo for you but I have to run in a few minutes.

That is what they were drilling in the abyss to find since that is where the great meteor impact was that began life here on Earth. So sort of a 'dragon' or dragon blood, I suppose. It sounds ridiculously kitschy but it is what it is without all the 'mysteriousness' that usually titillates human consciousness. What other world leader whines about the "deep state" in his own nation?

Insubordination in a functioning state is met with a firing at best, or a firing squad at worst. You don't hear Putin whining about rogue actors in Russia preventing him from ruling.

If the deep state is real, then it is Trump's responsibility for not purging it. What is more likely, is that this is a narrative to mollify the idiots who thought MAGA would actually be real. You've gotta KAGA to really MAGA goys, just vote harder and in the next four years I'll really hit the deep state hard! If you fell for this rhetoric, consider yourself just as retarded as the obese slob in Q shirts.

The governor of my state is literally a gay jew named Jared Shutz Polis.
From jewpedia:

<As an openly gay man, Polis has made history several times through his electoral success. In 2008, he became the first same-sex parent elected to the United States Congress. In 2018, he became the first openly gay person and second openly LGBT person (after Kate Brown of Oregon) elected governor of a state in the United States. He is also the first Jew elected governor of Colorado.

If that isn't gay enough, he issued a mask mandate in Colorado a little while ago. There is literally no legislation behind it and the cops can't enforce it. I talked to multiple cops and they all said they can't cite anyone for not wearing a mask, they can only cite someone for trespassing if a business throws you out of a store for not wearing a mask and you refuse to leave.

What the fuck is the point of a "mandate"? Does it even have any legal stipulations? Or is it some gay kike saying "you ought to do this!"?

Regards SARS2nCOV2019 (The Chinese Flu)

First, the virus.

It's designed to target you by your genes. All the rest can be found in 4chan.org/pol cvg threads.

Solutions people, what do do:

1. If you're up to age 19 go about your daily life but be smart: mix with each other but keep the distance with older people. No visiting grandparents. Have a health diet to maintain a good immune system.
2. If you're 20-40 add vitamins to boost your immune system.
3. If you're 41-60 as above unless you have a history of heavy drinking (liver conditions are fatal with this virus) or a history of smoking, legal or not. If so, then wear a mask.
4. If you're 61-80 lock down. Only go out for shopping, medical and exercise. Wear a mask unless you're very healthy.
5. If you're 81+ get groceries delivered. You will be bored to tears but alive.

The above is for those of Northern European descent, except Balitcs and Germans. A disease outbreak in antiquity caused a DNA switch to go 'on' (expression is the term geneticists are now using). This is a risk factor with the virus (A malaria outbreak during the Roman Empire caused another DNA switch to go 'on'. This is also a risk factor with the virus. Where the two populations meet, where both switches are 'on' is northern Italy, and you know what happened there).

Those of German or Baltic descent (three generations) and any other race, find your place on the above list and plus one.

Wait for a cure, if any.

Future updates may depend on the consistency of the effect of gender on a particular race (up to 90% of victims of the virus are men) and 'O' blood type. Depending on the data, people of any race who are either female, 'O' blood type or both may be able to find their position on the above list and -1.

>Someone I know says that Corona was an ancient Goddess that comes from the deep waters of our planet (think Deepwater horizon) in fact, they claim that she is part of the Abyss or was locked in the abyss according to ancient legend.

I'd very much like to know what goddess they're referring to exactly, and how they came to this conclusion. Might lead to some insights. In my experience Corona-chan is absolutely abyssal, as in Daath, which means knowledge. There's a pretty obvious correlation there between knowledge and memory. Very interesting take on the goo, the meteor, and the dragon as well. This definitely gives me some things to think about, thank you.

>I'd very much like to know what goddess they're referring to exactly, and how they came to this conclusion.

Oh. That comment was a mishmash of our thoughts together.

He said that Princess Coronus (black sun) was dealt with this way, and unfortunately while his knowledge is absolutely VAST he doesn't always tell the truth...I should rephrase that...he doesn't think linearly like we do so everything he says is probably true, but the human mind may not be able to fathom the depths of it. You can't tell a lie without 'the blinders'. When someone sees 'all' then all becomes truth as well and you simply have to shift the complexity from your own perspective to make it so. See how they cooperate together? You can position yourself anywhere, or tie yourself up like a pretzel (higher dimensional thinking). Any point in space time can kiss any other point. If I had to guess, I would say that he was speaking of our Mother, Tiamat. But this would also reverberate down to Azazel II, the female who is cast into the desert into the well and rough stones were placed over her to seal her down until the end of the Age, and down again and again until you reach all women. Now I know that it says 'desert' in classic literature but there is no desert in the world like the depths of the ocean.

One time, I was flying out of Scotland and I had a window seat so I spent the majority of my time looking out the window and into the very depths of the ocean (amazing experience to see it all yourself rather than some dumb lifeless topo map)...all the canyons and rivers that are formed there; anyway "life" occurs in the vast majority at the edge of the dry land and the sea. The vast majority of it is clustered there. So in its own way the dry land is sort of a desert (repetitious) and the deep ocean is sort of a desert (repetitious) with this teaming ecology at the boundary. -Well that is WAY off topic but whatever. The Knives edge between order and disorder. Stray but a little and all hope is lost....

Regarding the covid PCR test, I downloaded the WHO PCR test protocol in here : https://disq.us/url?url=https%3A%2F%2Fwww.who.int%2Fdocs%2Fdefault-source%2Fcoronaviruse%2Freal-time-rt-pcr-assays-for-the-detection-of-sars-cov-2-institut-pasteur-paris.pdf%3Fsfvrsn%3D3662fcb6_2%3APGMRomm5ZKe0cHNWxVN2L-QvZ5M&cuid=4781106

It's said that it detects this DNA sequence "CTCCCTTTGTTGTGTTGT" as a positive result that you have covid.

Funny enough, the "ctccctttgttgtgttgt" sequence is also the primer of your own 8th chromosome (https://www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/nucleotide/NC_000008.11?report=genbank&log%24=nucalign&from=63648346&to=63648363).

So basically, the PCR test detects if you have an 8th chromosome (which you do) and then labels you as covid infected.

>So basically, the PCR test detects if you have an 8th chromosome (which you do) and then labels you as covid infected.

Is there a population on the planet that is missing (lol) the 8th chromosome?

> About 8% of its (8th chromosome) genes are involved in brain development and function

So they are testing if we have a brain? lol

<If you have a brain you are covid infected.

It is unfortunate that COVID is that closely linked to brain development, tho.

No seriously, 16% of the 8th chromosome are involved in the development of cancer as well, so this is interesting.

> A unique feature of 8p is a region of about 15 megabases that appears to have a high mutation rate. This region shows a significant divergence between human and chimpanzee, suggesting that its high mutation rates have contributed to the evolution of the human brain.

"It's just a flu bro...totally not a gene drive that will impair brain function in your offspring or anything..."

It's funny because when I showed your last reply to a friend of mine he brought up Princess Coronis and Tiamat. This time though he was drawn straight to pic from The Mummy >its come up over and over on 8chan/8kun

>first with Ammit back on 8chan /monster/

>it came out with the emergence of Ammit

>then, a few years later, it comes up again on /pnd/ in connection to Corona-chan

>oh, and the tomb with three skulls and engraved symbols that got dug up in Alexandria, was almost exactly like the was the sarcophagus on The Mummy was discovered. deep pit, the alabaster head watching it, accidentally discovered in the middle of a city during construction etc

>air lifted away

I had forgotten about most of that, but immediately thought of that tomb when you mentioned the well in the desert.

If I had to point you towards any entity though, it would be Choronzon. He's absolutely at play here, and has something to do with Corona-chan. I've come to think of him as the progenitor of virusgirls. It's very likely that a lot of other entities are involved as well though.

Might also be interesting to note that Leviathan has the same gematric value as Corona-chan as well.

This comment is all over the place, but I have faith you can track it.

>first with Ammit back on 8chan /monster/

You know anon, this is really odd because I was just doing research on Etruscan Gods and the keeper of the dead for them is Vaticanus (female). Which is interesting because the Vatican is located over the cemetery of the Etruscan dead in Rome. The Vatican is also tied to Leviathan as well. The sign of Pisces is bound (enchained) to the Figure of Leviathan (Cetus).

<https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Cetus>

It has fallen out of fashion, now that the jews 'are their own messiah' (materialists) but there used to be a widely held belief that Pisces (the function of Christ) was a dual messianic system that followed the pattern of Adam and Eve, just in reverse (therefor Revelation is the antithesis of Genesis; for masons this twinning idea would probably show up as the keystone/cancer/twins).

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Messiah_ben_Joseph (the one who is born again; Osiris)

Ammit's role in devouring the unjust souls of the dead and keeping order.

<https://youtu.be/qj8oIIuHU4s>

Ammit must be similar to Dābbat al-Ard then (as both are composite creatures/demons that Judge souls).

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Beast_of_the_Earth

This is interesting because that would potentially make her, Ammit into Choronzon (the female/male; guardian of the gate) Uni (Maya/Gaia). She is a threshold, make sense given how we are born into this world through a threshold (women) as well. If you track back to Buddhist philosophy it is Maya who gives the testimony that his soul is pure so that he can ascend. This would also tie back to the flaming sword and the Cherubs (covenant) in the Garden of Eden that guard the way to Eden.

Interestingly enough, this makes the dual Messiahs cherubs (or flaming angels; Alpha and Omega) that protect Mercy and the way to Eden from the land of the Dead (here). That third pic is interesting (it is just some comic book character) because it reflects the power of Air as well and the Air Cycle. I, for one, do not believe that souls are just 'devoured' but rather that they are recycled to the creation force and (it sounds terrible but it is not as nothing is ever wasted) torn apart to be recompiled into something divergent that can 'try again' later.

IMO the 'Lake of Fire' is not something horrific but a place of pure creation and all potential manifest (which is chaotic and terrifying to an ordered creature) but also a life generating. It should never be thought of as 'punishment' but rather loving correction, recombination and infinite chance to reach paradise for the entire material universe (you have to remove human fear and guilt and understand a thing's purpose). God is not a tyrant.

I-iku or the 'field/garden' in between Pisces (portrayed as a fish and dove in Babylonia lore; or two phases of Venus) is Eden. A garden was always started by a young woman on the day she got married in Babylon her mother gave her 1 of the 72 bricks that make up the 72 of a garden.

So on a non-meta level, IDK if you remember but there were I think 2 comments by an anon somewhere on 8kun that were snarky comments about how the 'designer' of the virus (supposedly a brilliant man who was punished for his 'betrayal') learned what was planned, objected to it and betrayed those who commissioned the design. These two snarky comments struck me hard since I felt they were the truth. Now combine this with the prophecies you yourself linked about every cell and every fiber of being will be forced to 'decide' how it will function and we have something strange and very unusual on the horizon that no one will be expecting.

>They will start as fires that burn within us, and we will burn up with desires and conflict if we do not remember the original teachings

>It is important to understand that these messages will be found upon every living thing, even within our bodies, even within a drop of our blood. All life forms will receive the messages from the twins ... those that fly, the plants, even the rabbit. The appearance of the twins begins a period of seven years will be our final opportunity to change our ways. Everything we experience is all a matter of choice.

Reminds me of the very end of 2001 when he says, "Something is going to happen. Something wonderful."

I wish I had more space for photos. At any rate, tl:dr, yes, I believe this is all tied together as well. Sorry this was so long.

>That third pic is interesting (it is just some comic book character) lol that is actually Leviathan from the comic book 'Hellraiser' (I had forgotten that when I uploaded it)

This also ties into Hel from the Norse Mythology.

Also Loki's children care for the underworld (here). I don't like these renderings because they bring ugliness into the equation and these are still powerful beings born of the Gods. There is no reason for them to be ugly just because we are afraid of them; mankind is very predictable.

Live coronavirus found on meat, seafood weeks later, researchers say

>"We do know from studies overseas that actually, the virus can survive in some refrigerated environments for quite some time," Ashley Bloomfield, New Zealand director-general of health, said in mid-August, per the Associated Press.

Clearly this person is as dumb as a stump since virus are not 'living' organisms in the first place. Virus are data that uses living organisms to facilitate reproduction of data, not living things themselves. The only way to 'kill' a virus is through entropy or data destruction. Of course a virus can survive in an environment where entropy is less likely to occur (like a fridge or freezer)!
How the fuck do they think these things are stored in bioweapons research labs anyway?

Dumb asses...it is like they are big retarded children or something.

Not that it matters...since the pathogen is a self assembled phage/spikes protein it is going to infect all living material on the planet no matter what we do.
That is their sole job on the planet, to control the exponential growth rate of Life.

Jesus, fuck anon...choke yourself to death on meat...gorge yourself until it is coming out your pores.

You are TOTALLY missing the entire point which is that there is not going to be a form of life on the planet which is not infected. Literally gorge yourself...it simply doesn't matter since all your food is going to be infected quickly, grains, fish, beef, cattle humans, vegetables, sugar, coffee, chocolate...shove it all in your fucking gullet...you aren't getting away from this one. If you don't catch it from the coof, you will catch it by eating it. Even the soil will be covered in this one by the time it all plays out.

Why do you all have to be so dull?

Basically the Wuflu has two functions, the first one which is what got people worried was the fact that it tricks your immune system to produce the wrong T-Cells for itself. So your body won't fight it off properly each time and upon reinfection will trigger an even worse response from your immune system when it detects it again and realizes it didn't do its job triggering a cytokine storm. This will keep happening until you die from the cytokine storms.

The other thing is that it has a specific and deliberate destination in the brain, it is specifically targeting your nervous system to spread into your brain stem. This virus is huge in size as far as viruses go and it has some kind of mystery payload which is theorized to be the "trojan horse".

The lethality rates in China and Iran is higher because there is two separate original strains, what I've listed above is true for both but the aggressive strain in China is designed to aggressively attack everything so you get immediate inflammation damage everywhere including your nervous system this is why people stop breathing. The reinfection rates are also very nasty in China cause it's a fucking shithole, Iran is arab country and those guys are very touchy at family dinners cause you eat by hand.

Reinfection is a thing. This is never going away and you can't make a vaccine for it. 47% of patients, even those with asymptomatic presentations end up with damaged immune systems and organs/tissues. It is going to take more than a year to see what will happen with this, just like what happened with HIV...we didn't understand the presentation of that for YEARS because it takes YEARS to understand the full presentation of the disease. Never really considered that, but yeah, I see what you mean. There's a pretty interesting statement on that wiki page as well

You might be onto something there. I have heard of Ammit appearing along side Choronzon once. Probably on other occasions as well, since he seems to be one of the most consistent entities I've ever heard of as far as imagery and associations. I've had very limited experience with him myself though, and on our one meeting he took the role of a chaperone. I really didn't interact with him at all. He appeared as a wall of thin, black, tentacles, I tend to describe it like animated grass covered in oil. I wouldn't bother mentioning it, except that we've been talking about black goo, so it could be relevant.

He who would be born must first destroy a world.

That is absolutely profound anon. I should be afraid (and I was for a long time) but now I am simply waiting to see what is going to happen. And yes, people call me negative as well, but I think it is just because they don't understand what is happening (this is intentional on their part I think; but decide they will!) or they understand but are afraid of change. I pity them because I understand the root of their fear; a child's heartbeat and stress goes way up during the birth process.

Reminds me of the old Monty Python joke about the Fetus Frightening Machine.

>I have heard of Ammit appearing along side Choronzon once.

Would that make him our father I guess? I have seen something similar in the Garden of Souls. Each soul appeared as a thread that has its own totally unique color spectrum and there are billions of them (I know what they say about light and they are just wrong). My 'Mother' was showing me all of them and I was in awe of them, it was like a vast vast field of souls and each one was totally unique. I was looking for that one soul among the billions. Maybe the two dragon guardians of the North and South have to pull the egg apart just like in meiosis. That will 'be fun'. lol When you think about it the entire cosmos is constructed just like a human cell with each constellation as some aspect of the Eggs inner functions.

This shit actually hit home for the second time today. I was at the general store and this 7 or 8 year old girl came up to me and said I had to wear a mask. Obviously, the girl was being instructed/looked over by the shopkeep. She gave me a little blue on one side mask and I wore it, got my eggs and liquor and left. Kept the little mask.

Not sure what the point of that was. Seems like some effort to sell masks to people or something. They don't seal or anything.

You silly people need to stop this bullshit lol. I never expected to see someone talking about it or doing that shit in real life, just the internet or cities or something.

Department of Justice Requesting Data From Governors of States that Issued COVID-19 Orders that May Have Resulted in Deaths of Elderly Nursing Home Residents

<https://archive.fo/Ez6Aw>

Data will help inform whether the Department of Justice will initiate investigations under the Civil Rights of Institutionalized Persons Act (CRIPA) regarding New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Michigan's response to COVID-19 in public nursing homes

>Today the Justice Department requested COVID-19 data from the governors of states that issued orders which may have resulted in the deaths of thousands of elderly nursing home residents. New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and Michigan required nursing homes to admit COVID-19 patients to their vulnerable populations, often without adequate testing. For example, on March 25, 2020, New York ordered: "No resident shall be denied re-admission or admission to [a nursing home] solely based on a confirmed or suspected diagnosis of COVID-19. [Nursing homes] are prohibited from requiring a hospitalized resident who is determined medically stable to be tested for COVID-19 prior to admission or readmission."

>"Protecting the rights of some of society's most vulnerable members, including elderly nursing home residents, is one of our country's most important obligations," said Assistant Attorney General for Civil Rights Division Eric Dreiband. "We must ensure they are adequately cared for with dignity and respect and not unnecessarily put at risk." According to the Centers for Disease Control, New York has the highest number of COVID-19 deaths in the United States, with 32,592 victims, many of them elderly. New York's death rate by population is the second highest in the country with 1,680 deaths per million people. New Jersey's death rate by population is 1,733 deaths per million people - the highest in the nation. In contrast, Texas's death rate by population is 380 deaths per million people; and Texas has just over 11,000 deaths, though its population is 50 percent larger than New York and has many more recorded cases of COVID-19 - 577,537 cases in Texas versus 430,885 cases in New York. Florida's COVID-19 death rate is 480 deaths per million; with total deaths of 10,325 and a population slightly larger than New York.

>The Department of Justice's Civil Rights Division is evaluating whether to initiate investigations under the federal "Civil Rights of Institutionalized Persons Act" (CRIPA), which protects the civil rights of persons in state-run nursing homes, among others. The Civil Rights Division seeks to determine if the state orders requiring admission of COVID-19 patients to nursing homes is responsible for the deaths of nursing home residents. On March 3, 2020, the Attorney General announced the Justice Department's National Nursing Home Initiative. This is a comprehensive effort by the department, led by the Elder Justice Initiative and in strong partnership with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services that uses every available tool to pursue nursing homes that provide substandard care to their residents. As announced on April 10, 2020, the department is also investigating the Soldiers' Home in Holyoke, Massachusetts, where COVID-19 has taken the lives of at least 76 residents. <https://www.justice.gov/opa/pr/federal-investigation-conditions-nursing-home-veterans-massachusetts-announced>

>The data requests and Soldiers' Home investigation are not accusations of fault or wrongdoing by the states or any other individual or entity, and the department has not reached any conclusions about these matters.

There is nothing that would suggest that they didn't plan a pandemic to coincide with this attempted overthrow of the USA. If our elected officials still represented us they would be clear that it was a biological attack as a precursor to an invasion/war in the USA. That is 'ok' though, we will take care of them the same way we take care of everyone else.

>Would that make him our father I guess?

I don't think so, but he isn't dissimilar in a lot of ways. At least from the hermetic perspective. I have a very second hand understand of his nature, but he is dispersion, and permeates all things and every aspects of reality. He also seems to have dominion over decay, or decay is an aspect of dispersion, I'm not sure which is more accurate. I lean towards the latter though.

>Maybe the two dragon guardians of the North and South have to pull the egg apart just like in meiosis. That will 'be fun'. lol When you think about it the entire cosmos is constructed just like a human cell with each constellation as some aspect of the Eggs inner functions.

Now that really gets me thinking. Idk if you're aware, but the planets magnetic field is split right now. We have 4 poles at the moment, two north and two south.

<https://archive.vn/jCg7Z>

There also something called the South Atlantic Anomaly, likely related, which is about to split in two. If you look at this image, it looks just like a stage of meiosis.

I just had a thought that made me giggle. If the ID2020 goes ahead only for the Earth's magnetic field to sperg out and flip the poles causing the RFID chips to fry after a solar flare renders them useless because of a weakened EM field round the Earth.

>I have a very second hand understand of his nature, but he is dispersion, and permeates all things and every aspects of reality.
Ok, so he is 'guardian of the North' but the aspect of his power is all future states of matter as much as he is Entropy/Future state of material. This is why on your guided tour all the grasses (threads) are decaying and on my tour with my 'Mother' guardian/aspect of the South' all the grasses (threads) are full of brilliant light.

This would explain why they protect the Antarctic so closely and why none of us 'plebs' are ever allowed to go there. It also explains why they took the Ark of Gabriel there; there must also be a very large temple there since they didn't just throw it into the snow and walk off as well as the transfer of all the worlds cultural possessions to the Southern Hemisphere as well as the criminal parasites carefully locating themselves in the Southern Hemisphere (the Bush Ranch and Merkel, etc etc). It is for the resurrection (Coven-ant) so it must be placed nearest to the source of Life. Sort of makes me wonder if the earth is (metaphorically) more like a scroll that gets unrolled in one direction (from the South to the North) with the North being the absolute terminus of all material and the South being the absolute genesis of all material.

>There also something called the South Atlantic Anomaly, likely related, which is about to split in two. If you look at this image, it looks just like a stage of meiosis.

Anon, that is brilliant. When you look at the scalar world that is too close to be 'coincidence'. No wonder Mother Shipton and many other prophets say that all the 'new earth' will come up out of the ocean and 'be clean' when mankind starts over again. I wish there was room for one more photo I hate taking up two replies but I wanted to share one last thing with you.

Saged for OT.

None of these graphics really illustrate what I wanted to show you, but they get close.

The idea being that the Earth is really a fourth dimensional object that 'inverts' itself on occasion similar to a Kline bottle. It is not that 'the poles flip' it is that the entire thing inverts itself and that what belonged to the day succumbs to Hades while what was in Hades comes up to the light (is born again).

That Orphic image shows the 'two sides' of the Sphere of Earth the same as the Irminsul image.

This is one of the great secrets of 'Vitruvian Man'. Look up Vitruvian scrolls (not the image of 'vitruvian man' these Vitruvian scrolls are placed everywhere on Masonic buildings and they are always a 'boundary' delineation). It could be that we are not continuously inverting as a unit of this duality.

There is also a huge hot spot and some strange noises and Gama particles shooting out from under the ice in the Antarctic that 'scientists didn't think was possible'.

Very interesting take. I'll show this to the friend I mentioned before. He's much better acquainted with Choronzon than I am. For now I'll just say that he's seen a light inside the black mass on multiple occasions, sometimes it appears as a room within it. Assuming you're right then I would wager that there's a corresponding darkness within the Mother you've mentioned. This also could allude to a role reversal, that corresponds with the pole shift/inversion you described in >>154762 It's almost the exact same phenomenon, but on a non-material level. It's all extremely speculative, especially on my part, but I don't think it's outside the realm of possibilities.

Anon what occult/religious tradition do you come from? I am looking for information that is not on the chans and it is nice to speak to someone who is interested/curious/thoughtful and has no motives for sharing information. I am 'le tired' right now after 4 years on the chans and would like to communicate with people in a place that isn't 'persuasive' but is reflective. I am impressed with your demeanor and was hoping there was a community of your tradition, similar to yourself, that shared information and thoughts.

>Assuming you're right then I would wager that there's a corresponding darkness within the Mother you've mentioned.

Yes, you are correct this is why the thread lights of the Garden of Souls (or the Well of Souls) is so striking because they are in housed darkness and they do not shed their own light, so it is all contained within them. It would be similar to taking the light of the stars into the souls and holding it in a constant state rather than letting them emit. Also, I think that this is one material state above the equivalent to Choronzon which might be the Sea of Glass/Fire/Creation on our side. I have never seen any darkness within it, but it is possible, since I haven't explored the whole thing or even a fraction of it.

That unit looks as heavy as fuck. You would be unlikely to be able to wear it for extended periods of time. The mass of the unit would pull the wearer's head down which would place strain on the wearer's neck as the wearer continually has to keep their head up. You would have a sore neck after 10 minutes of continual use. This one is only designed for big guys.

Fungusfag came from when the sulphur dioxide readings spiked in a field outside wuhan, and people started calculating how many dead bodies you would have to burn to make that much SO².

This is when fungusfag appeared and started building his narrative of corona being a fungus, because he had found a garden antifungal which had SO² in it, claiming the chinks were spraying that.

Since then the narrative has changed a few times, but the faggot remains the same.

Instead of vaccinations we should be looking at preventative measures so we can take the mask off and not worry about infection in the first place.

Unfortunately it's illegal to do anything medical unless you're a doctor. So until a doctor figures it out were doomed.

I've already got a pretty good answer. Acyclovir and diflucan.

The viruses ability to change forms is a natural consequence of the folding geometry of the capsids containing viral components. Making 100 different vaccines probably isn't the best approach.

There seems to be a lot of confusion around the limited dialect medical professionals have. They call mycoplasma a bacteria when in Latin it says it's a fungus. They look up it's a bacteria and treat it with the wrong antibiotics when they need azoles.

It's really bad. It's bad when dealing with viruses.

Look. By the definition you'd think mycoplasma pneumonia which is common would be a bacterial infection when it's infact a viral fungus.

What sort of citation are you looking for?

The masks do stop liquid particles. Just because the size of the virus is smaller than the cloth fiber, you have to keep in mind that there's so many layers of mask versus particles.

I'm Optimistic /pol/

Are You?

>The COVID-19 story illustrates the tremendous capacity and speed of science in the 21st century, and the power of international collaboration.

>I am optimistic that the world will have a safe and effective vaccine by the end of this year or early 2021.

>More than 100 vaccine candidates, including one by Moderna, are being developed around the world and about 36 have already entered human clinical trials. My optimism is not simply based on a numbers game. Nine vaccine candidates have now entered Phase 3 human trials, the final step before regulatory approval. The fact that entirely different approaches to vaccine development are all yielding promising early results is highly encouraging.

>I am also hopeful because of the science behind these vaccines. The technology powering RNA vaccines, for example, was initially developed to deliver genes into the body to reprogram cells to behave like stem cells. This is the kind of science that is changing all of vaccinology, not just COVID-19 vaccine development.

>Anon what occult/religious tradition do you come from?

I'm a hermeticist, other than that I don't really claim any path or current whatsoever. I can't really advise looking for that sort of community among hermetic circles though. There might be something comfy out there, but most of those people are faggots kek. Every occult group I've ever encountered online always devolves into bickering over the dumbest things. After a few I stayed away from all of them. So I suppose I'm no help in that department. I do have a little dicksword. It's gonna cause a lot of shit if I drop a link here, but if you're interested I'd be happy to invite ya.

>Yes, you are correct this is why the thread lights of the Garden of Souls (or the Well of Souls) is so striking because they are in housed darkness and they do not shed their own light, so it is all contained within them. It would be similar to taking the light of the stars into the souls and holding it in a constant state rather than letting them emit. Also, I think that this is one material state above the equivalent to Choronzon which might be the Sea of Glass/Fire/Creation on our side. I have never seen any darkness within it, but it is possible, since I haven't explored the whole thing or even a fraction of it.

I've been thinking a bit about all this and I'm wondering if the guardian of the norf is a male at all. The earth is as far as I know universally considered female, and these are the earths poles we're talking about. There are also two archetypal mothers, the divine mother (The womb, connected to Mary, and the Divine Feminine) and the dark mothers, connected to the Void (Lilith, Tiamat, Hekate, Azanigin). Lilith is said to come from the north as well, north is where "evil" is said to come from. Both archetypes are connected though, just like the poles. Lilith is just as light and divine as Mary. I'll just leave it at that and see what you think. I don't know as though it solves anything so much as just alters the question a bit. kek Kallmann syndrome is a form of a group of conditions termed hypogonadotropic hypogonadism. To distinguish it from other forms of hypogonadotropic hypogonadism, Kallmann syndrome has the additional symptom of a total lack of sense of smell (anosmia) or a reduced sense of smell.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Kallmann_syndrome

The link between anosmia and hypogonadism had already been noted by Spanish doctor Aureliano Maestre de San Juan in 1856.[9][10].

In other words this is a very old and well documented phenomenon involving disruption of the HPA.

Eh, there's always TRT (which is glorious). I'm pretty isolated, there's no reason to do anything other than protect myself (respirator and goggles, shower when home) when I go out maybe once a week.

If you have a respirator down your throat, I doubt you are eating anything. You are being fed through a tube.

SAGED FOR OT

>I do have a little dicksword. It's gonna cause a lot of shit if I drop a link here, but if you're interested I'd be happy to invite ya.

;^) Thanks anon. Don't worry about it. It sounds fantastic but when I started advocating for hardcore European Ethnogloblism I really lost my ability to have any personal presence online (VoIP) that is connected to the chans. Thank you for that answer about hermeticism tho, it is providing me with a lot of interesting reading. You will just have to be one of those people who I really wish I knew IRL {sigh...</3}. You know, sometimes I really think that I would have been better off never knowing about the web since it has provided me with access to some of the most amazing people I have ever met who I will never get to know IRL.

Mind to mind connections are so addictive.

What I wouldn't give to find a place that wasn't full of larping faggots where people could simply thoughtfully reflect and share occult information. lol

>the guardian of the north is a male at all

I would say no, I have never thought so but I always ran up against this constant refrain that she is male (from males and I have no idea what to make of this), so I assumed that there were a duality there that I was not perceiving, still I could never reconcile what I knew with what everyone else maintained. If I cared to go back and look in one of my earlier comments you can see that I mentioned 'the male' (assuming that in terms of the guardian of the North (I think it was this thread).

>Lilith is just as light and divine as Mary.

I love them both with a passion, maybe Lilith a little more because I would like to comfort her and show her what it means to be Love again, she has been disconnected from the source for so long, is anyone surprised she is mad; Mary seems sufficient already (a bit boring without her Lilith side).

I have been investigating Enochian magic for the last couple days since it came up again randomly (without the LARP, hopefully) because I think it is 'waiting' for the right person, it might have been built for me, at least that is the feeling I got while perusing and reading about it last night (I am looking for some sort of artifact; I keep picking ideas up and putting them back down over and over again).

We have to correct that imbalance. And, you know how it is...the Antichrist can't be a man because the story of 'the fall' started with a woman, it has to end with a woman as well.

'Anti' doesn't mean 'against' in Greek it mean 'in opposition' like a pair of swinging doors in a saloon or bookends or twins. Mirror opposites rather than antagonists. I hope this is what I am looking for...wish me luck anon. :^)

No problem, The Corpus itself is pretty dense, but I'm sure you'll do fine. It's beautiful as well. I think you'll like The Kybalion as well. Then there are hundreds of lesser and associated texts of varying degrees and values as well. It is the desktop philosophy behind the workbench activity that is alchemy, so it can be very elusive, and dangerous sometimes kek

>I have been investigating Enochian magic for the last couple days since it came up again randomly

Odd you should mention it tbh, I was just telling someone about John Dee and his shew stone earlier after they told me about a rock that's believed to have been produced by a lightning strike in 1912. Assuming that sort of scrying is what you're referring to.

>the Antichrist can't be a man because the story of 'the fall' started with a woman, it has to end with a woman as well.

Could well be. I don't spend much time thinking about that part of the prophecy myself, for no particular reason. Being a woman would be a good curve ball though.

Yeah, I think they're low balling it myself. Hard to say what the actual number is, but I've seen a lot of polls, professional and otherwise, that suggest the number of people who wouldn't take it is higher than that. There's also a lot of people who don't want to get it if it's rushed, and others who want to see how it does in the general pop before they get it themselves.

Anon...anon...we went over this in like thread #15. People didn't catch the virus 'as often' when they were pulling air into their lungs through a flaming hot ember because it couldn't remain intact due to the temperature. They still got the virus because they didn't smoke 24/7, just not as often because when in public their air was filtered through both the cigarette filter as well as the fire. When they did get the virus they almost always died because their lungs were so damaged and weak.

Everything is on a bell curve, if something is protective, it usually won't protect all. That's not because smokers constantly breathe through a cig, so you think smokers are chain smoking and occasionally come up for air? The science isn't settled on this, but I doubt it's because of pulling some air in through a cig, that's absurd. Smokers can't even smoke inside in most places, and inside is where you would get infected.

If you want my 2c, it's because in smokers, their lungs are covered in a sticky tar that's basically protective. It's a layer of defense that normal people don't have. Smoking is also immunosuppressive, so you don't get the normal inflammation from an infection, and with coronachan, the inflammation is what kills you.

And the science isn't settled because it was decided that they didn't want to encourage people to smoke, so the study was denounced and buried.

If this virus exists, and came from Wuhan, where the fuck were the glorified Americans to throw an atom bomb on Wuhan, so the virus will never get out of there ?

That brings me to a conclusion that Hiroshima and Nagasaki were never nuked.

>"Look, the best thing he did for New York City was leave," Cuomo said. "Good riddance, let him go to Florida, be careful not to get COVID."

>Cuomo also slammed Trump's handling of the COVID pandemic and said he is the cause of coronavirus in New York.

>"It is his negligence that brought it here and his arrogance that he won't provide state and local funding to help states and cities recover from the pandemic that his negligence caused," Cuomo said. When asked what would happen if the federal funding goes away, Cuomo said that NYC receives roughly $7 billion a year in federal aid for housing, medical, health and homeland security funding.

Death by corona (uk) given as 640 deaths per million people (search engine result)

Normally, deaths are prestented proportionally as x deaths per 100,000 people (ONS data). When you spot the obfuscation, you can see that 64 deaths per 100,000 is roughly a quarter of 2018's 'deaths from avoidable causes'...

<https://www.ons.gov.uk/peoplepopulationandcommunity/healthandsocialcare/causesofdeath/bulletins/avoidablemortalityinenglandandwales/latest>

In 2018, approximately 22% of all deaths in the UK were considered avoidable (138,293 deaths out of 616,014) with an age-standardised mortality rate of 237.9 deaths per 100,000 population.

>Can't get rid of poliochan so quick!

Not when it is actually contained in the 'vaccine'. They had the same problem in India. India wanted to declare Bill Gates a criminal for all the death they have endured from his 'polio vaccine' but they were stopped by political forces. All cases of polio on the planet at this point are directly linked to the strain of polio that was used in his vaccine.

Credit to Zahir for reminding me of this...

Ground levels of ozone are skyrocketing as ethanol 15% (E15) gasoline is spreading into all the suburbs replacing pure gasoline and E10 10% ethanol gasoline. Ethanol combustion produces ozone directly, and through secondary reactions. Ozone causes a great deal of the symptoms of COVID such as the dry cough, the chest pain, the headaches, the compromised immunity of the T-cells of the lungs, all of it, and on top of are the permanent double strand breaks in our DNA that are resulting from ozone exposure that will jack up lung cancer rates.

There are ventilators that absorb ozone to protect your lungs...What I suggest is to try out one of these, wear it for several hours during daytime, then walk outside and take a lungful of outside in direct sunlight...mmm good fresh ozone becomes apparent as your ozone noseblindness has been ameliorated.

Merging from deleted thread:

Wear an N95 mask if you can. And all the other rules. I've been reserving my judgement on this pandemic. Is this a fucking hoax, are they overstating the severity, are the Jews behind this etc. These sound bites from Fauci and Gates. I mean seriously what the fuck is going on?

After months of careful unbiased observation I can tell you what's going on. I now know people who've been killed by this virus. I used to hang at a forum dominated by Jews and I've been observing their discussions. Out of respect for their privacy i won't get into specifics but they are connected to the power structure. You wanna know what they're doing? They've been working on home deliveries for their groceries cheapest/most reliable etc. Curb side drop off and they have it dialed in, most claim they will continue to have it delivered after the pandemic.

Lets talk about Trump, Where the fuck did you get the idea he's pro white? actions vs words. He's pro white genocide. He said he cut air travel from China. Bullshit after that declaration we had 40k passengers arrive from wuhan. He said China hid the virus, bullshit he knew. Hell this forum knew. He popped off at the mouth and China cut imports of masks. Our policy to this day is to give the N95's to doctors. Why? Doctors and healthcare pros are overwhelmingly Jewish. I've worked at coal fired power plants, i used to wear those masks all day every day. take your oxygen readings and conspiracy theories and shove em up your ass. They don't hurt you all. Those masks aren't made by rare albino spiders in the north pole. there's no fucking reason we shouldn't have those for ourselves.

But the real clincher on his policy on white people is the opioid epidemic. He tried to appoint Tom Perez as the opiate czar, a fucking lobbyist who pushed policies protected the opiate pushing drug companies. Oh Trump took a quik photo without a mask with people the secret service confirmed aren't corona positive. Look at Herman Cain. I can tell you that what's protecting a good part of the country is swamp coolers. Constant supply of fresh air, well summer's coming to a close. Why am I telling you this , i'm trying to protect my grandparents and other family members that probably won't be able to survive. Also we know this movement is infiltrated by Jews and they have a unique opportunity to spread rumors that will absolutely wreck us and our families. Something to think about when you see some posts about it's a hoax, it's not a severe disease etc. That's exactly what your enemies want you to believe. Let them out themselves. Oh the mask cut your oxygen level etc. Bull fucking shit, have any of you motherfuckers worked around coal? I've wore those fucking things daily for years. The scarring in the heart, remember that. The rich people and the Jews are hunkered down and safe, now trump appoints a herd immunity shill, god help us.

Nevermind the long term scarring in the heart. I can't believe our people are so dumbed down they won't wear a mask to save hundreds of thousands of lives. You wanna open the country? Get N95's to the general public, oh no Jared's not making any money on that. Fuck Trump and Biden with a big rubber dick, we are on our own with the corporations against us.

My reply: Eat shit and die. We're not wearing your slave collars.

I agree with this quite a lot tbh. The exception being the Trump bit. I don't think he's anti-white, so much as a jew loving dipshit who cant wrap his head around the concept of a virus. Many such cases. That's also the bit about China, they did pull a cover up, but that has nothing to do with Trump's complacency. It was easier for him to believe that it was a dem hoax than a abstract threat. This is why all epidemics generate conspiracies, a lot of people just cant comprehend it.

I've attended and hosted four parties in the last 3 months that had 25+ people. I never wear a mask and only wash my hands before eating. I haven't gotten sick and I don't know a single person who has had ((covid)). I also live in one of the most restrictive regions in the US because it's a "hot zone." Major metropolitan area of about 12 million people. I contact traced the people from the last gathering I attended and none of them have tested positive. I've been testing negative every 2 weeks when I go into my work. This shit is 100% bullshit. It's a bad flu that kills unhealthy fucks and old people. Nothingburger kike lies as usual.

Very interesting, anon. Thanks for bringing this up. That's one thing a lot of the craterbrains overlook, that there are fates worse than death. We have no idea what sort of lasting effects Corona-chan will have on the human body.

I encourage all of you, to create to themselves a sovereignty declaration which will look something like this :

"I am...and i declare myself as a completely sovereign entity...No law applies to me...I have my own set of laws, and i have only rights..."

Feel free to leave, sovereign citizen. You're not welcome here, and you can't question your lack of welcome without infringing on your own ideological positions. Hey, what happens if you're banned from here? That proves you don't have your own set of laws, and that you don't have only rights. Thought experiment. Mull over that for a while.

Alright bros, I've been riding this train since late December. I'm full prepper mode, if I ever have to leave I wear a damn respirator, I believed in her all this time... but I've never had as much doubt as I do now. My parents are both doctors that have continued to work and have not contracted the virus despite wearing nothing but surgical masks for the most part. My mother has started wearing the respirator I've bought her, but she's fed up and is really starting to believe this thing is a psyop. Honestly I'm not so sure anymore. Is it really that slow burning, and the second wave will wreak devastation, or is this it?

It has nothing to do with my intelligence, projecting midwit. Any intelligent man, such as I know that I am, can fall for a con, but only a fool falls for it twice.

And you fail to understand, being the midwit that you are, that I didn't "fall" for anything. I wanted it to happen, and from the devastation lay the groundwork for something new. I wouldn't expect someone of such low intelligence to understand.

You were stupid. You're a blithering idiot. You literally fell for it. You believed that it would happen. At all. You're dumb.

Sara Ludy

I've been using it, and have gotten mixed results, it can be wonky. It has repeated target themes and generated images based on my drawings. Oftentimes, I have to start new chats to 'reset' it, and then I can get a stream of good results. ChatGPT4 has... See more

Is the 'internet apocalypse' nigh? Breaking down the solar-storm science.

June 28, 2023

Make us preferred on Google

On Aug. 31, 2012, a long filament of solar material that had been hovering in the sun's atmosphere, the corona, erupted out into space. The coronal mass ejection, or CME, did not travel directly toward Earth, but did connect with Earth's magnetic environment, or magnetosphere, causing aurora to appear on the night of Sept 3. (Goddard Space Flight Center/NASA)

By Kelsey Ables

It sounds like the stuff of sci-fi. Magnetic fields unleashed by a solar superstorm rip through Earth's magnetosphere, sending currents surging through human infrastructure. Aurora borealis unusually fill southern skies with shimmering blues and greens. We look up from our phones and computers to catch a glimpse, and the internet as we know it blinks out.
